

WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

THE discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREY'S Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

The Bonds Case Before the Court.

As previously fixed, the case where in Mr. D O Bonds, administrator of Mrs. Jane Bonds, was entered upon by the court today (Monday.)

This is the case where Mr. Bonds is suing the Southern Railway Co. for the amount of $1,995 for the killing of Mrs. Bonds. Attorneys Bason, of Charlotte, and P B Means, of this place, appear for the Southern while Mr. Bonds has employed Messrs. Montgomery and Crowell as his counsellors.

Conductor Ed. Patterson, together with one of his crew, is here to give their testimony. Mr. Will Bason, a stenographer and son of Attorney Geo. Bason, is taking the testimony in shorthand.

Mrs. Wesley Blackwelder Dead.

Death came and robbed the four children of Mr. Wesley Blackwelder of its only living parent last Saturday. Mrs. Blackwelder had only been sick about a week. She follows her husband, who preceded her to the grave six years. The funeral was preached at Gilead Reformed church Sunday afternoon by Rev. Paul Barrieger.

The Bazaar last week in Raleigh was a great success. It cleared over $1,500 for the L. O. B. Branch Camp and will add many a comfort to the dependent veterans.

Hired Webster for a Week.

Of course Webster was in demand by those who could afford to pay for his services. A sharp Nantucket man is said to have got the better of the great defender of the constitution in an amusing way, however. He had a small case which was to be tried at Nantucket one week in June, and he posted to Webster's office in great haste. It was a contest with a neighbor over a matter of considerable local interest, and his pride as a litigant was at stake. He told Webster the particulars and asked what he would charge to conduct the case.

"Why," said Webster, "you can't afford to hire me, I should have to stay down there the whole week, and my fee would be more than the whole case is worth. I couldn't go down there for less than $1,000. I could try every case on the docket as well as one, and it wouldn't cost any more, for one case would take my time for the entire week anyway."

"All right, Mr. Webster," quickly responded the Nantucketer. "Here's your $1,000. You come down, and I'll fix it so you can try every case."

Webster was so amused over this proposition that he kept his word. He spent the entire week in Nantucket and appeared on one side or the other in every case that came up for hearing. The shrewd Nantucketer hired Daniel out to all his friends who were in litigation and received in return about $1,500, so that he got Webster's services for nothing and made a good profit to boot.—Boston Herald.

A Drunken Soldier's Folly.

William J Jackson, a private of Company M, Two Hundred and First New York regiment, in camp at Greenville, S. C., got on a first-class spree last Thursday night and while in his weaving-way hooked up to a Negro girl, Mattie Earle, and proceeded to a Negro preacher and got married. When he recovered from the drunk and found he had disgraced himself and violated the law, he tried to get a divorce. He could not get that, but the prison bars have him.

The late William B Smalridge, of Glenville W. Va., a veteran of the Civil war, carried a bullet in his heart for thirty-seven years. His death was not due to the presence of the bullet, and in fact he never suffered any inconvenience from it. Before his death he asked a physician, in the interest of science, to make an autopsy in order to find the bullet. The physician did so, and found it imbedded in the heart.—Anderson Intelligencer.

"And were you homesick in Porto Rico, my son?" asked the Chicago father of his soldier son. "No, father, I was not. As soon as I heard the island had been annexed to the United States, I felt as it were already a suburb of Chicago."—Yonkers Statesman.
