CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY NOVEMBER 19 1897

Whole No.—1

FIRE! FIRE!!

Two Story Dwelling Consumed at an Early Hour Friday Morning.

At a few minutes after 5 o'clock this (Friday) morning the people of our town were awakened by the bells and whistles as an alarm of fire, which was found to be at Cannonville, not very far from the Cannon mills. The house belonged to the Cannon Manufacturing company, and was occupied by a widow lady and family, Mrs. R J Hatley.

At about 5 o'clock, Mr. Walter Lipe, a young man who boards there and rooms upstairs, got up and lit his lamp, and it either turned over or exploded, for soon the room was on fire. The alarm was given at once, and the people soon rushed to the scene, and succeeded in getting nearly all of the furniture out from in the house, but nothing hardly was saved from on the second story.

All of Mr. Lipe's clothing, except what he had on his body, was burned, also $30 in money.

Mrs. Hatley, the mother of the family, was not at home, but is visiting down in Stanly county. She has a family of five children, two of whom are married.

The Concord Fire Company did not go out, as it seems that the same size of hose is not used at Cannonville, and no connections can be made. The Hook and Ladder company responded, but too late to lend any assistance, as they had succeeded in connecting the hose from the Cannon mill with the pump, but too late to aid much, as the frame was all that remained when they commenced.

One of the houses adjoining the burning one, which is occupied by Mr. A L Goodman, came near catching on fire, but was saved by the untiring efforts of some of the people. Thinking that it was almost sure to burn, some of them began taking the furniture out, and damaged some of it considerably.

It is indeed unfortunate that the fire occurred, but at the same time it was fortunate that so much was taken out in such a short time as they had.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzter's Drug store.

What's the Matter?

Salisbury had two runaway marriages Thursday, and neither couple came to Concord, as in the past, to have the ceremony performed. One of the couples went to South Carolina, while the other went to Crescent Academy, in Rowan county. The South Carolina tourists were a Mr. Coleman of Spencer and Miss Maude Ketchie, daughter of Engineer Ketchie, of the Southern, while Mr. W F Fleming and Miss Hattie Hutchison, both of Salisbury, droye out to Crescent Academy.

Dog Days are Here.

The season is now here for the northern sportsmen to come south and indulge in the favorite outing at bird hunting. To many of our readers it may not be known that these sportsmen often secure the privilege of hunting on certain lands by paying the taxes on them, while the rich money is freely parted with for pleasant past time.

The dogs are cared for by attendants who sleep in the rooms with them (to keep order) and every dog has a bed or mat on which to sleep.

The dog congress convenes and trials are given to show the superiority of training and instinct. The winners of prizes bring good round prices.

At Lexington, Zeb, a black dog of Victor Humpherys' won first prize, $300. Pearl R. second, $200, and Why Not third prize, $100. Zeb was sold before the trial decision to the agent of William C Whitney, Jr. for $200 on condition that the prizes won in the contest should go to the former owner. This nets Mr. Humpherys $500 for Zeb.

The trials being over the hunters disperse to the different forms and enjoy a good practical hunt in the day and a good social time at their hotel at night. They part with a good bit of their loose "tin" till they return to their places of business.
