MUSTERING-OUT PROCESS

Of our Second Regiment Now Fixed Upon—Their Mustering Out to Be at the Principal Place in Those Parts.

The Raleigh correspondent to the Observer says that on Tuesday all the arrangements for the mustering-out of the Second Regiment were definitely made. There was one change from Monday's programme—the Rutherford company (Capt. W. T. R. Bell's) will be mustered out at Morganton instead of at Charlotte. As it now stands the mustering-out is to begin November 3rd, at Charlotte, with the Gastonia company. This will require two days. The company will rendezvous there on the 2nd. The Murphy, Nantahala and Asheville companies will be mustered out at Asheville, beginning November 6th; the Rutherford and Morganton-Lenoir companies at Morganton; the Greensboro company at Greensboro; then the Fayetteville and Lumber Bridge companies at Fayetteville; the Wilmington company at Wilmington, and the Tarboro and Greenville companies at Tarboro, this making the twelve companies.

Camp will be broken here Saturday morning and the men will all leave. Quite a lot of men left today for the west, among them ten for Nantahala. Guard will be kept up to Saturday.

Much money will be coming to the soldiers when they are mustered out. Here are the items: Pay for October and up to date in November when mustered out; pay for rations during furlough of 30 days; travel pay from Raleigh to their homes (this latter being agreed on Tuesday); pay in lieu of rations on their way home from muster-out, and last the balance of their clothing allowance. The total runs from $65 to $100.

WHITE GOVERNMENT UNION

Organized at Brief in Union County—Speeches By Some of the Best Speakers Around There.

Brief, N. C., Oct. 17.—The "White Government Union" of Goose Creek township, recently organized, met at Brief Academy on Saturday night last. Several buttons were distributed and several names added, making a total of over half a hundred. The audience was rather small, but those present were well entertained by a characteristic Democratic speech from the lips of Editor R. F. Beasley, of the Monroe Journal. Dr. Austin introduced the speaker. For about two hours the appreciative audience was held enchanted by a mellifluousness of eloquence, interspersed here and there with reasonable, mirth-provoking jokes, some of which were entirely fresh. The Union meets at the Price school house next Saturday night, when and where it is to be addressed by Chairman Covington, of the county Democratic executive committee.

AUGUSTINE.

The Show Tuesday Night.

The American dog and pony show gave their first performance on the Morris lot Tuesday afternoon to a medium sized audience. The show is not up to the average one of this grade. They carry a very good band with them—nicely uniformed and make splendid music.

The backward somersault of the dogs is good, but none of the animals are under the best of control.

A GENERAL DISTRIBUTION

Of the Victims of John Barleycorn On Saturday Night at a Corn Shucking Near Town—Moving Around in Other Places.

Mt. Pleasant, Oct. 19.—Miss Ella Lentz, who has been visiting Miss Mabel Barrier, has returned to her home in Norwood.

Mr. Frank Patterson, Jr., and Miss Pauline Thom, of China Grove, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Dr. H. N. Miller.

We came near having a serious fire in our town Monday night. The chimney at the east end of Mr. L. J. Foil's house caught and burned out. The wind was blowing from the east, carrying the sparks over on the roof.

The Pi. Sigma Phi Society will give a public debate some time in November.

Rev. Paul Barringer has moved into his new house on North Main street.

Mr. David Corzine has purchased and moved into the residence formerly occupied by J. D. Barrier.

Mr. Horace Barrier has gone to Charlotte to spend several days on business.

John Barleycorn was out on the war path last Saturday night. He passed by a corn shucking a mile or two below town, and loosened his war dogs. About three o'clock Sunday morning a call was made on the Southern Express and Delivery Association, of the Mt. Pleasant Industrial Union, which promptly distributed his victims in Jug-Town with all the ease, grace and dispatch of trained veterans. ON DIT.

J. S. Harris Has a Fire.

Mr. J. S. Harris had a fire Monday night that burned his engine house and saw mill. Like a miracle almost, his gin was saved though full of cotton, and much baled cotton was on the yard. The fire was blown in the direction of the gin, and the roof and some of the cotton in the yard caught but were extinguished by only two men who fought the fire for a considerable time before help arrived. A good large bushy tree stood between and doubtless saved the gin, while it was a sacrifice to the flames. The engine bed was extinguished before giving way, so that the engine is not greatly damaged. The loss sustained will probably not far exceed $200. It was a narrow escape of a heavy loss.

Miss Carrie Winecoff Dead.

For some time Miss Carrie, the daughter of Mr. Mike Winecoff, who lives at Forest Hill, has been lingering with the dreaded disease, consumption, until Tuesday about 1 o'clock she answered the death summons. Miss Winecoff was about 19 years of age. The funeral was conducted at the home this (Wednesday) afternoon by Rev. O. B. Miller, her pastor, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery.

John Eaton and Robert Enlow escaped from the penitentiary Monday morning. Each was in for illicit distilling. It means more "moonshine" on the market.

Tom Watson's Paper Done For.

The People's Party Paper, the most influential mouth-piece of Populism in the United States, of which Thomas E. Watson was lately editor, suspended publication Saturday on account of a laborer's lien for $500 levied in favor of Mrs. Mackie Sturgis Holcombe, business manager. Mrs. Holcombe is also secretary and treasurer of Our Publishing Company, which issued the paper, and of which Watson is president. Mrs. Holcombe engineered the paper through the exciting campaign of 1896, when Watson used it to fire broadsides at Marion Butler and his clique. Since then the paper has been losing money, and Mrs. Holcombe's salary for that year, so she alleges, has gone to current expenses.—Atlanta Dispatch.
