No sacrifice is bitter when sweetened by love.

Unbidden guests give pleasure when they go.

The pruned limb is seldom the one that dies.

A little man's happiness consists in magnifying himself.

It takes both grace and grit to bear disappointment well.

When a man makes a fool of himself, he generally does the job well.

As a matter of fact, nobody believes in a hell except for his neighbor.

When we cannot do as we would, it will smooth the jolts to be willing to do as we should.

One trouble with the world is that there are so many people in it who are content to drift down stream.

Few of us gain by the mistakes of others, but he who fails to profit by his own mistakes will soon be bankrupt to the knowledge. — Ram's Horn.

Col. Paul B Means, the railroad attorney, tells us for the benefit of those interested that none of the railroad cases will be called before Friday, January 28th, and the probability is that they will not be reached until the second week of court.

An Abscess

In the Stomach Caused Great Suffering—Was Confined to the Bed But Now Able to Work.

"In October, 1895, I had an abscess in my stomach. I was also taken with pleurisy and coughed very badly. I was treated by physicians but did not improve. I gave up all hope of ever getting well. My right side was swollen and I was not able to walk across the room and was confined to my bed. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking it. In three days I could see a change for the better. I kept on taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until I had taken four bottles and continued to improve. I am now able to do a good day's work on the farm." M. E. MANN, Demosville, Kentucky.

A singular instance showing how great reforms grow out of the very smallest conceivable incidents is that in New York under the late Mayor Strong, who effected the purification of milk sold on the market from an appealing letter by a poor woman asking him to please see to it that the milk she bought for her baby was real milk, so that her baby would drink what would bring life and not death.
