BASEBALL GAME

Between St. Mary's Deweys and Charlotte's Haymakers—A Good Game.

St. Mary's "Deweys" and Charlotte's "Haymakers" played a very interesting game on the formers diamond Saturday, May 14th.

St. Mary's Deweys were composed of the best players taken from the Minims hall, and deserve praise for the able manner in which they held down their opponents.

The Haymakers played a good game, but owing to their inability to meet the curyes of Lawrence it was lost to them from the first inning.

The Charlotte Junior team is to be congratulated for their gentlemanly conduct and amicable disposition.

Features of the game—the playing of Daly of the "Deweys" and batting of Sprinkle of "Haymakers."

Batteries, for "Deweys," Lawrence and Galliger, for "Haymakers," Simpson and Fisher.

Score: Deweys 13, Haymakers 6. Umpire Mr. Denegre.

STUDENT.

For the Soldiers.

The Cabarrus Light Infantry, now in Camp Grimes, say that they want some "home cooking," and so it has been determined to send a box to the company.

Anything sent to Mrs. Dusenbery at the St. Cloud by 4 o'clock Tuesday evening will be sent by express.
