THANKSGIVING SERVICE

By the Public Schools of Our City Next Wednesday Afternoon.

There will be a Thanksgiving service by the public schools of the city at 3:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, the 24th, at the court house. The children will at the same time make a Thanksgiving offering for the poor. The exercises will consist of songs, recitations, reading of the Thanksgiving proclamation, a short talk by the superintendent, and prayer.

Owing to there not being sufficient seating room in the court house, the entertainment will not include exercises by all the grades. The fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades only will take part. The primary grades will give the Christmas entertainment. The parents of the children especially, and the public generally, are invited.

A Close Foot Race.

Officers Will Propst and John Hill went out in No. 4 township Friday, on the trail of Henry Patterson, a negro who is wanted for carrying a concealed weapon, and whose bill was found before the grand jury last court. They found him in the barn of Mr. Wiley Ludwig, and thought they had their man, when he was seen some distance running as fast as possible. They at once took after him, and were giving him a pretty good chase when Mr. Hill's foot caught in a grape vine as he was crossing a gully and threw him violently to the ground. Mr. Propst was not chasing him much, but was in waiting for him. Mr. J A Stroud came to their assistance, and also tried to capture him, but to no avail. Patterson jumped through a barbed wire fence, and never stopped when he came to Buffalo creek, but went through as fast as he could wad.

This negro has been hiding from the officers for a long time and is said to know an officer no sooner than he gets in sight.

Jailer Hill had his breath knocked out of him so badly he could not talk for quite a while, and is bruised considerably, though he is still going, and has hopes of catching him.

DEAR SIR:—The dwelling which we lost by fire yesterday morning was insured in the Southern Stock Mutual. The loss was promptly paid by them this (Saturday) morning, about 24 hours after the fire occurred. Their ability to pay and promptness in doing so should recommend this company to parties carrying insurance. Their rates are no higher, and we have received 20 per cent. dividend on premiums paid them.

CILVIA SMITH DEAD.

The Girl Who was So Badly Burned Passes Quietly Away.

For some time Miss Cilvia Smith, who was so badly burned last Sunday by her clothes catching fire, has been sinking away, and last night at 9:30 o'clock, she entered into eternal rest. One in the condition she has been since the accident could but look to death with pleasure, owing to her painful condition, though while dying she showed no pain, but passed quietly away.

She was nearly 15 years of age, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J A Smith, who lived near Big Lick, Stanly county. She had been here only a short while, having worked in the mill only nine days. The father was at her bedside at her death, also a brother and sister.

The remains were taken to Big Lick today (Saturday) where they will be interred.

London's Conflagration.

The city of London, England, is in the midst of the greatest conflagration she has had for over 200 years. The fire began with the explosion of a gas engine, and owing to that peculiar string of unfortunate delays that are often experienced at the most critical moment the fire got fearfully under way before the fire fighters could be had. A stiff breeze then fanned the bursting flames, when the magnitude of the disaster became apparent. A general alarm was sounded and the whole fire department responded, but the flames bid defiance. At 4 o'clock this (Saturday) morning the flames are unsubdued. The losses are estimated at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Mr. Henry Wilson and Miss Laura Leslie succeeded in making seventy-six words, the prize being awarded to Miss Leslie.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Nannie Cannon. The committee on amusements for next week are Misses Laura Leslie and Lucy Lore and Mr. W M Stuart.
