CONUNDRUM PARTY.

Given By the Misses Richmond to a Few Invited Friends.

Thursday night at the home of Mr. G G Richmond, on South Main street, the Misses Richmond gave a Conundrum party to a few of their invited friends. Everything that goes to make the evening enjoyable was there, which means pretty faces, tasteful decorations and most elegant refreshments.

The feature of the evening was the guessing of the conundrums put to them, all of which were well-gotten-up.

The following were present on the occasion: Misses Fannie Young, Nannie Cannon, Maude Brown, Sallie Belle Irwin and Mary Montgomery; Messrs. Holland Thompson, Richmond Montgomery, Chal White, Sam Ervin, Charley Craven, Jno. Craven, Lewis Brown and Maun Stuart.

Mr. Holland Thompson was awarded the prize for solving the largest number of the conundrums, and Mr. Lewis Brown succeeded in getting the "booby" prize.

Don't annoy others by your coughing, and risk your life by neglecting a cold. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and all throat and lung troubles.—Gibson's Drug Store.

License News.

Register Weddington paid to Sheriff Buchanan on Wednesday, March 16th, one hundred dollars, the amount due him for 44 licenses to whites and 6 to colored people since the 14th day of January. To those that do not happen to know the price of license, we'll say that they cost three dollars, not on time, one dollar of which goes to the Register of Deeds, one to the county and one to the State. It is a rather singular occurrence that from January 14th to March 16 only six licenses were issued to colored people and three of these were issued on the 16th of March.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E Hart, of Groton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at P B Fetzler's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Dr. Holland Will Not Come.

Dr. R C Holland has been induced to withdraw his resignation and remain with his charge in Charleston instead of coming to Charlotte at the call of St. Mark's Lutheran church. This is bad news for St. Marks, it seems, but it will doubtless work out for the best in the end.

The Clouds Still Lower.

While the feverish excitement of a few days ago has subsided to some extent the outcome of our intricacies with Spain are not clearly foreshadowed. The worst cloud on the war sky is that Spain's investigating committee map does not give a true finding, declaring the Maine to have been blown up from within, in which case Spain would refuse to pay indemnity. Indeed it is semi-officially declared that she will flatly refuse to do so. It is foreshadowed that the United States Committee will report that the explosion was from without. In such case nothing but a settlement by arbitration could avert a resort to war.

The United States has a squadron in the Pacific that it is believed will in the event of the breaking out of hostilities pounce upon the Philippine Islands while one is at Key West, which would probably engage the Spanish fleet in the regions of Cuba. Another squadron containing the Puritan, that will soon be ready and which is thought to be the most formidable war vessel in the world, together with several other powerful battleships will have its rendezvous at Hampton Roads.

Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles.—Gibson's Drug Store.

Has Been Verified.

The Deed of Trust which was filed in the Register's office a little over a week ago, and which was transcribed by Mrs. Keestler, nee Miss Ida Weddington, was verified Thursday night. It is quite a compliment to Mrs. Keesler, to say that in the whole Deed of Trust, which contained about thirteen thousand words, not a single word was left out, neither a single comma omitted, and only one letter "T" was uncrossed.

After years of untold suffering from piles, B W Pursell, of Knitersville, Pa., was cured by using a single box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases, such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy.—Gibson's Drug Store.

Closing Up the List.

Sheriff Buchanan, for the last while, has been transferring his different tax receipts, and has been sending out his garnishee papers. He stated to a STANDARD reporter this (Friday) morning that he fully intends to advertise for all taxes not paid before the first of April.

Gone to the Cuban War.

One of the agents of the Carolina Benevolent Association, in his hurry to get off, lost between the Odell Mills and the court house his application case, containing eight applications for insurance in the Association. These applications were signed by Messrs. H W Blackwelder, Jr., W Cress, G W Bost, Jr., C N Copp, D L Earnhardt, R A Russell, D Henry White, C M Sappenfield. A liberal reward will be paid for delivery of these applications at this office or at the office of the Carolina Benevolent Association over Lip pard's grocery store.

Notice Co. G.

You will appear at Armory for drill at 8:30 p. m. Important. Edward Hill, Com. Mar. 18, '98.

Another Stroke of Paralysis.

Mrs. Geo. W Brown received a telegram this (Friday) morning stating that Mrs. Haltom, of that place, had received another stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Haltom visited Mrs. Brown here some months ago after receiving her first stroke. These two persons are very intimately acquainted, though are not related. Mrs. Haltom is a first cousin of the Messrs. Browns here. Mrs. Brown left for Salisbury on the first train this morning.

The Horses Have Come.

Mr. M J Corl's car load of 20 horses has arrived and are a genuine pleasure to look at and admire, if you have a sort of horse mania like the writer. We are pleased with the uniform high grade of the stock. Prices of horses, it seems to us, are below the range of 5 cent cotton even, and the chances for every one to own a good one were never better, we think.

New Advertisements.

The excursion to Havana is advertised by Messrs. Swink & White.

Lesly & Watson have some nice figures on shoes in their ad. Read it. "We sell everything that goes with a bicycle," says W J Hill's ad.

For a bicycle, read Yorke's new advertisement.

Tablets are the things advertised by The Racket.

These Are Among the Sick.

Mrs. Sheriff Buchanan has been very sick since last week.

Editor J B Sherrill is kept from his office for several days but we are glad to learn that he is better this morning.

Mr. Ed Cline is kept indoors nursing a case of la grippe.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetterd Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all skin Eruptions, and positively cures Cures or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale at P B Fetzler's Drug store.

President McKinley has promised, it is said, to give consideration to the invitation to be at the 20th of May celebration in Charlotte. It would be very gratifying to have the President of the United States grace the occasion.

250 SUITS 250

of Schloss Bros. finest clothing at less than cost.

The following letter from Mr. Fetzer, who is now in New York, explains itself:

Office of Schloss Bros. & Co., Baltimore, Md., March 11th, 1898.

Messrs. Cannon & Fetzer Co.:

Today I closed out 43 lots of Schloss Bros. finest goods, aggregating about 250 suits. All these are this spring's styles—not a single suit of last year's goods. These suits comprise the cream of their line—the very best selling styles. Of this lot of goods 60 suits made up of 11 styles are suits that went to their largest trade at $16.50 to $20 a suit. I bought them so that we will sell them at $15 and $16.50 a suit. These are their choicest productions. Another lot of about 130 suits, comprising 25 styles are goods that sold at $12.50, $13.50, $14 and $15. These we will sell at $12.50 straight. The remaining lots we will sell at $10.

Schloss Bros. have excelled themselves this season. They never before brought out such a magnificent line. I saw letters from some of the leading clothing stores—such as Mabley & Carew, of Baltimore; the Globe, of St. Louis, and Eads, of Atlanta, expressing the highest praise of their spring productions, commending them above all others for style, fit and elegance of detail.

No town in the State can show a handsomer line of clothing than we can show, and none of them can touch us in prices—not by a whole heap.

I will go to Philadelphia tonight.

Yours, &c., P. B. FETZER.

Today in our display window you will find a new line of Oxfords, also boys' shoes in "Vici Kid" in all sizes. In our window you will find Bicycle Shoes. We respectfully ask that you come in and see what we have. Remember everything we show you is new and stylish.
