CONCORD, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5 1898

WHOLE No 11799

OFFICERS CENSURED

By Our Representative for Allowing Such Conduct in That Town—A Change of Business—Personals.

Mt. Pleasant, N. C., Oct. 5, '98.
—Mr. George Moose has accepted a position as clerk in Mr. C G Heilig's store. "Uncle Dan," who formerly filled this place, is going back "down on the farm."

Mr. Ed. Heilig, of Salisbury is here on business.

Miss Ella Lentz, of Norwood, is visiting Miss Mabel Barrier.

Mr. Luke Johnson is spending a few days in our town, recuperating from the accident he met with last week. While riding his fast horse, "Justice," down street last Sunday the horse slipped and fell, bruising "kid" up pretty badly.

Never has our town had such a time as was had here Monday evening as noted by your paper on Tuesday afternoon in regard to Mr. Hinson's action.

Tuesday evening when Mr. Johnson and his bride returned from Concord he gave another short speech without being molested by the officers.

There are a hundred men, women and children in Mt. Pleasant that are ready to swear that it is not an exaggerated account, that he cursed at least three hours without ceasing, except at court—one oath after another, in the blackest, dirtiest language that was ever uttered in our town, and within the hearing of women and children.

It is a shame and a disgrace to our town and community that our town authorities did not stop this thing. A number of men went to the Mayor and begged him to have it stopped. Mrs. Hinson was very sick and he even went to her bedside and cursed and black-guarded her. "Let the law have its way" is the cry, but another offence like this and the people will have their way.

Mr. Hinson says that he was "mad and out of fix," but he must remember that he most grievously violated the law and is not excusable in the sight of the law, and may rejoice that he was excusable in the sight of our unworthy officers.

ON DIT.

Good News from Iredell.

A private note from Olin, Iredell county, reads: "I would do you good to hear the reports from north Iredell. Republicans swear they won't vote for Caldwell. Populists are coming back to Democracy. The signs point to victory." Other advices from Iredell are to the effect that the county is going Democratic by from 500 to 700. This would be an old-time majority. Klutz's speeches in the county last week were, by all accounts, vote-winners. Reports agree that he simply plays with Caldwell, his Populist-Republican opponent. But it is not alone from Iredell that the news is good. The reports from all the surrounding counties are uniformly favorable. —Charlotte Observer.

All persons indebted to me will please call upon W G Means, Esq., and settle. I have left all accounts and notes in his hands for collection.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

Caused By a Drinking Engineer and Fireman—Terrible Explosion.

The Durham correspondent to the Charlotte Observer has the following:

"Several of the employes on this road came over on the engine to the junction in the early part of Saturday night. They then made their way to Roxboro, where they filled up on meat corn whiskey. Going back to where they had left the engine, they boarded it early Sunday morning and started on the return trip. After going about three miles they stopped to load some wood. A darkey was throwing the wood on the tender, and while waiting the engineer and fireman went to sleep in the cab. The fireman awoke before the loading was finished, and discovered that the water was low in the boiler. He proceeded to turn on some water, when there was a terrific explosion, the sound of which was heard for miles. The boiler had burst, killing the engineer and fireman instantly, and wounding two white men and a negro. One was blown through a chunk of trees, leaving scars on the trees where he went through. All the men were from near Lynchburg, Va. It is thought that the injured men will die."

Mr. Cannon Withdraws His Name.

To the Voters of Cabarrus County:

As is well known I was nominated by the Democratic county convention for the position of county commissioner. It is also known that Mr. Jno. P Allison was nominated for chairman of said board and as Mr. Allison, by reason of his large interest in No. 2 township in so far as the interest of the township is concerned, is practically a citizen of the township, I, on mature deliberation and in recognition of the fact that the best interests of the people of the county require that the different sections of the county should, to as large an extent as practicable, be represented on the Board of Commissioners, do, therefore, withdraw my name as a candidate for the office of county commissioner and request that my place on the ticket be filled by some good man from another section of the county.

Most respectfully,
W F CANNON.

GEN. LEE TO CUBA SOON.

Likes Volunteers for Fighting But in Peace They Have to Many Kin.

Gen. Lee, in an interview recently, gave evidence that he expects to go to Cuba with his command, the 7th corps, about the last of the month. This has been the best kept corps of the army in point of health and probably discipline too. The General does not contemplate going to Cuba without his soldiers. He says he had too much trouble to stay there before without soldiers. He says he likes volunteers when there is fighting to be done but he seems to prefer regulars in time of peace. He says volunteers have too many fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, cousins and aunts that want to get them out of the service.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mayor T C Linn, of Salisbury, is spending today in our city.

—Mrs. Hargrave, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. P B Fetzter.

—Mr. John C Wadsworth returned home last night from South-ern Pines.

—Rev. C F Rankin returned last night, after spending a day or two in Greensboro.

—Mr. Clayton Brown, of Salisbury, who has been spending several weeks here on business, went to Charlotte this morning.

—Mrs. Fred Stephens arrived here last night from Charlotte and is stopping at the home of her father, Mr. Baxter Parks.

Ervin & Morrison GROCERS

The Broken Window Abandoned.

A new plate glass has been put in on the corner at Fetzter's drug store, after remaining broken for several months. This was somewhat of a historical glass. On the night of May 9th, when the members of Company L, of the First regiment, were quartered in Caton's Hall, and when all of the boys had gathered up their accoutrements and had bade their relatives, friends and sweethearts "good-bye," some one shot into this window, one ball going through the centre of the glass, the other two striking on each side of the window. Ever since that time questions have been answered as to how that glass was broken. If it had not commenced breaking in and rendering the window unsafe, it is probable that Dr. Fetzter would have placed a nice silver plate in the centre dedicating it to the members of the First regiment.

Cristobal Colon's Cat.

A prisoner of war, who positively refused to be interviewed, was seen at the offices of the United Express Company, 49 Broadway, yesterday, en route to the United Supply station, St. Joseph, Mich., where he will be put in custody of Lloyd Clark, a relative of Capt. Clark of the Oregon. The following notice was found pasted on the prisoner's personal effects:

"To Good Americans—Treat me kindly and give me food, as I am a prisoner of war from the Cristobal Colon, being forwarded by my captors, the crew of the Oregon, to the gallant commander, Capt. Clark, whose brave efforts forced the Colon to surrender July 3, 1898."

The prisoner's name was Mr. Thomas Cat. He was a handsome specimen, having a silver gray coat, with tiger stripes, and showed no effects of having passed through the horrors of war, although very much uncommunicative. —N. Y. Sun.
