QUIET AT ASHEPOLE.

Ten Negroes Arrested and Confess Crime.

Quiet seems restored at Ashepole. About ten negroes have been captured and they confess to the shooting of the three white men and implicate others. They tell who burned the store. The trouble seems to have grown out of the negroes' wanting to register not at the regular, legal time. Attacks on white men were made and the store of Subba & Floyd was burned. Great coolness and determination seem to have characterized the white people in the affair, and it is hoped that the law will take its course in spite of the effort of the negroes under their incendiary instructions to resist the regular course of the law.

Was Nearly Sixty-Seven Years Old.

Mr. S L Klutz returned home Monday after attending the funeral of his father, Mr. R B Klutz, at Albemarle. Mr. Klutz would soon have reached the age of 67 years. He was the father of thirteen children, two of whom only are dead. There are now living seven sons and four daughters, and all are living in the State except Mr. Hoyle Klutz, who is a member of Company L, of our First regiment, and who came home to attend his father's funeral.

Mr. Klutz carried a life insurance amounting to $2,000 in a New York company.

A Bad Piece of Business.

Not only was it a case of theft, but also a very dangerous act on the part of some person last Sunday night to steal two lanterns from North Main street, where the sewerage work is being done. The lanterns, showing a red light, are put there to keep any persons from thoughtlessly walking into the deep ditches, and the displacement of the lanterns might have caused some one to be hurt. It is hoped that such a thing as this will not occur again. Some mischievous folks have also been throwing palings into these trenches, and on morning the employes found some one's gate down in there.

Rev. C. F. Rankin Wedded.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 19th gives a minute account of the wedding of Rev. O F Rankin. The Dispatch concludes with the following: "The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Strickler, father of the bride, and the Rev. Mr. Lowry, and the bride was given away by Dr. W S Kendrick.

"A reception was held after the ceremony at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. G B Strickler, and the bride and groom left at midnight for Washington as the first stop on a Northern wedding tour. A large number of Richmond people were present at the wedding, including several of the pastors of city churches. The presents were numerous and very handsome."

Dies Very Suddenly.

Mr. Wm. Fink, who lives in No. 6 township, received a stroke of paralysis Monday while at work. Mr. Fink had reached the age of 65 years, and leaves a wife and several children. The funeral was preached at Mt. Olive church.

A BLOODY BATTLE.

Race Riot in Mississippi—Negroes Resist the Civil Laws and Fire On the Officers—One White Man and Ten Negroes Killed.

A bloody race riot occurred last Sunday in Harpersville, Scott county, Miss. A white man named Charles D Freeman had a difficulty with a negro, Bill Burke. Burke finally attacked Freeman with a hoe. A warrant was issued and the negroes got together and answered the summons with a volley, killing Officer Sibley and wounding three others. A battle ensued in which the whites were overwhelmed with numbers and retreated till reinforcements came to their help. They then drove them into the swamps and some were captured. Ten and probably more negroes were killed.

To Lose Rev. W P McGhee.

We are sorry to note the fact that Rev. W P McGhee, pastor of Epworth Methodist church at Cannonville, and who has been in very bad health for three months, will leave Concord in about three weeks, his physician having advised him to have a change of pastorate, which change will be subject to the action of the conference which meets at Winston soon. Rev. McGhee very much appreciates the aid rendered him during his sickness by the pastors of his denomination, they having filled his pulpit almost every Sunday.

Mrs. Robt. Gadd Dead.

On Monday, at her home in Charlotte, Mrs. Robt. W Gadd died of consumption. Mrs. Gadd, before her marriage, was Miss Fannie Moore, daughter of Mr. Daniel Moore, who lives near here. Mrs. Gadd had only been married about five months and was not yet 22 years of age. The funeral was preached in Charlotte Tuesday afternoon. The remains were brought here this [Tuesday] morning and taken to Mt. Gilead church in No. 5 township to be interred. Several relatives from Charlotte accompanied the corpse here.

Mr. White Settles It.

Mr. M W White, who is at the Pasteur institute in Baltimore, writes the following card to the Statesville Landmark:

"Some time ago I noticed in your paper a criticism from The Hickory Times-Mercury against you as to my position in this year's election. You were right in what you said in regard to me and my position. I will set that thing at rest now and forever. I will say that I regard the Populist party as simply a side show to the Republican party, and I don't propose to be one of the animals in the show. I am thoroughly disgusted with fusion and especially with Republicans. I have been opposed to it all the time and am satisfied that it is for nothing but to get some men positions, therefore I would never consent to have my name used.

I am sorry that my misfortune took me away from Iredell when it did. I had set myself to do the best work of my life against fusion. I regard every one of the nominees of the Democratic party that I know of as true silver men and will support them cheerfully. I am certain that many other men who have affiliated with the Populists will do the same. I see many true men all over the State denouncing fusion, and I hope many more will make up their minds to leave the sinking ship.

"Skinner and his influence is managing the Populist party in North Carolina and I don't regard him as anything but a Republican. I am opposed to this bigging about, so you can put me down a full-fledged Democrat.

"M W WHITE,
Baltimore, Md., Oct. 17, 1893."

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mrs. F S Starrette, of Mooresville, arrived here last night.

—Mrs. Dr. Crowell and sister, Miss Jennie Patterson, came down to our city today from China Grove on business.

—Mr. Jake Newell went out to Mt. Pleasant today. He will probably make a speech there this afternoon, as the candidates are all there.

The Because of It.

A number have asked us the reason why Our work grows better as the days go by. So in these lines please let us tell Of the work the people love so well. New ways, new methods and new machines, Have brought great changes and new scenes. The method for washing we now use, Never gives the clothes the blues, Nor leaves them yellow like the Spanish flag, Which we prefer to call a rag, But makes them white as riven snow, As all who patronize us know.

Our machine for a saw tooth collar Don't even give them a chance to "holter" But knocks the teeth out in a mass, Without the use of forceps or gas. Yes, quicker than Dewey, on the first of May, Knocked out the Spaniards at Manila Bay. So if you wish work up to date Please telephone us by half past eight, No. 2.

Ask your friends and neighbors about our dyeing and cleaning. We guarantee goods not to shrink or dye to rub off. We wash woolen goods of all kinds without shrinking and repair shirts free.

Concord Steam Laundry and Dye Works.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A C Thomas, of Marysville Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at P B Fetzler's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.
