TWO MARRIAGES

At Forest Hill—Conference Collections—A Small Fire.

Forest Hill Correspondence.

Mr. J G Sloop and Mrs. Elizabeth Cook were married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. J D Arnold Saturday evening. Mr. Sloop and bride have thirteen children—the groom six and the bride seven.

Mr. Chas. Staton and Miss Nannie Hall were married Sunday morning by Rev. J Simpson.

The Conference collections for 1898 were taken at the morning services at the Forest Hill Methodist church Sunday.

Dr. W W Bays, of Charlotte, preached to a large congregation here Sunday night.

There was a little fire at the Buffalo Mill early this (Monday) morning. The fire caught in the lupper room, but was extinguished before much damage was done.

Mr. Fred Bailey, representing the firm of Joshua Bailey & Co, of Philadelphia, is in the city today.

Sovereign E W Fretz, one of the clerks in the company store, took an outing Sunday to No. 4 town-ship.

An Afternoon With Southern Writers.

For The Standard.

Despite the inclemency of the weather Saturday afternoon the Christian Reid Club met at the home of Miss Laura Leshe on West D-pot street. Each new feature introduced at their last meeting was carried out in a very creditable and interesting manner. Nothing could have been more delightful to a true Southern heart and mind than the subject under discussion—"A closer Acquaintance With the Lives and Works of the Gifted Writers of the South."

To the lovers of poetry were presented Henry Jerome Stockard and Edwin W Fuller, native North Carolinians.

The literary feast o'er, delicious sweetmeats were served by the hostess in a most pleasing and graceful manner.

A Quiet Wedding.

Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. Henry Ritz, on East Depot street, Mr. Thos. H Baringer was united in marriage to Miss Addie May Wallace, daughter of Mr. J. O. Wallace, Rev. C. B. Miller officiating. Both are residents of this city, and are well known by our people. It was a quiet marriage, and only a few friends and relatives witnessed the affair. THE STANDARD extends its congratulatory hand to this newly married couple, and may their life be one of joy and happiness.

The Charges Said to Be True.

Governor Russell has received a letter from Annie Abbott denying that she ever retracted the charges against Hancock and that she never will, that they are true.

A Railroad Five Miles Into the Pacific

The most gigantic piece of work piece of of scientific bridling of the very sea itself that we have noted recently is that at the mouth of the Columbia River. As the Columbia pours its water into the mighty Pacific its current is dispersed and rather forceless, allowing the entrance to the harbor to become extremely dangerous from drifting and irregular sandbars.

This evil has been subdued by a jetty or dam extending for five miles into the ocean on the south side of the channel. It directs the flow of Columbia's waters in a direct, natural and central stream which tears out a channel of such width and depth as to make it safe at all times to the largest vessels to enter or leave the harbor.

To accomplish this gigantic work, piling was sunk and a railroad track was built that hauled the material to build ahead of the trains, while it brought and deposited the rocks to form the mighty dam. In order to avert the danger that the rocks would gradually sink away by piece meals, brush and pole mattresses 20 feet square or more and from three to five feet thick were sunk and the rocks tumbled upon them.

The rocks to the amount of about one million tons were gotten along the banks of the river and floated on barges to the land end of the railroad where they were hoisted on the cars. So complete was the equipment that two men could dump off 20 car loads in five minutes. Half a million feet of the piling and over four million feet of sawed lumber was used in this gigantic work. It cost $2,025,650, though the work had been estimated at $3,700,000.

It is an odd spectacle to see a railroad running five miles into the sea and curbing the very ocean and bidding huge mercantile crafts ride in and out in safe and fearlessness.

This engineering is of the type of Cap. Ead's original theory and successful means of controlling the Mississippi river so as to do its own dredging that had been done before at great expense by dredging boats.

Thousands suffer from Catarrh or cold in the head and have never tried the popular remedy. There is no longer any excuse, as a 10 cent trial size of Ely's Cream Balm can be had of your druggist or we mail it for 10 cents. Full size 50 cents.

ELY BROTHERS,

56 Warren St.,
New York City.

A friend advised me to try Ely's Balm and after using it six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. It is a most valuable remedy.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dr. Bays to Lecture To-Night.

Dr. W W Bays, who is in our midst, will lecture in the court house at 7:30 o'clock tonight. The lecture will be both instructive and amusing. His subject will be "Woman." The doctor enjoys quite a reputation as a thinker. He preached at Central M E Church Sunday morning and at Forest Hill at night. We learn that his discourses were highly appreciated and keenly relished.

The admission fee to lecture is 25 cents. Tickets on sale at Gibson's, Fetzer's and Johnston's drug stores, or payment may be made at the door.

SPINAL weakness easily cured by Dr. Miles' Nerve Plaster.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mr. J W Bostian, of Albemarle, is in the city today.

—Mr. Ernest West, of Salisbury, spent last night in our town.

—Mr. Buz Griffin, of Salisbury, is spending the day in the city with friends.

—Dr. Jesse Hamilton went out to Mt. Pleasant to see Mayor Moose, the druggist, today.

—Mr. Clay Poole returned to his home in Salisbury last night.

A Little Singular.

While looking over the Registers book, in which is recorded the issuing of license, we find something a little bit singular, and that is that the first name recorded in the book is Mr. W M. Weddington, the present Register of Deeds. The book has been in use since May, 1867, making nearly thirty-one years. Mr. Weddington was married by Rev. Jacob Barrier, and this was the first white couple married by him. He died several months afterwards.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator. J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red in wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator.
