CONCORD, NOV. 4, 1897.

We see that Mr. Will T. Ellwanger, of the Wilbur Opera Company, is offering a challenge that he can plant 200 kisses upon the lips of a pretty woman. He says that anyone that understands the art of kissing can well hold out for that amount, and have no smacking in it. We would advise Mr. Ellwanger that he be contented with a few every night instead of wishing to undertake such a thing as this. He had better bear in mind that a man in Germany became paralyzed by just such a squabble, and that Miss Anna Held, of New York, is now suffering from contraction of her lips from the same kind of contest. Anything, though, to please the young-folks these days.

It seems rather unfortunate that the Negro State Fair and the Winetobacco Fair should both be on at the same time, but so it is. In fact it does not seem the best thing for the negro fair to come so soon after the regular State fair. The exhibits are said to be very creditable, and patronage seems the only question of success. The educational or school exhibit, says the News and Observer, makes a very fine showing. Intelligence and the acquisition of homes and other property, and not political honors and aggrandizement, is the pathway to elevation for the negro, and this is the object and the use of the fair. In this laudable ambition every philanthropist wishes his progress success.

At the negro convention in Raleigh Wednesday night where they assembled to protest that more offices shall be shared by the colored men who seem, like a good many white people of late, to think that people vote to be rewarded with offices rather than good government, there was such a diversity of opinion and such bitterness toward each other that there was a knocking down and dragging out. After some such experience the meeting went on to declare for recognition to the Republican negro; no vote for a man not a friend to the negro; for county, town and township leagues for Republican women and no color line in Republican organizations. Wonder if our good Republicans among the whites can not afford to yield a few such points as the tariff and the money issue rather than swallow the whole dose necessary to consistent equalization with the race with whom we are not ready yet to assimilate.

In all your born days did you ever hear of the like? We have read of Benedict Arnold, Robespierre, Jadas and Jesse James, and we have often wondered if everything said about these characters were true. But when it developed that the Hon. Marion Butler is, like the Governor of the State, riding over the railroads on free passes, we are dumbfounded and are constrained to believe that some of our representatives are nothing more nor less than a set of double faced self-seeking, self-promoting adventurers whose real inwardness is as satanical as that of the worst pirates who ever infested the high seas.—My! My! Marion Butler riding on a free pass.—Davidson Dispatch. [Pretty good, Bro. Varner.

Hanna sees in the Ohio election a vindication of the McKinley administration and the gold standard, while W. J. Bryan sees the 16 to 1 issue triumphing. It may be no small misfortune to be among those who don't see much in it but a win for Republicanism and a defeat for the rest.

Ohio has gone Republican by a small majority. Mark Hanna will probably hold his base.

The Republicans claim to have carried Maryland, and if so Gorman will have to step down and out.

Solid Truths.

The use of mourning envelopes does not render a person liable to arrest for blackmail.

Some statesmen, are self-made, but the majority of the politicians are machine-made.

There are unlimited opportunities for a man who is determined to make fool a of himself.

Some men are indifferent as to what others think of them; but what they say of them in another matter.

The sensible man never complains. If he breaks his leg he is always thankful that it isn't his neck.

A baseball nine is called a team, but what the team some times call the umpire wouldn't look well in print.

A man likes to refer to himself as an idiot at times, but it makes him mad if anybody agrees with him.

A girl never tries to extinguish the spark as long as a man has money to burn.

Some people are like one-legged milk stools—no good unless sat upon.

Don't Kick or "Knock."

If your neighbor is prosperous let him prosper. Don't grunt, growl or grumble. Say a good word for him and let it go at that. Don't be a knocker. Your turn will come. No man is the whole show. If you see the town is moving along, feel good about it. Help things along. Shove a little. Push. Try to get some of the benefit yourself. Don't stand around like a chilly old cavalier. Don't waste your time feeling sore because some other fellow has a little more sand and sense than you have. Do a little hustling yourself. Don't be a knocker. If you say a good word, say it like a prince. If you are full of bile and disposed to say something mean, keep your mouth shut. Don't be a knocker. No man ever gets rich or happy minding everybody's business but his own. No man ever helped himself up permanently by knocking his neighbors down. Give up a kind word. Give it liberally. It won't cost you a cent, and you may want one yourself some day. You may have thousands today, and next day without the price of a shave. So don't be a knocker. You can't afford it. It won't pay. There's nothing in it. If you want to throw something at somebody, throw cologne, or roses. Don't throw brickbats, or mud. Don't be a knocker. If you must kick, go around the barn and take a good kick at yourself. For if you feel that way, you're the man that needs kicking. But whatever you do, don't be a knocker.—Cincinnati Times Star.

It's a poor recommendation for her biscuit when a poor widow tells how fond her late husband was of them.

Miraculous Benefit RECEIVED FROM Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

ELI P. BABCOCK, of Avoca, N. Y., a veteran of the 3rd N. Y. Artillery and for thirty years of the Babcock & Munsel Carriage Co., of Auburn, says: "I write to express my gratitude for the miraculous benefit received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I suffered for years, as result of army life, from sciatica which affected my heart in the worst form, my limbs swelled from the ankles up. I bloated until I was unable to button my clothing; had sharp pains about the heart, smothering spells and shortness of breath. For three months I was unable to lie down, and all the sleep I got was in an arm chair. I was treated by the best doctors but gradually grew worse. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it saved my life as if by a miracle."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
