GRAND BARBECUE

Next Saturday at the Old Lutheran Church—Committees and Marshals Appointed—Two Brass Bands to Spread Their Music Upon the Air—At Least Five Thousand People to Be Here.

If the efforts of our different committees mean anything, Concord will certainly have a crowd on her streets next Saturday, such as Concord has not seen for years. But it is by no means for Concord's sake but for the sake of Democracy in Cabarrus county.

There will be at least forty-five marshals on horseback, who will be at the service of the different officers and committees. The marshals will be under the directions of Messrs. Tom White and Sam Hattie, who have been elected the marshals.

Two brass bands will be here to cheer the hearts of the people feel glad, and to arouse our spirits to their highest pitch. The Mt. Pleasant band, in full uniform, will be here beside another one not yet decided upon.

Later we learn that the Steel Creek band has accepted to come, so now we will have two fine bands to play on our streets.

At least 2,500 pounds of meat will be furnished the committees beforehand, besides the amounts of chickens, etc., brought by the good people in their baskets. There will be at least two thousand pounds of bread in loaves and biscuits.

At least three hundred persons from every part of the county have been asked personally to attend to the table. These will consist of young ladies, married ladies and gentlemen.

The plan of the march at this time has not yet been definitely decided upon. As before stated, every one that can so equip himself is requested to ride on horseback in the procession.

Let everybody come and bring their baskets filled with substantial food for the people. Tell your neighbors to come too, as this is to be a day long to be remembered by the Democrats of this county.

The following marshals and table attendants have been appointed for the precincts:

Concord Choral Union.

The Woody Bro's. closed their musical instructions in the town Tuesday night. The progress made seems to have been very satisfactory and the music by the class was very well and pleasantly rendered. The solos and duets by the instructors for the pleasure of the audience were truly enchanting. However sweet the harmony of good instruments under skillful touch, it is only through the well trained human voice that the poet can pour his soul thrilling sentiment into the heart of his fellow, and happy that poet whose rhythmic verse is skillfully spoken into eager ears through the harmony of song. The Woody Brothers, we hope, have left, beside a good fundamental knowledge of purely vocal music, an inspiration that will lead much impetus to our church music.

The Concord Choral Union was organized as follows: President, R. P. Benson; leader, R. L. Keesler; organists, Misses Fannie Stricker and Addie Patterson; treasurer, Miss L. King; secretary, R. E. Ridenhour.

We want a liberal contribution, and if any one has been overlooked, we will be glad to hear from them direct. Help us have a big day.

All who have contributed pickles will please send bread, either loaf or biscuits, and some kind of cooked meats instead.

The Peace Commission's Progress.

The progress of the peace commission in Paris has been slow up to a recent date. The Spanish diplomats struggled for every advantage possible but have been made to feel that they must take only what a just and generous conqueror chooses to give them. The matter of Cuba is considered settled leaving Spain to see to whatever of debts she has based on the island. Porto Rico is sure of course. The United States commissioners are instructed to say that we will take the whole group of Philippines and will pay Spain what she has spent for permanent improvements on the islands, but none of the debt incurred to maintain Spanish authority over the islands. This is now estimated at $10,000,000. This being the status of affairs the work of the commission may be closed soon and the treaty of peace signed much earlier than has been hoped for.

Bring the Reports Promptly.

It is hoped that the returns of the election next Tuesday will be promptly counted and hurriedly brought to the court house Tuesday night, as hundreds of people will be awaiting the reports that night. It is hoped that each precinct will have its messengers already selected and when arriving here will make it their purpose to take the news to headquarters promptly.

Franklin's Famous Toast.

Franklin was dining with a small party of a distinguished gentlemen, when one of them said: "Here are three nationalities represented; I am French, and my friend here is English, and Mr. Franklin is an American. Let each one propose a toast." It was agreed to and the Englishman's turn came first. He arose, and in the tone of a Briton bold, said: "Here's to Great Britain, the sun that gives light to all the nations of the earth." The Frenchman was rather taken aback at this, but he proposed: "Here's to France, the moon whose magic rays move the tides of the world." Franklin then arose and with an air of quaint modesty, said: "Here's to George Washington, the Joshua of America, who commanded the sun and moon to stand still—and they stood still."—Our Youth's Friend.
