CONCORD, N. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 25 1898

WHOLE No 1167

IT GETS THERE.

The President's Opinions and Course on the Spanish Flotilla Not Welcome.

The great document from the committee arrived in Washington Thursday at 9:35 p. m. It was scheduled to be opened in Cabinet meeting this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock. It is said that the President will transmit it with a brief message to Congress on Monday and will also cable it to Spain.

The President is reported to believe that he Ma'ne was blown up from external force, but in the absence of testimony of design will treat it as an accident. But from humanitarian reasons he will recommend intervention for Cuban relief.

The most serious aspect in the situation is that the Spanish flotilla is on its way to American waters and grave questions arise as to whether the United States should not look upon this as an unfriendly act and interpose objections, yet our fleet lies at Key West.

The government has bought eight new steam yachts and in every way the work of preparation for the worst goes on.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A C Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at P B Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Old People Dead.

Mr. Jacob Shoe, one of the oldest citizens of Rowan, died yesterday at the ripe old age of 96. Mr. Shoe was born in Cabarrus county and had lived in Rowan for thirty-two years. He has lived some time on Mr. Bernhardt's place, near Capt. Fisher's. Death was caused mainly by a general wearing away of the body by time.

Mrs. Shive, widow of Reuben Shive died of heart trouble last Sunday and was buried at Emanuel church on Monday. Rev. Paul Barringer, of the Reformed church assisted by Rev. George H. Cox, conducted the funeral services. Mrs. Shive was about 82 years old, and was a member of New Gilead Reformed church.—Salisbury Sun.

[Mrs. Shive was the mother of Mrs. J C Lippard, of our town.]

The Meeting Postponed.

As noted in THE STANDARD some time ago, an order was issued by the town commissioners that Mr. Clay Poole, who is conducting a bowling alley in our town make his appearance before the commissioners on Monday night, March 28th. On account of Mr. Poole's attorney, W G Means, being absent that night, the meeting is postponed until Monday night, April 4th. Mr. Poole at that meeting is called upon to show just cause why his license for running this alley should not be revoked.

MR. FRED GRAHAM DEAD.

His Death Occurred Suddenly in Augusta, Ga., Yesterday.

Mr. Fred Graham, formerly of Charlotte, died suddenly of heart failure, in Augusta, Ga., yesterday morning at 10 minutes before 12 o'clock. He was taken sick Saturday night, but his illness was not pronounced serious, and his relatives in Charlotte knew nothing of it until the telegram came yesterday announcing his death. The immediate cause of Mr. Graham's death was a fatty substance growing over the heart. The full particulars of his death could not be learned.

Mr. Graham's remains were brought to Chester, S. C., last night, where they will be interred in the family burying ground today.

Mr. Graham was employed a few years ago as chief operator in the Western Union Telegraph office in this city. He is a brother of Mrs. Zeb Johnston, of Charlotte. He was about 30 years of age, and was kind, considerate and popular wherever he was known.—Charlotte Observer of March 25th.

[This gentleman will probably be remembered by quite a number of our people, having stayed in our town occasionally, and was a brother of Mrs. Tom Elliot, who lived out at Poplar Tent, in No. 2 township. The last time Mr. Graham was here was in 1896 and conducted the telegraph office at the Odell store during the election time.]

Harris-Bost Wedding.

Thursday night at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. M O Walter, of Cannonville, Mr. Foley Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F Harris, and Miss Maude Bost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley Bost, were united in marriage by Rev. H A McCullough.

Miss Bost is known by quite a number of people, both in Concord and in our county, and bears a good name by all who know her. Mr. Harris is a printer and one of the swiftest type-setters in our city. He has been employed on THE STANDARD for a long while, and is known by our people.

Only a few invited friends, together with a STANDARD reporter witnessed the ceremony, which took place at 8 o'clock. An elegant dinner was served to a few relatives and friends today (Friday) at the home of the groom's father.

To this newly married couple THE STANDARD extends its most hearty congratulations, and may their life be nothing but happiness and bliss.

The farmer, the mechanic and the bicycle rider are liable to unexpected cuts and bruises. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best thing to keep on hand. It heals quickly, and is a well known cure for piles.—Gibson's Drug Store.

A little boy asked for a bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can," the druggist recognized a household name for "DeWitt's Little Early Risers" and gave him a bottle of those famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, liver and stomach troubles.—Gibson's Drug Store.

THURSTON'S SPEECH.

He Speaks for Cuban Sufferers at the Command of His Wife's Silent Lips.

Senator Thurston on Thursday delivered a most powerful speech in the Senate Chamber in harmony with Senator Proctor and corroborating the most graphic pictures in the newspapers of the sufferings on the island of Cuba. Ordinarily a Senator would not appear so conspicuously so soon after the death of his wife but the Senator made it clear when he said he spoke at the command of silent lips. The last admonitions of his dying wife were that on his return from that region of misery he should use his influence without delay for the removal of the scenes of horror which bore so heavily on her and every other witness to the indescribable wretchedness of the reconcentrados. The Senator's emotions almost overcome him in the effort, but probably lent effect to his words. He said he had counselled moderation all the while but now feels that the time has come for the United States to demand of Spain to withdraw her troops from Cuba. This he said would not be a declaration of war but would probably lead to it. But it would be a war of Spain in resistance of liberty and independence of a people she has devastated and outraged.
