FIGHTING AGAIN.

Aguinaldo Attacks at Manila But is Repulsed—Dewey in Evidence Again—Twenty Americans Killed and Probably 150 Wounded.

Hostilities have actually broken out at Manila. The insurgents attacked Gen. Otis' forces Saturday night at 8.40 and renewed several times. The conflict was sharp but not unexpected. Dewey had placed his war vessels in anticipation and he shelled the insurgents. The insurgents were repulsed and Gen. Otis has the mastery of the situation and has advanced his lines, capturing several villages. American casualties are estimated at 175, including probably 20 killed. A London dispatch says the insurgents' losses were very heavy.

Gen. Otis telegraphs that no uneasiness need be felt, the troops are in the best of spirits and several regiments distinguished themselves for their good fighting.

Remember.

At the concert this evening please remember:

That you should come early.

That no one will be given a seat during the performance of any member on the program.

That the best place for high hats is in your lap or at home in the sand box.

That the people come to hear the music and not to listen to your talk.

That you can help much by giving close attention.

That the closing scene is from the famous opera "Martha."

That you made one of the best investments of your life when you bought a ticket to hear the Brshany Company.

Mr. Isenhour Out Again.

Mr. Chas. Isenhour, who lives only a few miles below here, was in town last Saturday for the first time since his bad accident at the cotton gin when his right arm was torn off and a bad hurt given him in the head. He only carries a short stub. It was a pleasure to his friends to know that he has recovered, but is a sorrow to know that he is now robbed of one of the most useful members of his body—his right arm.

Not at the Expense of the County.

It will be remembered that a jury one night last week, before having been given the case by the judge, were kept in a body over night and their meals furnished them, they having quartered in the court house. Judge Shaw stated Saturday that the expense of the two meals—supper and breakfast—would be added to the case and would not be paid by the county. The case which was being tried was that of Mr. Ed. Lipe vs. Mrs. Parlier.

It Was a Dynamite Cap.

In Saturday afternoon's issue just before going to press we were informed of an accident that befell the little colored boy of Bud Plunkett. It was thought then that the accident was caused by the explosion of a cannon cracker, but it since proves to have been a dynamite cap, the child having put fire in the end of it. One finger only was taken off, but the hand is badly torn, especially in the palm of the hand.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

By the Concord Hose and Reel Company for the Election of a Railroad Commissioner.

The following resolutions were passed by the Concord Hose and Reel Company at a called meeting February 3rd, 1899.

Whereas, it has become necessary to elect a Railroad Commissioner by the present General Assembly of North Carolina, and whereas we, the members of the Concord Hose and Reel Co. feel a deep interest in the efficiency of these officers that all classes may receive equal rights and protection under the law.

And whereas, Capt. J D McNeil, of Fayetteville, N. C., has been proposed as a suitable person for said office.

First. Now, therefore, be it resolved that we unqualifiedly endorse him as being fully competent in every respect to fulfill the duties of the office.

Second. That we hereby instruct our representative, L T Hartsell, to cast his vote first and last for Capt. J D McNeil.

Third. That these be published in the Concord Standard and Concord Times and a copy be sent to our representative, L T Hartsell.

A Brutal Husband.

John Allen Parrish, a white man who with his wife worked at Carolina cotton mill, unmercifully beat his wife on Monday night last with a stick of light wood two feet long and about two by three inches square. The poor woman has been suffering since from the blows given her by her brutal husband. The case was reported to Judge Roberts, who issued a warrant for Parrish's arrest, but he had slipped away. This man has an awful reputation for brutality to his present wife and also to another who got a divorce from him. It is reported that perhaps he is guilty of bigamy, having a living undivorced wife in Texas. Some time ago Parrish beat up an officer at Cary, also one or two at Durham, and also he beat a mill foreman at Greensboro.—Times-Visitor.

Business Condition Good.

Dunn's Review says that for January business failures were smaller than for any previous month except August '98 and July '97, and that the volume of business has been far beyond all precedent. The market price of wheat dropped 5 cents on the bushel last week and corn a half cent per bushel, but there is such a demand for cotton goods that raw cotton did not decline much.

Million Dollar Fire.

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—A fierce fire broke out shortly after 5 o'clock this morning in the business section of this city. The fire was finally extinguished at noon. It is estimated that the flames caused $1,000,000 damage. Firemen suffered intensely from cold, and were also greatly handicapped in their work by the condition of the streets in the neighborhood, which were torn up for laying of the Reading Railway sub-way. In spite of all the firemen could do two buildings were gutted. Several other buildings in the same block took fire also.

AN APPEAL TAKEN.

Supreme Court to Try the Case of Mr. Joel Reid Against Mr. Will Brafford—Referee Hartsell's Work Sustained

On last Friday night the case of Mr. Joel Reid against Mr. Will Brafford, which case is in regard to some land below here known as the Brafford property, was taken up by His Honor, Judge Shaw.

It will be remembered at the July term of court Judge Allen appointed Attorney Luther Hartsell as referee in this case. The testimony was taken by Mr. Hartsell, together with the pleading of the counsel.

Only the counsel was heard by Judge Shaw, the case having been plead Friday night and also on Saturday. The counsel employed by Mr. Reid was Attorneys Montgomery, Crowell and Puryear, while Mr. Brafford's lawyers were Messrs. Jones and Tillett, of Charlotte, and Mr. Morrison Caldwell, of this place.

Judge Shaw finished his work on it Saturday afternoon only a while before leaving. The work of Mr. Hartsell was sustained in the main, which resulted in the gaining of the case by Mr. Reid. A notice of appeal to the Supreme Court was given by Mr. Brafford's counsellors.

PERSONAL POINTERS.
