Labor in the South.

New England being relatively crowded and the South being sparsely settled, ground rents are higher in New England and the products issuing from the ground are higher. Land is so plentiful in the South that men operate their own houses and raise their own gardens. The necessities of life, food and clothing, are cheaper, operatives can live cheaper, because the money they receive for their labor purchases more than the larger labor received by the New England laborers can purchase. Southern labor is more intelligent. It is a native born, energetic and skilled. New England labor is chiefly French-Canadian migratory, unsettled, careless of results so long as the wage is obtained. It is suspicious and jealous of capital, while Southern labor is independent and holds itself to be quite as good as capital, votes with capital, goes to the same church with capital. The South is destined to become the cotton manufacturing center of the country because the mills can be erected on the plantations, where they will escape high ground rents and municipal taxes. New England is too much crowded for this.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

Dr. Alexander, of the State University, said at the Teacher's Assembly in Asheville Thursday night in discussing modern Greece that when the inner facts of the late war with Turkey are brought out the entire world will be with Greece. The world will be glad for the inner facts to come out for Greece's show of a bold front with nothing, which to base it neutralized much of the sympathy that she commanded at first.

We see that Prof. Alexander Graham is reported as saying in the Teacher's Assembly at Asheville, "I teach my children that the first white child was born in North Carolina," speaking of United States History. We readily concede that Prof. Graham is good authority in matters of history but his assertion would be the sum total of evidence on this point as we have never seen it so stated in any history save in the North Carolina edition of Maury's Geography, which we passed by as having jumped at a conclusion.

"The Old Man Drank Again."

A gentleman of this place traveled on the Western N. C. Railroad last week on the same car with his dis-Honor, Judge Norwood. The Judge, our informant says, was "full" and making a spectacle of himself. We had heard nothing of our esteemed friend in so long that we hoped he had overcome his infirmity, but alas, alas! Hunt up that resignation, Lusk, may be a wave of that precious document will sober him down a little.—Lenoir Topic.

Germany Not Our Enemy.

A dispatch of the 16th from Berlin says that Germany is misrepresented in her attitude toward the United States, that Emperor William is too mindful of the many Germans who are enjoying good homes in the United States to feel unfriendly toward us, independently of what some of the press of Germany would represent. The emperor says he will adhere strictly to neutrality in this war.

Pointed Paragraphs.

It is hard for a man under a cloud to see the silver lining.
A woman's favorite novel is the one in which she thinks the heroine resembles her.
When pride turns a man's head he is sure to look the wrong way.
The world laughs at a girl who is anxious to get married, and it laughs if she becomes an old maid; so what can the poor girl do?

In the matters of foreign interference, the moving out of the Cadiz fleet and the starvation in Havana, the news dispatches seem to keep time with the oscillations of the pendulum.

The British steamer Twickenham did not get in with her 3,000 tons of coal for the Spaniards but Sampson will make it sufficiently hot for them without the coal.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Five Were Lynched.

Near Wetumpka, in Elmore county, Ala., Tuesday night one Mr. Carden and wife and relative, an old man, Mr. Carlee, were robbed and murdered. Five negroes were arrested and jailed. On Thursday night the incensed community took the prisoners out of jail and to the scene of the crime, where four of them confessed the crime and one went with them to where he had hid the money. They were all strung up and hung to death and then shot.

The greatest comfort the Manilian Spaniard, has probably, is in the fact that the archbishop announces that he has had a communication with God, who promised him that the "Yankee pigs" will be driven out of the island, and that Spain will be triumphant in the end. That sounds like Mormonism.

War and Crime.

One of the peculiar effects of the war is the reduction in the amount of crime. This is especially noted in the larger cities. In New York the change is so marked as to excite comment on the part of the police authorities. There has been a reduction of nearly fifty per cent. in the number of crimes reported in that city since the opening of hostilities. The same condition of affairs is noted elsewhere. Even arrests for misdemeanors are unusually small.

The police authorities believe this almost unprecedented condition is due to the great interest taken by all classes of people in the war. Even the most hardened thief employs his time plotting against Spain, instead of scheming how some honest householder may be despoiled. It is a condition that will form an interesting study for those who make criminology a matter of research and consideration. It is certainly remarkable.—Ohio State Journal.

It will be very nice to see Lieut. Hobson and his men all promoted when they get back into our lines but it would do them little good to declare them admirals as long as they lie in Spanish prison.

The Lyceum Meets.

The Lyceum met Friday night, with an unusually small number present. Messrs. Jno. Cook and R. L. Duval on the affirmative and Mr. Harry Woodhouse and Attorney Stickleby on the negative, debated the question, "Resolved, That the United States can justifiably and advantageously acquire more territory." Dr. Herring, the chairman, was the judge of the debate, and announced that the chair was unable to render its decision on the question until at the next meeting. The indictment of the Sergeant at Arms was laid on the table and further action will be taken on it at its next meeting.

Hospital Train Passes Through.

The army hospital train passed through last night over the Southern for Tampa. It consists of ten Pullman sleeping cars, one dining-room car, cooking car and a combination coach. It is fully equipped for hospital service. The train passing through here contained 16 cars some of which were of the Red Cross equipment.
