A Good Report of the Philippines.

Paymaster Wilcox and Naval Cadet Sergeant of the monitor Monadnock have finished a six weeks' tour into the interior of one of the Philippines recently and report quite favorably. The land is very fertile. The explorers received much courtesy and were greatly pleased with the education and culture of the people. The people were dressed in western style. The women are attractive and the population fairly contented under Aguinaldo's rule. In the mountain regions the people are rather savage. Internal improvements, such as roads and bridges are needed.
