We are requested to state that the Ladies' Aid Society of St. James Lutheran church will meet on next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the lecture room.

Mr. Dayvault's Trained Dog.

Below we give what the Mooresville Times says about Mr. Wm Dayvault's dog. Mr. Dayvault is the father of our business men here of that name. The dog ought to remember Concord, too, as Mr. Lester Coltrane owned it:

"Mr. Wm Dayvault, of Barium Springs, has one of the most sensible dogs we have ever seen. He can do almost everything, except talk, and he even tries that. He goes to the postoffice every day for his master's mail. He knows, as well as any person, which train carries the mail, and when it passes, he gathers his pouch and starts for the office. Mr. Boyd, the postmaster, knows his mission and always waits upon him as soon as the mail is distributed. We were present a week or two ago when, Frolic, (that is the name of the dog) came in with the mail.

He is far more regular in attendance upon this duty than many boys would be and he never grumbles at the task. Mr. Dayvault would not part with the dog for any amount of money."

Great Minds Run Together Sometimes—One is a Day Ahead.

SAINT VALENTINE'S day and Shrove Tuesday occur on the same day this year—next Tuesday—and lent begins the following, Wednesday the 15th. This too is the anniversary of the blowing up of the Maine. Just one week later we celebrate the birthday of America's idol, George Washington.—Durham Sun of 9th.

In the Neck

Is where you feel it when your collars are sent home from the Laundry with a "saw-edge." When this happens to you, you say to yourself, "I'm tired of this. Believe I'll make a change. I'll try another place."

You will like the way we "do up" your collars and cuffs and shirts. Returned to you clean and white.

We are careful of your linen—handle it "gently," use machinery that won't tear it.

Let your Laundry come—we're always ready—our wagon will call. It will be returned to you the day promised, too.

Remember we keep your clothes cleaned and pressed for a dollar a month if you join the Concord Laundry Cleaning Club.
