A STEADY MOVE.

Our Contractors Kept Busy These Days Building Residences for Our People—Other Buildings Also Going Up.

Concord is not on a boom these days but is simply moving steadily along. Our contractors are building at different places about in town, and in several different parts of town we hear the noise of the carpenter's hammer and the brick-mason's trowel.

As before noted a nice residence is being built on Spring street for Miss Maggie Bessent. It is an eight room house and will have two stories.

Mrs. Kate Goodson will soon have another beautiful residence on West Depot street next to her home now. This is another two-story house containing ten rooms, besides a bath room.

The lumber is already being hauled and work will commence in less than three days on a residence in Cannonville on the other side of the pond on the site where the other building was burned a week or two ago. This will be a two-story house, similar to those built by the Cannon Manufacturing Co., thereabout.

A nice cottage is being finished on the corner of Spring and Heilig streets. This building belongs to Dr. Lilly, and as soon as finished, will be occupied by Mr. D J Bostian.

Some splendid improvements are being made on the Baptist church on Spring street, adding much more room to the building and improving the appearance wonderfully.

An additional building is being built to the Cannon mills, with the dimension of 52 by 42 feet. This annex will be three stories high and is being built to the north side of the building.

An additional room is being built to the Buffalo mills, to be used as a spinning room. Its dimensions are 65 by 32 feet.

Quite a large additional building is being built to the bleachery, but at this time we fail to know its dimensions. The building will be built to the lower end and will project almost to the branch, giving room for a roadway.

Goed to Jail.

A negro claiming to be a doctor from New York and giving his name as Dr. Doy, was arraigned before Esq. Hill today (Tuesday) on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. On trial the negro seemed somewhat impertinent, and had to be hushed by the threat of being put in jail if he didn't keep his mouth shut, only when his turn came. He was found guilty and now lies in jail, having failed to give a $50 bond for his appearance at court. He tried to be a very "slick duck," but his little antics didn't go in a case like this.

Organization Effected.

The stockholders of the Lippard & Shealy Manufacturing Company have brought that enterprise up to the point where organization was desirable. Therefore on August 15th they met and effected the following organization, viz: D B Coltrane, president; J O Lippard, secretary and treasurer; W P Shealy, superintendent.

Directors: D B Coltrane, J O Lippard, W P Shealy, R T Lippard, Geo. B Hiss.

A CARD

To the People of Concord and Cabarrus County.

It is our pleasure to announce to the people of Concord and Cabarrus county that Mont Amena Female Seminary has been greatly improved and enlarged, so that it offers today all the equipment of a first-class, up-to-date, modern institution of learning. Its curriculum has been advanced, its teaching force increased, and modern water conveniences installed in the building. Hot and cold water, and bath rooms convenient to every hall. A new annex with steam heat will be ready for occupancy by the opening of the session. The new music department will also be heated by steam. The Seminary building will soon be directly connected with the Concord Telephone exchange. An entire year's expense is only $100.00, including tuition in literary course, board, laundry, fuel and lights, or $130.00 with music or art, or $150.00 with music and art.

With first-class advantages and cheap rates, this Cabarrus county institution ought to have a large patronage from Concord and Cabarrus county. Students of any denomination welcome to our advantages.

The next session will open September 6th, 1 p. m. Apply to the undersigned for illustrated catalogue.

AFTER THE WAR.

A Grand Naval Parade and Salutes at the Grave of Gen. Grant Arranged—Naval Militia to Go Home—Commissions Appointed for Occupation—Gen. Lee Will Go to Havana—The Cubans to Be Disbanded—Gen. Shafter's Army to Be Gone Thursday—Blanco Resigns and Issues an Address—Manila Said to Have Fallen.

A breathing spell is on with respect to the war and the departments at Washington can let down somewhat from the strain. Yet there is much going on and still much to be done.

It is proposed to have a grand naval parade Saturday the 20th up the river at New York as far as to Gen. Grant's tomb, where a salute will be fired. The ships will then return to anchorage in the bay and the naval militia will be disbanded as rapidly as possible.

Major Generals Brooke and Schwan and Admiral Sohley have been named on the commission to conduct the transfer of occupation in Porto Rico, and Major Generals Wade and Butler and Admiral Sampson in Cuba. It seems a settled conclusion that Gen. Lee and his corps will go to Cuba. Gen. Lee's fitness to cope with Cuban affairs seems admitted. The General takes a hopeful view of the future of Cuba. He thinks 45,000 troops sufficient to keep order on the island, while reconstruction is being effected.

A consultation between the American and Cuban leaders at Santiago is said to have taken place Monday night in which it was decided that the Cubans should be disbanded and be paid off by the United States. This will require about $15,000,000, it is said, but will be a necessity. The last of Gen. Shafter's army is expected to leave Cuba by Thursday, and the General himself will sail by Sunday.

The matter of American silver has righted itself at Santiago, and our silver coins have their full face value, as it will be from any country where it is possible to exchange it for gold.

Gen. Blanco has resigned and issued a farewell address to the Spaniards in Cuba and especially of Havana. Of course he harps that reconciliation could soon have been effected but for American interference. Having urged resistance to the last extreme he does not wish now to conduct the surrender without a fight.

It is reported, but not confirmed, that Manila has been bombarded and has surrendered, Augusti having escaped on a German vessel.
