PAWNEE BILL

With His Large Show Here—The Life of the Westerner To Be Shown to the People—Nearly Three Hundred Employees.

At an early hour this morning the wagons were hauling the train loads of things to the show grounds on the McDonald property above the Odell mills.

In this show we see the ways of the Westerner illustrated, how he lives, what he does and gets to hear them talk. Our people will never see a lady handle a rifle with more skill than Miss Mary Lillie, who is the niece of Pawnee Bill.

Col. Frank Frost, the press agent, and who has in the past been a traveling correspondent for a number of large dailies, called and spent a while with us.

Regardless of the dreary, drizzly day they showed this afternoon to a crowd.

There are forty-eight Indians with the show. Some few of these are able to talk English. It takes 16 large cars to carry this show.

The cars are exceptionally large and long and are equally as heavy as a freight train of 40 cars. There are about 290 men in the employ of Pawnee Bill.

Pawnee Bill, or Gordon B Lillie, was once an Indian interpreter, and for many years lived in different countries inhabited almost solely by Indians. He was once a schoolteacher for them.

The crowd awaiting the show was informed about 12 o'clock today that there would be only one performance, beginning at 2 o'clock. At first it had been intended to have two performances sure, but before we go to press it seems that there will be only one after all.

Died in a Distant Land.

We learn with deep and profound sadness of the death of Dr. George F Arie, formerly of New London, but late of Arizona. He died on Monday the 14th, we believe.

From daily contact with him we had learned to esteem him for his personal characteristics and hoped for him much success in his congenial profession.

He was fully aware that he was tending toward consumption and set about to battle with it. It was that that forced him to give up a well built-up practice around New London and seek the arid atmosphere of that distant land away from the home and friends of his youth but to yield at last.

Our profound sympathies are extended to the bereaved and we devote a page in memory's tablet with his name inscribed.

Right or wrong, the white people of the South mean to dominate the politics of that section. If the negroes contest that determination there will be war between the races.—Chicago Chronicle.

It is estimated that the United States contains four-ninths of all the railroad mileage in the world.

Troubled by a Snake Bite.

About twenty years ago, Mr. J A Caudle, a man who now lives at Cannonville, was bitten on his great toe by a snake. Almost every year since he would have a spell of suffering from this bite, and this year it has proved worse than at former times. In fact it has become so painful and inflamed, that he cannot wear a shoe on that foot with any comfort, and it is thought that amputation of the toe will very probably be his only relief.

The Show Had a Marriage.

Tuesday evening in their car at Charlotte an Arab and a Wyoming cow-girl were married. Both parties are in the employ of Pawnee Bill and had become fond of each other.

Federal Court Jurors.

The list of jurors for the next Federal court at Charlotte include the following from Cabarrus: Will E Harris, D A Caldwell, J M Alexander, B W Pressly, O D Barringer and W O Coleman.

Never Close Their Eyes.

One of the most curious facts with regard to snakes is that the eyes are never closed. Sleeping or waking, alive or dead, they are always wide open. This is because there are no eyelids. The eye is protected only by a strong scale, which forms a part of the epidermal envelope, and is cast off in a piece with that every time the reptile moults. This eye-plate is as clear and transparent as glass, and allows the most perfect vision, while at the same time it is so hard and tough as to perfectly protect the delicate organ within from the thorns and twigs among which, in flight from enemies or in pursuit of prey, the reptile so often hurriedly glides, as any close observer of the habits of the snake can readily discover.—Saturday Post.

The Teresa is Doomed.

The Teresa is believed now to be a hopeless wreck. Constructor McCalla and a board of experts find it impractical to save the ship, however much she was prized as a trophy. She struck on a coral reef at a point extremely disadvantageous and the waves grind her till the tide rises and falls in the vessel. A few trophies can be saved from her, otherwise it had been as well if she had gone the three miles below.

The refugees from the righteous wrath of the Wilmingtonians are in Washington, but they get cold comfort, it seems, and are advised to look out for themselves. It is too late now to take a course that would have commanded respect and esteem instead of universal contempt. "There is retribution in history."

James Richardson, the world's greatest cotton planter died at his home at Benoit, Miss., Tuesday night.

Bob—Look at the fire engine house; it's draped in black.

Tom—That's so. Some poor fellow has gone to his last fire.—Life.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mrs W R Harris and children returned home this morning.

—Mr. Norman Shaw, Grand Dictator of the Knights of Honor, is here today on business.

—Mr. S J Lowe left last night for a southern trip. He will be gone about a month.

Some of the showmen said that Concord was a mighty queer town—it was both wet and dry.

—Rev. A E Wiley, of Mt. Pleasant, passed through this morning on his way to Winston to attend conference.

Meteors That Killed.

A report comes from Oklahoma Territory that a shower of meteors fell Sunday night that was more than we looked for. Instead of a mere burning light and harmless thing, more of vapor than of substance, there was matter of such solidity that two children were killed and a number of persons were severely hurt by them.

Discovered By a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W C Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottle free at P. B. Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.
