IMPROVEMENTS MADE

At Mont Amoena Seminary, at the Kindley Mills and On Residences—Bad Weather Disappoints the Picturers.

Mt. Pleasant, Aug. 15.—Rev. J A Lynn has moved from the Lutheran parsonage to his home above town.

The new boiler for the W R Kindley cotton mills has arrived. Machinery has been shipped to place in the basement. The mill will stop about two weeks.

Dr. H N Miller, principal of the Seminary and Rev. M G G Scherer, president of the College, report good encouragement for large schools this year.

Dr. Miller has made some improvements at the Seminary this summer by adding closets and bath rooms—also some class and study rooms.

Mr. L J Foil has greatly improved the appearance of his house. Mr. W D Anthony, of Concord, has finished painting it. We are informed that other improvements will be made soon.

Quite a number of our young people were invited to the picnic at Bost's mill last Thursday given by Misses Addie Boger and Annie Bost, but owing to the unfavorable weather only one couple was in attendance.

Mr. S J Ludwig went over to Charlotte last week.

Burial of Conductor Mowery.

A very impressive funeral was held Sunday morning of the remains of Conductor Wm. Mowery. A large crowd was present—many could not enter the church. Mr. Mowery seems to have been quite a favorite among the people. He belonged to several orders, all of which turned out in a body to the funeral. The uniform rank of Knights of Pythias, the Masonic Order and the Order of Railway Conductors, all mourned the loss of a brother member, who was held in best esteem. The funeral was conducted in the Episcopal church, after which the remains were interred in the city cemetery at Salisbury.

The First Step Made.

The bed for the foundation of a large warehouse has been dug out behind Dayvault's store. This is the place where the two warehouses were burned by our fire, and which ground belongs to Mr. Robert Phifer. Mr. D A Caldwell has the contract for the building of it. It will be 27 feet wide and 150 feet long. On account of some disputed line, work has been stopped for several days on it.

The Dam Bursts.

Quite a number will remember seeing the large dam near the Misenheimer springs. On Saturday night, being so full of water, it burst and the water swept everything with it. The pavilion at the spring was partly washed away. Some seem to have fears that the spring was also washed away, but they found that some of it was still there. This was a large dam and was well built with rock.

Cloudburst Drowns 15.

At Beech Creek, East Tennessee, fifteen persons were drowned Saturday, the 13th, by a cloudburst.

MEETING CALLED

For the Primaries and County Convention By the Democratic Executive Committee.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Cabarrus county met as per call of its Chairman with a quorum present and ordered the primaries for the different precincts to meet on Saturday, September 3rd, at 2 o'clock.

The committee also ordered the county convention to nominate candidates for the various offices to meet on the 10th of September at 2 o'clock.

Every white man who intends to vote the Democratic ticket as nominated is cordially invited to take part in our primaries.

A B YOUNG,
Chairman Dem. Ex. Com.
WADE BARRIER, Secretary.

Two Trusties Bid Adieu.

On Sunday night two negroes on the chain gang, Chas. Barnhardt and Will Daniels, made their escape. That night after 8 o'clock both were out at the barn tending to the mules, but they failed to come at their time, which is at 9 o'clock. One of these negroes, Chas. Barnhardt, who is one of the best hands and who tends to the engine at the rock crusher, has escaped twice before and both times has been captured in Charlotte. The other one, Will Daniels, still had on his chains, but had been given the privileges of a trusty. Nothing has been heard from them.

Mr. Bruce Overcash Dead.

About two weeks ago Mr. Bruce Overcash, of No. 3 township, took suddenly sick with a chill. Since that time he has been very sick, having then taken typhoid fever. On Sunday night he answered to the death summon.

Mr. Overcash was a good citizen of our county and was known by many of our people. He had reached the age of 41 years. He leaves a wife and two children. The funeral was preached at Gilwood church this (Monday) evening by Rev. J F Pharr.

A New Clerk for Concord.

We are glad to note that Mr. Press Freeze, who lately finished a course in pharmacy, has accepted a position at the prescription counter in Fetzer's drug store. Mr. Freeze is a son of Mr. A M Freeze, of Enochville. He will fill the position formerly occupied by Mr. Mitchner, who will soon go to Albemarle to be employed by Mr. Oates, the druggist.

A Sheriff Assigns.

It is learned that the sheriff of Swaine county has made an assignment without having paid any of the taxes due the State. The law imposes 10 per cent. in addition to the gross State tax and a penalty of $1,000 in addition for such failure. Treasurer Worth will bring action immediately to recover from the bondsmen of the sheriff.—News and Observer.

Mr. Lard Query Dead.

The sad news of the death of Mr. Lard Query, of Harrisburg, comes to us. He died Sunday night after being in bad health for nearly two years. Mr. Query was one of the oldest citizens of No. 1 township and one of our county's best citizens.

Discovered By a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W C Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottle free at P. B. Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

A stubborn cough or tickling in the throat yields to One Minute Cough Cure. Harmless in effect, touches the right spot, reliable and just what is wanted. It acts at once.—J P Gibson.
