CONCORD, N. C. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 1898

WHOLE No 11792

COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Large Crowd Present—Court House Packed—All Precincts Well Represented—Nominations Made.

In addition to the business noted in Saturday's account, the nominations for Commissioners and Legislature were afterwards made. On account of the late hour finishing, it was necessary to leave this until today.

Commissioners—Jno. P Allison and W F Cannon were nominated on first ballot. Jno. S Turner was nominated on third ballot.

Legislature—Luther T Hartsell by acclamation.

The convention before adjourning endorsed the name of Mr. R L Smith, of Norwood, for the nominee for the Senate from this county.

Before the selection of the nominee for the Legislature, Mr. Jake Newell, who had received some votes in the primaries, refused to let his name go before the convention.

After the nomination by acclamation of Mr. Luther Hartsell for the Legislature, he came forward and made a short speech which brought cheers from throughout the room. The speech was not one of harangues and insults, but merely a citing of the state of affairs in North Carolina as they are today. Though short, it was a strong speech and to the point.

They Had the Delegation.

We think all precincts in the county will confess that Ward No. 1 had the finest delegation in the county convention last Saturday. It took two rows of benches to hold them and they sometimes took the room by storm, when they were holding their elections. While they were making elections, and at the moment when everyone else was silent their chairman was heard to ask that "all White men hold up their hands." The chairman was referring to one of the candidates and not to color.

Quite An Improvement.

Heretofore it has been somewhat of a burden to make the calculations in the county convention, but on Saturday the work was made much easier by the townships giving their votes in a decimal form instead of fractionally, and this method should hereafter be followed. One or two precincts handed in their results in fractional form.

The Suits Have Come.

The suits for the colored fire company have come. They cost $225; $139.60 of this amount has been paid in, but there is a handsome little sum yet subscribed by our people that it is very desirable should be paid in. Persons who are thus indebted by subscription are earnestly requested to hand the amounts to Mr. J L Hartsell at the Cannon & Fetzner Company's store.

They Talked Sewerage Business.

On last Saturday, Mayor Crowell and Mr. A B Young were at the depot talking sewerage matters to Mr. W B Ryder, superintendent of this division of the Southern. For some time the matter was talked, but nothing definite was done. Superintendent Ryder will later hand the town a condition, after consulting with higher authorities.

JOINT DISCUSSION.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson and Hon. Chas. B Aycock Hold a Joint Discussion Here—A Very Good Attendance Though Not As Many As Had Been Expected—Some Hot Shots Fired at Each Other.

On account of there not being quite as large a crowd as had been expected the joint discussion between Hon. Chas. B Aycock, of the Democratic party, and Dr. Cyrus Thompson, of the Populist party, was held in the court house, beginning at noon today.

The discussion was opened by Mr. Aycock, lasting about one hour and a half, after which Dr. Thompson took it up and spoke about the same length of time. Mr. Aycock then replied, and was again followed by his opponent.

On account of the length of the speeches and the time the points taken could not be inserted in today's issue.

The newspaper men were here taking their notes of this discussion between two of the most eloquent speakers of the two parties of our State. Besides the editors of THE STANDARD and Times, the following reporters were present: Mr. Howard Banks, of the Charlotte Observer; Mr. Claude Matthews, of the Charlotte News; Mr. F B Arendall, of the Raleigh News and Observer; Mr. Maxwell Garmon, of the Raleigh Post; Mr. H B Varner, of the Lexington Dispatch; Mr. Chas. Laine, of the Wilmington Star; and Mr. Reid, editor of the Salisbury Watchman.

The Little Rebel Tonight.

At the request of many friends the "Little Rebel" will be repeated. The programme is varied by the addition of a Parisian pantomime with fourteen lovely girls. It is both beautiful and amusing. Mr. Dan Summey will also add to the pleasure of the evening by singing two charming songs. The Three Old Maids will be on hand, and Bill Jones will also appear, so Kitty says. The following is the programme:

Duet—By Misses Lore.
Solo—Mr. Dan Summey.
Parisian Pantomime.
"Bird in the Hand"—Miss Margaret Cannon, Miss Chipman, Miss Mary Skinner.
Solo—Mr. Dan Summey.
The Little Rebel—Cast: Mr. Gowan Dusenbery, Miss Emily Gibson, Miss Cora Lertz, Professor Kessler, Mr. Jim Young.
Admission 25 cents. Children 10 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

The Commissioners Have a Meeting.

The town commissioners met this (Monday) morning in the city hall. The taxes for the coming year were levied. They are the same as they were last year. An ordinance was also passed forbidding bootblacks from shining shoes on the streets. Hereafter the "little coons" will have to take patrons in the stores or in the alleys.

Four cases of yellow fever have developed among our troops in Porto Rico. One death has resulted. The health of the troops at Santiago has improved, according to latest health reports.

A DEATH

At Forest Hill—Buffalo Mills Having Marriages—Henry Wilson Returns Home—Marshall Mabrey Gone Back to Camp.

Forest Hill Correspondence.

Mr. Frank Garrett and his sister, Miss Kate Garrett, returned from Kings Mountain Saturday night.

Buffalo is trying to keep up her end of the string in the way of marriages—two couples being made as one Sunday—Mr. R L Cress and Miss Jennie Furr, and Mr. Hiram Allman to Miss Mattie Hill.

Miss Mattie McCollum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J M McCollum, died Sunday evening about 2 o'clock with a congestive cholera. The remains were interred in the cemetery.

Mr. H M Wilson came in last night from a trip south. He leaves tonight for his home in Baltimore. Henry's many friends regret seeing him leave.

Private Marshall Mabrey left this morning to join his company at Jacksonville. Marshall makes a good looking soldier.

A Move For the Better.

We are glad to know that Mr. Baxter Parks, who has been living near Harrisburg, will make Concord his home. We welcome him and his good family to our place and hope that they will be pleased with Concord. Mr. Parks will occupy the house next door to Mr. Hamilton on West Depot street. Mr. and Mrs. H L Parks, who have been living in this house, will move in the house formerly occupied by Prof. Lewis on Belle avenue.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed, by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time.—J P Gibson.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them.—J P Gibson.
