Mr. W L Black, who is employed at Spencer, spent Friday in Concord on business.

Don't go to war—stay at home and swing in one of the nice, low swings made by mar31st. J T Pounds.

We would call the town authorities attention to the fact that the pump in front of Dry & Miller's is out of fix.

Prospects for the weather are much better than for war. The forecast says: Fair tonight and tomorrow.

Just received, Heinz's tomato catchup, pepper and table sauce, olives, preserves, canned apples, cream cheese, &c., at ap2. A. L. Sappenfield's.

We learn that some of the very fine wheat in the country suffered serious injury from the frost Friday night.

Thirty five years make a generation. That is how long Adolph Fisher, of Zanesville, O., suffered from piles. He was cured by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Gibson's Drug Store.

Rev. C L T Fisher, of Elizabeth College, passed through our city this (Saturday) morning on his way to Enochville where he conducts services on Sunday.

I have again started up my shop, and am making a lot of lawn swings and office tables, and my prices can't be beat.

Respectfully, J T Pounds.

BEST FOR THE LAST!—Remember Miss Nannie Alexander's Millinery Reception Monday afternoon and evening April 4th. Do not miss it.
