The Questions and Their Answers.

"Subscriber" asked certain questions of our correspondent who treated Mormonism to a bitter dose a few issues ago. Below we append the questions with Mr. Fisher's answer to each.

We suspect from Mr. Fisher's term, "your creed or society," that he construes subscriber as favorable to Mormonism, which we hardly think, but we leave the matter between them, save that we ask that no effort be made through THE STANDARD to palliate Mormonism, or by the appearance of persecution, to win to it thereby the inconsiderate and the impulsive:

EDITOR STANDARD:—For personal edification "subscriber" would like for your contributor on Mormonism last week to answer the following questions pertaining to our proper attitude:

1. Did Christianity rise and flourish in the face of the bloody cross of Judaism?

Ans. Whether it did or did not, it does not prove anything for Mormonism of the present day.

2. Did civil authority and individual opposition prevent the formation of different denominations?

Ans. In its true sense it never attempted to do so.

3. Has persecution ever eliminated a religious society?

Ans. You have never succeeded to any alarming extent in making intelligent people believe that your society and creed was religion.

4. Is it the object of the Boston Tea party scheme to suppress Mormonism or simply to harass those who promulgate it?

Ans. The Boston Tea party was an act of the people outside of law to correct a wrong.

5. Was the Boston Tea party a measure to secure religious reform?

Ans. It had nothing to do with religion whatever and certainly not with Mormonism?

Can civil and religious matters be properly managed by the same methods?

Ans. With the criminal and stained history of the church and its early prophets, would it not be a great stretch of imagination to call the Mormon creed and practice either civil or religious.

Should mob law be encouraged?

Ans. Not if it could be safely avoided. But when crime and criminals flourish in defiance of law to the great injury and detriment of innocent and good people and the law does not, or cannot reach them, then the people have a duty to perform and they have generally done it.

Something Strange About This.

Messrs. Crowell & Craven, of Concord, have opened up their stock of furniture in the T. C. Hearne building. Mr. Marshall Crowell and Charlie Craven will have charge of the business here. We are glad to welcome these two young gentlemen with their families to our town.—Stanly Enterprise.

[Is it possible that our ex-townsmen, Mr. Charley Craven, has already fallen in love with some belle of Stanly county and given up the joys of single life? It will be quite a surprise to his many male and female friends here if he has. Brother Crowell, you will please investigate this matter].

Many a heart beat joyously on Friday morning when no great appeared and the prospect for pie were good, but on this (Saturday) morning the earth was wrapped in heavy garb and all can realize that pie will come to a few only in the fall when the political table is spread and the shrewdest grabber is likely to get the choicest slice. Solomon said something comforting though about a dry morsel with contentment.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call at P. B. Fetzer's drug store and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

We see that our neighbor Asheville is making extensive preparations marine and otherwise for defense against the dreaded Spaniards. The very noise made about it may draw the fire of the enemy. But then Asheville can't be expected to lie low.
