Showers tonight and tomorrow, says the forecast.

Mrs. G G Richmond has gone to Lenoir to visit her daughter, Mrs. Barnhardt.

Mrs. Ed. Fisher has gone to Lexington to spend a week or two with relatives.

Master John Barrier, son of Mrs. Mollie Barrier, is quite sick with malarial fever.

Miss Elma Cole left this (Thursday) morning for Asheville to attend the Teachers' Assembly.

Misses Carrie and Annie Alexander, of China Grove, are visiting their friend, Miss Fannie Lippard.

Mr. Tom Cannon has returned to his home at Spartanburg, after spending several days here with relatives.

The Juvenile Missionary Society of Central Methodist church will serve refreshments in the Litaker building tonight.

Messrs. Billy Weddington and Joe Fisher returned this (Thursday) evening from Roanoke college where they have been attending school.

Mrs. R A Brown entertained quite a number of young folks at her elegant domicile Wednesday night. The evening was spent most pleasantly. Elegant refreshments were served.

The stockholders of the Coleman factory met Wednesday in our city. They had quite a long meeting, but nothing of public interest is definite yet. They are now trying to decide on the purchase of their engine and boiler.

Mr. Charlie Correll has arrived in our city to stay this time. Mr. Correll's family will not move here until next month. He has already taken charge in the jewelry store formerly occupied by A. J. & J. F. Yorke.

It seems to be the luck of the ladies of Central Methodist church to have a rainy night when they wish to have some kind of entertainment for the church, and as we are needing rain they have decided to serve ice-cream, sherbets, and cake in the Litaker building tonight. Let the people and the rain both come tonight.

WRECK ON THE SOUTHERN.

Twenty-Four Cars Go Into a Washout—Engineer, Fireman, Flagman and Brakeman Hurt.

Danville, Va., June 15.—At 9 o'clock tonight a serious wreck occurred on the Southern Railway, two miles north of Danville. Engineer Gary, Fireman Sales, Flagman Pace and Brakeman O'Connor, of extra freight No. 229, southbound, were all more or less seriously injured. The wreck was caused by a washout and was complete. Twenty-four loaded cars composed the train many of them are totally destroyed.

Every woman needs Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

Take Them Out of Town.

Some of the people of Cannonville are complaining considerably of the people not taking their dead dogs outside of the incorporation of the town these days. Some time ago the carcasses of four dogs were found not so far from one of the residences at Cannonville. This is a violation of the law and should be looked after.

Coot Fitzgerald Hurt.

Aunt Rachel Fitzgerald, as she is called, mother of Coot Fitzgerald, the negro who escaped from the chain gang some days ago, received a telegram from Lexington Wednesday evening saying that her boy had been struck by a train. Nothing scarcely can be found out about him. At the time of sending the telegram he was still senseless. His body seems to be mangled somewhat.

A West Virginia man who went to Hagerstown, Md., to have a carbuncle cut from his back was very much surprised, as was also the doctor, when an old bullet dropped out, which had been shot into him during the late unpleasantness between the States.—Morning Star.
