CONCORD, JULY 15 1898

IT WAS A GRAND ACHIEVEMENT.

It seems to us that there is cause for gratification in the surrender of Santiago that is only a little below the two great naval victories. In view of the fact that a headlong assault upon the works would have cost so many lives now saved and that a severe bombardment would have been at no little cost to the United States and would have wrought immense loss to the natives whom we wish to protect and benefit, it was worth the while to induce a surrender by repeated efforts and to make some conditions.

The moral effect on the Spanish soldiery and people is better by the conciliatory course, for Spain is already too desperate. A gentleness may do much to disabuse the Spanish mind.

We may not know all the modifications of the capitulation, but whatever they be they should be accepted by the American people without a murmur. They seem to be the consensus of the minds of the leaders on the field whose sagacity and courage have been tested and will bear no discounting. It is our daring fighters that know what kind of terms to offer.

DIDN'T QUITE MAKE IT.

Justice Brewer, of the supreme court, recalls the interesting fact that a year ago when Admiral Dewey was being condoled with on being ordered to the distant China waters, he answered: "You need not condole with me, gentlemen. The government will not stand this Cuban foolishness much longer, and we will have something to do. I will come back again, but some fine morning I will take the Philippines before breakfast." The admiral was as good enough to keep his promise.—Daily Free Press.

[He did not quite come up to it, for he stopped and ate breakfast, going back and finishing up the job then.]

There is a fresh sensation in the much talked of case of Judge W L Norwood, of the Superior Court, whose resignation, conditioned upon his again being intoxicated, was placed in V S Lusk's hands and by the latter sent to Governor Russell and then accepted, the Governor appointing Eugene Carter, of Asheville, judge. The attorney general Friday granted Norwood leave to bring suit in the name of the State to try the title to the office. Some very able attorneys declare the case will go against the Governor and in Norwood's favor.—Daily Record.

We have not compliments to hustle into the Populist party with a sawdust scoop by any means, but we do congratulate the party in convention in the 7th district Thursday on its nomination of Morrison Caldwell for Congressman instead of A O Shuford. We can't think of a Populist in the district that we would be more willing to suffer defeat from if it could not be avoided than our own Morrison, while to be annoyed with that fellow Shuford is too bad for the close of this 19th century. We don't know how it can be that Morrison can swallow Marion Butler, but there is an old saw about a woman that kissed a cow when there were men to kiss.

Discovered By a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs Luther Lutz. Thus writes W C Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottle free at P. B. Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

The North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association will meet in annual session in Wilmington on July 25th. As there are not a great many veterinary surgeons in the State, the gathering will not be a large one, but matters of great importance to the veterinary profession will be discussed.—Daily Record.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by P B Fetzer's Drug Store.

Raleigh is to have a cannon shipped to her from one of the sunken ships at Manila, all because the mayor of that city promptly congratulated the crew of the Raleigh that bore a conspicuous part in the grand naval battle. Now the Concord was there and well up in the front of the battle. Why can't we have such trophy? Shall we miss it just because Mayor Crowell was whooping with the rest of us instead of slinking away to some corner to hasten a cable congratulation?

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

The Chief Burgess of Milesburg, Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills he ever used in his family during forty years of housekeeping. They cure constipation, sick headache and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size, but great in results.—J P Gibson.

Strange About the Negroes.

Chaplain Galloupe, who was in the Santiago fight, in talking to a reporter of the Charlotte Observer says:

"I watched the negro soldiers with a great deal of interest, and discovered something curious about them. As long as you keep them in the rush of battle they do very well, really fighting like tigers, but the minute the excitement is over, they weaken. They cannot wait an attack—their nerve gives way entirely. The white soldier has nerve; but not so with the negro. I noticed, too, that the white soldier, when wounded, makes no outcry, does not cry nor murmur. The negroes cry and moan all the time."

The Great Wrestler Lost.

Among the number that met death by the sinking of the steamship Bourgogne was the world-renowned wrestler, Yousouf, who came to America and found no man competent to throw him. He was on his return home. This man had a peculiar idea about his money, having always carried it in a belt around his waist, where it was almost sure to have been at his death. He never wrestled but once in his life without his money in his belt.

News From Georgeville.

Prof. Albright, who will take charge of the school at the Georgeville Academy, has arrived here. His school will very probably begin on the first Monday in August.

Mr. Will Widenhouse, who fell from his wheel two weeks ago and whose hip was fractured slightly, is able to walk some now. He has been confined to his bed with the injury.

A Correction.

In your issue of yesterday (14th) you spoke of the "Rev. Oliver Stansell, the colored Episcopal preacher." Although Oliver Stansell sometimes assumed the title of "Rev." and the functions of "preacher," he has never been ordained to the ministry of the Episcopal church. He was and is, only a layman, and was employed as teacher in the colored mission.

His Arm Badly Cut.

Thursday evening Mr. Noah Correll received a bad cut on his arm. In leaning against a small slat before the window in his shop, the slat gave away and his arm went directly against the glass, which broke and inflicted a bad cut on his arm just above the wrist. It bled quite profusely for some time.

Will Teach at China Grove.

Mr. S E Hodges, son of Mr. O W Hodges, of Crab Orchard township, goes to China Grove Monday to begin school in the China Grove Academy.

Mr. Hodges will teach for two months. He will then stop teaching to enter Davidson College.—Charlotte News.

The announcement is officially made at Washington that the rumors of estrangement between Sampson and Schley are all false; that Sampson has not violated the rules of etiquette or generosity toward Schley; and that his report, when received, will give full justice to all of his brave men engaged in the capture of Cervera and destruction of his ships. Let us await the report. We could but feel that Admiral Sampson would discharge his duty as becomes an American officer and gentleman.—Raleigh Post.
