WHOLE No. 1103

FIVE CASES.

This Number Pending Against Mr. C. A. Traylor.

The Salisbury World has the following: D. A. Covington, Esq., of Monroe, was in the city Wednesday night on his way to Charlotte and was asked for information by the World regarding the Traylor case.

"We have five cases against Mr. Traylor," said Mr. Covington, "all of which will be pushed to the limit. McGee, who was committed to the county home on account of failing health, is now improving and, I think, will pull through all right. I have not received any intimation whether or not Mr. Traylor would return to Monroe for trial."

The next term of Monroe court at which the cases will be tried is to be held the latter part of this month.

The Body Cremated Thursday.

The body of Theodore Durant was cremated at Los Angeles Thursday. Why the crematories at San Francisco refused the body we have never seen explained. That was a terrible crime committed on Blanche Lamont, and it is most natural that public feeling should be wrought to a frenzy to avenge her purity and her life. Those believing Durant guilty could have little patience with those who tried to shield him from the penalty, while those believing him innocent could do no less than use every effort to protect him against a false charge. Proprietors have the right to determine for themselves what is proper for them to do, and this right was exercised in refusal to accept the body either in a cemetery or crematory in San Francisco.

The Discovery of the Day.

Aug. J. Bogel, leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes, "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at P. B. Fetzer's Drug Store.

Mr. Moses Barger Dead.

From the Salisbury World of the 12th we learn that Mr. Moses Barger died on the 11th. Mr. Barger is well known by many of our readers. He was a veteran of the 8th N. C. Regiment.

The New York Sun tells of a mule that is known as No. 13 in the Sheridan-Shea Company that backed a cart off of a precipice and fell with the cart 30 feet. The experiment was so satisfactory that the other day he backed his well padded cart off of a precipice 70 feet. The cart was demolished, but the mule after shaking off the dust and harness, went to nibbling the grass which the melting snow had exposed. The Sun does not state how much higher precipice the company has for the accommodation of this invulnerable son of Balam's talker.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Surveying Parties at Work All Along the Line of the Proposed Route.

The Nicaragua canal surveying parties have gone into the jungle and work has begun all along the line of the proposed route.

Lieut. G. O. Hanks will make soundings in the river and lake to or below Tambor Grande. He will note the stages of water and gauge it.

The shore line of the banks of the river San Juan will be done by George Brown, who has already started into the bush with his party. He will establish signals and benches for stage and level water, and will also put in topography of banks and ranges for soundings, borings, etc. His party will have many natives among them.

The boring parties who are running the diamond drills have started to work and are probing the bottom wherever depths are less than bottom elevations. They take samples of rock from the hollow drills and preserve them for reference.

Commander Tilley, of the Newport, has started his off-shore hydrography. He is making tidal observations, determining literal drift and doing everything necessary for a full solution of the harbor question.

The Newport will proceed as far south as Port Limon for information, and her officers will also visit the Panama canal. Commander Richards, of the Alert, is doing similar work on the Pacific side, at Brito.

The sites for locks and embankments have been put in the hands of one level and one transit party.

The canal between Ochoa and the Atlantic has one level and one transit party, and the canal between the lake and Pacific has been turned over to Admiral Walker's son.

Two level parties for exact levels, or checks, are to work in conjunction and the other parties will make a re-survey of the centre and a revision of the alignment with cross sections as a basis for the final estimates. — Georgetown, Nicaragua, Letter, 3rd.

A New Convenience.

Agent Dusenbury informs us that he is going to make the freight depot much more convenient now than in the past. He intends having stalls in the depot for the accommodation of the merchants, and will have each stall labeled, so that they need not come and ask if there is any freight there for them, but can tell by looking in their department. There will also be departments for the draymen who haul small lots for some of the stores.

He also informs us and asks us to state that from now on the storage business will be accurately counted, and is somewhat more restricting than in the past—one cent per hundred for each hundred pounds after it has remained in the freight room twenty-four hours. This applies to less than car load lots.

Trouble in Havana.

The situation is rather critical in Havana. Mobs led by army officers are attacking the offices of newspapers that favor autonomy and shouts for Weyler have been made beneath the window of Gen. Blanco. Reports of threatened violence on the United States Consulate are probably unfounded.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Rev. S. D. Steffey, of St. John's, was in the city today.

—Mrs. C. B. Frazier returned to Charlotte this morning.

—Presiding Elder Brooks passed through today enroute to Mt. Pleasant, where he holds quarterly conference.

—Mrs. John P. Allison is spending the day in Salisbury.

—Merchant D. J. Bostain is spending the day at the other end of the Cabarrus-Stanly telephone line.

The Exposition Car.

Mr. W. H. Ramseur, of the exposition car, "City of Charlotte," arrived here last night. He reports a very successful tour, the crowds that have gone through the car daily being double the number he had expected. The holiday rush was on when the car was here, and a great many people could not find time to visit it. Mr. Ramseur has had many requests to return to Charlotte with the car, and will bring it here tomorrow night. It will be at the Southern passenger depot until 12 o'clock the next Tuesday, during which time those who have not yet inspected the car will have an opportunity of doing so.—Charlotte Observer of 14.

Charges of Bribery.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—The combine leaders declare today that the bribery charges against Senator Hanna are to be vigorously pressed in the Legislature and a committee sent to Washington to lay the matter before the United States Senate.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the probable action that will be taken by Senator Foraker when these charges are brought against his colleague in the Senate.

Mr. Hanna laughs at the charges, and says his enemies will make no further move, but are simply bluffing now.
