Thirty Thousand Troops

ON THEIR WAY TO SANTIAGO AND PORTO RICO—BATTLE EXPECTED SOON—A BOMBARDMENT FOR THE PURPOSE OF LOCATING FORTS.

The Fact Demonstrated That It Will Require Heavy Bombarding—An Amendment to War Revenue Bill—Paris Says We Have Forced an Entrance.

By Cablegram and Telegram to the Daily Standard.

The St. Paul Is Uninjured.

New York, 10:25 a. m.—The St. Paul has arrived here uninjured. A special to the World from Port au Prince reports that there has been renewed bombardments at Santiago by Schley. There are no particulars known.

No Confirmation of the Report.

Washington, 1:14 p. m.—There is no news to the effect that fighting has been renewed at Santiago today. The reported attack of the insurgents from the land is unconfirmed.

Another Report of the Second Bombardment.

New York, 1:15 p. m.—A special to the Tribune from Port au Prince says: The news has reached here that a battle began off Santiago today before nine o'clock.

Cincinnati In for Repairs.

Norfolk, 2:10 p. m.—The Cincinnati has gone into the Navy Yard for slight repairs.

Thirty Thousand Troops Enroute.

Washington, 2:10 p. m.—Despite the denial by the highest authority it is understood that thirty thousand troops are now enroute for Santiago and Porto Rico. The administration is expecting a battle soon. Commodore Schley has bombarded Santiago for the purpose of locating the forts. The fleet fired four rounds with its heavy guns which demonstrated that it will require heavy bombardment to dislodge the fleet.

Another Amendment to War Revenue Bills.

Washington, 2:10 p. m.—Senator Walcott has offered an amendment to the war revenue bill providing for the coinage of at least four million dollars of the senignorage per month.

A Report of a Forced Entrance

Madrid 2:45 p. m.—It is reported from Paris that the American fleet has forced an entrance into Santiago Harbor.

A Two-Days' Review

Chicamauga, 2:45 p. m.—A two-days' review of volunteers began today.

Schley's Official Report.

Washington, 2:45 p. m.—Schley's official report of the fight at Santiago has arrived. He says that there is no doubt that Cervera's fleet is in the harbor.

The Reported Revolution Confirmed.

Cape Haytian, 3:45 p. m.—The reported revolution in Santo Domingo is confirmed. (Santo Domingo is one of the States of Central America.)

GRADUATING DAY

Of North Carolina College and Mont Amena Seminary—Awarding Medals—Announcements—Other News.

Another commencement has come and gone. At the ringing of the bell Wednesday morning the church began to fill and by 11 o'clock was crowded with an anxious and expectant audience.

The exercises were opened with music by the cornet band.

Rev. C A Rose lead in prayer.

The graduates delivered their orations and essays as follows:

Mr. P E Monroe, subject, "Money and Novels" Mr. Monroe very cleverly pointed out the influence money has over statesmen, thereby corrupting the morals of our government and the corruption of the morals of homes and communities through the liquor traffic that money could bring about.

Miss Laura Effrid, of the Seminary then read an essay, subject, "The Labor Recommends the Workman." Miss Effrid proved very clearly that the best recommendation for the workman is his labor.

Mr. C E Moser, subject, "Our Country." Mr. Moser noted the progress of our country from its birth in very patriotic language.

Dr. Miller then arose and announced that the valedictorian Miss Florence Fray, was confined to her bed with nervous prostration. He gave the substance of the valedictory, and expressed his sorrow that she could not deliver it. He spoke very highly of it.

The medals were then awarded as follows:

Orator's and Bible History, to Mr. Edward Fullenwider.

Disclaimer's, to Mr. W W Kennerley.

Medal for most progress made in debate in Philaethian Society, to Mr. Clifford Tucker.

Medal for most progress in debate in Pi Sigma Phi Society, Mr. Julius Fisher.

Medal for best examination in North Carolina History, Mr. Hoyle Long.

The Seminary medals were awarded as follows:

Best general average, Miss Mamie Miller.

Best essay in Senior class, Miss Florence Fray.

The diplomas were then awarded.

Dr. Miller then made announcements for the next year. He stated that many improvements would be made during the vacation and that his faculty next year would be composed of thirteen professors, including all the present ones with the exception of Miss Seiber, who has resigned.

Rev. Scherer then made the College announcements for the coming year and asked the ministers to help him in their respective charges in securing students.

The exercises were then closed with the benediction.

An address was made before the Seminary alumni Wednesday evening by Miss Constance Cline.

The regular annual concert was held in the Seminary hall Wednesday night. It was composed of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and pantomimes.

Mr. George Petrea was married to Miss Eliza Craven last Tuesday night.

Miss Mabel Barrier has gone home with Miss Ella Lentz to spend a few weeks at Norwood.

Mr. Ralph Barrier is afflicted with chicken-pox.

There came very near being a fire in Mr. W G Barringer's store Wednesday night. The ceiling caught from a large hanging lamp.

CAMP RUSSELL.

A Letter from One of Our Concord Boys Who is Now Drilling With the Fayetteville Company.

We have received the following letter from Mr. Tom Johnson, of this place, who is now with the Fayetteville company at Camp Russell at Raleigh:

"Have been receiving THE STANDARD and want it continued as long as it is possible for it to reach me, whether I am in Raleigh, California, Tampa or the Philippine Islands. You have no idea how one appreciates it when they have gone to war. I'll try and write you a few notes of interest how camp life of the Second North Carolina regiment is carried on. In the morning at 5.15 a cannon is fired for the purpose of awaking the regiment, and at 5.30 we go out and each company has an arm, body, leg and foot exercise for one half hour, and at that time guards are appointed for duty for twenty-four hours, serving two and off four hours until the twenty-four hours have expired. We then have breakfast at 7 o'clock and at 10 o'clock we have drill until 11 o'clock. We then take dinner at 1 o'clock. Again we have drill (regimental drill) from 4 to 5.30 o'clock. Then comes dress parade, which is the finest drill of all, which lasts from 6.30 to 7. At 7.30 we take supper.

Between the hours of drill we are at liberty to do as we please almost, except that we can not go more than one mile from camp without a pass. From each company there is only five passes issued per day. If we break any of these rules we are punished by being confined in the guard house for twenty-four hours or put on double duty.

We are allowed to keep our candles burning until 10 p. m.—at that time orders are given for lights out and sleep is the next thing on docket.

I forgot to mention that we have services every night and its attendance is fairly good. The health of the camp is excellent as there is very little sickness.

As to when we think we will leave we can not tell, although we expect to be fully equipped by the 8th.

Well, it is now almost time to drill, so will have to close, wishing you and all of my friends success."

All a Mistake.

Our "War'Ca", City of Knoxville," is safe in port, loaded with finest cargo of Golden Oak Suits ever shown in this part of North Carolina. She was not captured by the Spanish Fleet of high prices as reported.

She was safely guarded into port by our Gunboat, "High Price Exploder," with 100 'mattress' aboard, at prices ranging from $1.25 to $15.00. Hearing is believing, seeing is the naked truth. You can hear from anyone that has ever been in our store that we have the "stuff" and we make the prices.
