WHOLE No 11790

COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Large Crowd Present—Court House Packed—All Precincts Well Represented—Nominations Made.

At 2 o'clock this (Saturday) evening the Democrats turned out in one large crowd to the county Democratic convention. All precincts were well represented.

Messrs. J B Sherrill and Wade Barrier were appointed secretaries; Messrs. Holland Thompson, W N Misenheimer and Jno. Miller made the calculations, which proved to be somewhat of a job, when it came to finding out the votes for cotton weigher, register of deeds and sheriff.

The card of Mr. R S Harris, as published in the Times and STANDARD, giving his hearty endorsement to Mr. John M. Cook was read by Attorney H S Puryear.

The convention returned thanks to Messrs. P M Morris & Sons, for the use of their lumber for the speaking in the court house yard Monday.

The nominations resulted as follows:

Coroner—Jas. W Brown.
Surveyor—Jno. H Long.
Cotton Weigher—Jno. W Propst, nominated on second ballot.

Treasurer—Caleb Swink, by a unanimous vote.

Register of Deeds—W Reece Johnson, nominated an second ballot.

Sheriff—Jas. L Peck, on fourth ballot.

Clerk of Court—Jno. M Cook, by acclamation.

All nominations were afterwards made unanimous.

After it was known that Mr. Jno. Propst had gained the nomination for cotton weigher, Mr. Pink Townsend, one of the nominees in the convention, arose and asked that the vote be made unanimous for Mr. Propst and expressed his fidelity and earnest support of Mr. Propst in the campaign. For such action, which showed Mr. Townsend to be a true Democrat, a vote of approbation was tendered Mr. Townsend by the convention.

It being so late, we were compelled to go to press before the nomination of commissioners and member of the Legislature were made. It was a foregone conclusion that L T Hartsell would be the nominee for the Legislature.

Shrinking the Baby.

The Mistress—"Be very careful, nurse, when you give little Algernon a bath. He shrinks from it so."

The New Nurse—"Do he, mum? That's bad. With two or three more shrinkin's there'll be nothin' left of him."—Commonwealth.

They Played "The Little Rebel."

To the enjoyment of all present, and there was a good crowd there, The Little Rebel was played at Caton's hall Friday night. It was clearly demonstrated that the town of Concord has ample talent to give performances to our people. In every respect we have performers competent to give most creditable plays. The musical feature at the opening was as fine as we have ever had here at any of our entertainments, consisting of duets and solos. The three old maids were most comical, and what a difference there was when they turned themselves around—instead of three old maids with their fans, and scarcely a tooth in their head, there stood three of Concord's belles. The play, "The Little Rebel," was very amusing, but Bill Jones' girl, who loved him even when he was beyond the sea, and was always ready to confess her fondness for him, was one of the best. The others were also well suited for their parts. The baseball song by Prof. Keebler and Miss Cora Lentz brought down the house. For the benefit of those who have never heard it we publish it.

The Concord boys are we,
We'll sing of victory,
We'll talk about the games we'll take today,
And when Cheraw we spy,
You'll hear the Tar Heels cry,
"Three cheers for the red, white and blue.

Captain Rogers just like that gets his base,
Oldham makes a bunt and takes his place,
What for? What's that? Mangum's at the bat,
A home run, for the ball's gone over the fence.
With Billy in the box
And in the left field Fox,
And Garah playing short "to beat the band,"
Now if this game you need,
Don't knock the ball to Reid,
For we've got the finest players in the land.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by P B Fetzer's Drug Store.

Mr. Chas. Blume Better.

Word has been received from Mr. Wm. H Blume saying that he and Mrs. Blume have reached the bedside of their son, Mr. Chas. Blume, at Paxton, Ind., and find him somewhat better. He has now regained consciousness and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them.—J P Gibson.
