Congressmen, Seeds, Etc.

Congressman-elect Theo. F Klutz is daily receiving applications by mail for seeds, documents, etc., which he would be glad to fill if in his power to do so. Unfortunately, however, Mr. Klutz's term does not begin till March 4th; and the distribution of seeds, etc., for this season will be made by Mr. Shuford, whose term does not expire until March 4th.

Unless there should be an extra session, Mr. Klutz will not actually take his seat in Congress till next December. This does not seem to be understood by a good many people, and it really does seem strange that a Congressman should be elected more than a year before his service actually begins, but so the fathers arranged it, and so it remains to this day.—Salisbury Sun.

Some Figures in Hog-Raising.

Our townsman, Mr. Jno. McDowell, who prays that he not only can raise good orders for his house for which he travels, but can raise porkers also, gives us some figures that will be of interest.

Some time ago he purchased four pigs, six months old, crossed of Poland China and Berkshire, which cost him in the outset $10. He fed them until they had, on an average, reached the age of six months. During this time he bought from a roller mill $9.60 worth of feed. Of course to their feed must be added some wastings from the kitchen.

He sold them to a butcher for the sum of $40, they having together weighed 608 pounds. On this investment then he made $20.40.

Still Working on the Railroad Case.

The day has been spent at the court house by the pleading of the attorneys on the case of Mr. D C Bonds vs the Southern Railway Co. Before adjourning for dinner after 1 o'clock Judge Montgomery closed his argument.

The charge to the jury was given after the taking up of the afternoon session. It is thought that some work would be done on another case yet this afternoon.

Suffering the Consequences.

G W Justice, the Asheville lawyer who was arrested in Raleigh on the charge of pilfering law books, is there in jail unable to give bail. He is almost helpless with nervous prostration.

GREAT SNOW STORMS IN THE WEST.

Said by Old Settlers to be a Record-Breaker—A Family Buried.

Denver, Col., Jan. 30—The snow storm has continued all day over the greater part of Colorado, and it is said by old settlers to be a record-breaker. Nearly all the mountain railroads are blockaded and in most cases the companies have given up the hope of operating them until after the storm subsides. Snow slides are reported at many places, but the only loss of life so far known was at Apex, where the family of Wm. Rudolph were buried under tons of ice and snow.

Chicago, Jan. 30—Ten degrees below zero at 10 o'clock marked the lowest reached by the mercury this winter in Chicago. The cold is growing more intense and by morning it is probable that 15 to 18 degrees below zero will be reached.

An Awful Experience.

The ship, Manbare, bound for Sydney, Australia, says a Vancouver dispatch, was caught some time ago in a gale and destroyed near New Guinea. The crew of eighteen men left in two boats. They separated, and one with twelve sailors was washed ashore. They fell into the hands of cannibals and were tortured in various ways by the hilarious savages and killed and eaten one at a time. One escaped and made his way to the coast and was saved by a passing ship. His hair was turned snow white under the terrible strain.

The Sale Called Off.

Considering the inclement weather and the muddy condition of the roads a splendid crowd was present for Mr. Dodd's horse sale at Corl's stable. About thirteen were sold, most of them horses. The estimate of horse flesh was too low by the bidders and hence the sale was called off, as the bids would hardly bring the owners the cost of the beasts. Several mules were sold for over fifty dollars apiece.

Two Aged Ladies Burned.

Misses Nancy and Polly Garden, respectively 65 and 81 years living, four miles from Durham, were burned to death early Monday morning. The house was seen to be on fire but help arrived too late. Their charred bodies were found among the ashes.

The fire was probably accidental as they were in needy circumstances and the elder one was sick.

A Small Fire in No. 5 Township.

Saturday afternoon the fire alarm was given out at the home of Mr. Rufus Cook in No. 5 township, when a small dwelling house, now used as a granary and tool house, caught on fire. Some of the men who are putting up the long distance telephone had been in there smoking, and it is thought that the straw caught in that way. No damage was done more than the burning of a considerable hole in the roof.

The Pastors Are Petitioning.

The Pastors' Association, of Salisbury, have petitioned their Congressmen to use their voice and vote against Mr. Brigham Roberts, the polygamist, having a seat in Congress.

Mr. Leazar's Opinion.

Hon. A Leazar, of Mooresville, spent yesterday here on his return from Raleigh. Speaking of the penitentiary mismanagement Mr. Leazar said: "It is a fully, scandalously bad. The mismanagement and corruption are dreadful. The State cannot afford to dishand it. The people will just have to put their hands down in their pockets and pay for it. It is an outrage."—Charlotte Observer.

It's in the Bones.

The Sixth Virginia, the negro regiment that obtained such an unenviable reputation, passed through the city Sunday morning over the Seaboard Air Line. One section stopped at the Union depot about ten minutes. The negroes were very disorderly and noisy and yelled like so many Comanche Indians. They were heard for several blocks.—Raleigh Post.

Superintendent Rider, it is said, expects to have trains running over the Mooresville and Mocksville road by the first of March.
