CABARRUS DEMOCRACY FOR VICTORY.

We most heartily congratulate the Democratic nominating convention assembled Saturday, the 10th, on its full attendance, its splendid personnel, its exceptionally good humor, the splendid ticket and none the less its enthusiasm. The fraternal and the loyal spirit that pervaded the meeting presaged a united and vigorous Democracy and a glorious victory in November. There were favorites and it was admirable to see the steady pulling for them. It was next to painful for delegates to have to cast a vote for one when there was another just as good. But stern duty must prevail over sentimentality and the selections were made without fraud or favor. The graceful way in which Mr. R. S. Harris, Mr. P. P. Townsend, Mr. D. Henry White and Mr. T. J. White publicly yielded to fortunes of the choices that went from them, too, should put any convention in good humor and make any party campaign healthy.

The party of traditionally good government now goes before the people in a campaign against a combination that has been sufficiently tried and found woefully wanting.

Had not evil designing men sown the seeds of captiousness, discontent, distrust and alienation among us till those constitutionally most susceptible were drawn away from the party, there would need be no solicitude for the election and no fear that our political evils might perchance hang yet like a night-mare over us for another term.

We enter now the campaign in double earnestness and enjoy all the strength of union, harmony, enthusiasm and hope.

By the peerlessness of the Anglo-Saxon race, by the love of peace and happiness in every home in North Carolina, by the reverence and the tender regard for the womanhood of our land, by the progress and the glory of our noble institutions of our State, by the reasserted manhood that feels the burden of freedom transmitted from sires of whom we are proud, we are in this race to win unless a withering fatality shall bid evil yet to finish its course.

There is naught of which Democracy should be vain but there is much of which she may be legitimately proud. Let victory crown her on the 8th day of November and the Old North State again step up abreast of her sister Southern States, washed of the late foul stains on her political escutcheons.

SHOULD HAVE GOTTEN MR. CALDWELL.

We see that Mr. Morrison Caldwell in his Salisbury speech says Mr. Jno. R. Smith made the penitentiary self-sustaining during the first year of his administration with a balance of $25,000. Then the crime of putting him out is very great. But Mr. Smith and Mr. Dockery too in the so-called report did not put such a good face on the penitentiary report. In the distress to meet the legal requirement it became a question who should be able to make a good appearance out of the awful condition. Why did they not get Cabarrus county's only fusion lawyer? Why it could have been made a brilliant campaign slogan.

Since we come to think Mr. Dockery complained that Mr. Leazer defeated a bill for an appropriation. What was it wanted for?

We are not often moved with a desire to press the hand of Gov. Russell, but we confess to having a very pleasant sensation and a kind of warm spot for our "Uncle Dan" over the letter which we publish today with regard to the Cabarrus lynching. We plied our scissors upon that letter when we first saw it in the Morning Post, but it has been crowded out till now. We are glad to know that the Governor can see with us that a deed so harrowing may arouse a community to retribution ultra legal and yet not criminal.

CONVICT KILLED.

Whipped So Unmercifully on the Northampton State Farm That He Died at the Plow.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Jim Sears, a white man on the Northampton State farm, on a charge of murdering James Lowe, a convict. Sears is charged with whipping Lowe so cruelly that he died at the plow to which he was sent after the flogging. The post-mortem examination held by Dr. Ferguson bears out the charge. It is said that the management of this farm has become a scandal that is likely to require investigation.

The Sad News Was Told Her.

Miss Fannie Green, of Franklinton, who visited for several weeks at the home of Mr. H. M. Barrow at this place, but who for some time has been visiting in Kings Mountain, received the sad news of the sudden death of her father last Saturday evening. A telegram was received on Saturday evening by Mr. H. M. Barrow announcing the death of Col. W. F. Green, having dropped dead at his home. Miss Green arrived here from Kings Mountain Saturday evening on the train and intended visiting here again for several weeks, but Mr. Barrow had to inform her of the sad news. Mr. Barrow accompanied her home.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by P. B. Fetzer's Drug Store.

Don't Want Jim Nor His Regiment.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "Rev. Dr. Leak, secretary of the colored State Fair, has decided on the week beginning November 15th as the date for the fair. The doctor was asked if he would try to secure Jim Young and the negro regiment as an attraction. He said he did not want Jim nor his regiment."

A. B. GOODMAN, M. D.

I respectfully solicit the professional services of the community. All calls will be promptly attended. My Office is at the residence of Davis Barrier, at Rimer, N. C. Aug. 25.

GREAT SALES prove the great merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Sarsaparilla sells because it accomplishes GREAT CURES.

The Highest Price Store in the State

Will claim to undersell their competitors. Assertions are easy but not always true, but figures combined with quality do not deceive. We respectfully submit the following figures and ask you to come and examine the quality. The simple fact that an article is quoted at a low figure does not necessarily mean that it is really cheap. A yard of cloth made to sell for 3c. is no cheaper at 3c. than a 5c. quality would be at 5c.

1 yd wide Cambric (same as Lonsdale) 7 1-2c.
1 yd " Parcale in light or navy ground at 6 1-4c, worth 7 1-2c.

350 lbs remnants of White Goods at 25c. per lb.

1 yd wide Percale at 6 1-4c, worth 15 to 20c.
1 yd " Silisia at 7 1-2c, worth 10 to 15c.
