SHORT LOCALS.
Dr. Jesse Hamilton spent Saturday and Sunday at his home here with his parents.
FOR SALE—'98 Columbia bicycle, cheap, good as new.
Mrs. Ann Fink and Mrs. W. D. Anthony have returned home from Winston, where they visited Mrs. S. E. Allen.

WANTED—Fifty carloads of cotton seed. Will pay highest market price.
Miss Ola Hamilton has gone to Newells to spend a while at the home of her uncle, Prof. O. C. Hamilton.
We have just opened a first-class meat market. Give us a trial.
Mrs. Martin Boger and children returned home from Charlotte last Saturday morning, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foil.

All persons indebted to Dr. Archey by account will please settle same at once.
Mrs. C. W. Trice, of Lexington, is spending some time here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Propst.
FOR SALE—Pony, buggy, harness, riding saddle and bridle. Call on Thomas Kirkman, on Spring street, or Bleachery.
Mrs. Pink Campbell, of Shelby, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Litaker, who live near Concord.

Mr. Jno. A. Sims came home last Friday night from Raleigh to spend several days with his family and also to vote.
Misses Connie Cline and Ella Barnhardt, of Elizabeth college, spent Sunday in our city. Miss Barnhardt stopped with her friend, Miss Fannie Leslie.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stuart will entertain Rev. Chas. F. Rankin and wife, Mr. R. K. Black and wife, and Surgeon V. C. B. Means tomorrow evening at their home on Corbin street.

Mr. Frank Rogers spent Sunday here with his parents on his way back to Chapel Hill, after playing a game of football in Charlotte Saturday against the Davidson boys. The Varsity boys beat in a score of 11 to 0.

Miss Maude Brown, who came home sick some nights ago, took suddenly worse Sunday about noon but is much better at this time.

Photographer Scott came home last Saturday night. He came for two reasons—to see his family and to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Dr. M. Holden will leave tomorrow as soon as he can poll his vote for the Democratic party, on a visit to his daughters in the eastern part of the State. He says he will return at January court.

Just received—A lot of new furniture, and can sell it as cheap as the cheapest. Get prices anywhere and I will compete in quality and prices. Also a complete line of undertakers' supplies.
J. T. POUNDS.

With but one exception, all of the stores will be closed tomorrow during the whole day. The butchers will do no business between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. The drug stores will only keep a prescription clerk in the store during the day.

THE STANDARD will receive news from Raleigh tomorrow night in regard to the State election. It will, of course, be a late hour when the result comes, but it is thought that the drift of the election can be told that night. As regards the news from this Congressional district, we will be informed from Salisbury that night.

News From Bethpage.
Rev. W. M. Shaw, of Southport, Brunswick county, N. C., former pastor of Bethpage, preached at that church the 30th of October to quite a large congregation. He stayed and visited among his friends until the first of this month, then returned to his home. His many friends were glad to see him back again, this being his first visit since he left for his new home in January.

The fall communion of Bethpage church will commence Friday, Nov. 11th, and continue till Sunday, there being two services each day.
