FOR SIX YEARS.

Mr. Jas. W Cannon Will Have Charge of the Patterson Mill Near Here—More Tenement Houses to be Built—To Run Both Day and Night.

Saturday was the day for the meeting of the Patterson Manufacturing Company. The directors present were Messrs. G W Patterson, W R Kindley, W R Harris, D J Satterfield and Jno. C Wadsworth.

The business of this meeting was to properly fix the contract with Mr. Jas W Cannon to take in his charge the Patterson cotton mill near here. All contracts were duly signed, and as soon as the present stock of cotton now on hand in the mill is exhausted, it will be under the direction of Mr. Cannon. The contract gives him charge for six years.

Eight more tenement houses are to be built, too, before the new contract starts in. The mill will be run, then, both day and night.

Mysterious Cupid at Cannonville.

For some time Cupid has been lurking near the residence of Mr. R J Moody. The resolute father, having been aware of its presence, entreated Cupid to pass on. But Cupid only laughed and placing a snare, the father was taken in by it. While thinking his daughter was at church he rested peacefully, and thus the plan was carried out, and Sunday at 11 o'clock Mr. Clarence Fesperman and Miss Maudie Moody were married by E. C. A Pitts. Both parties live at Buffalo mills.

A Party at Glass Saturday Night.

Quite a large number of persons were at the home of Mr. Will Gillon at Glass last Saturday night at the dwelling formerly occupied by Dr. Lafferty. Several ladies and gentlemen went from here, and some were also in attendance from China Grove, besides those who live in that community. Of course a nice, jolly time was given them while in the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Gillon.

No Need for Uneasiness.

Gen. Otis' message from Manila, dated the 25th, says: "The condition of affairs is quiet, and everything is progressing favorably. Anxiety need not be felt in regard to the situation. Will send a small body of troops to Cebu, where the navy took quiet possession."

Rudyard Kipling Very Ill.

The author, Rudyard Kipling, recently brought the more in public notice by his poem, "The White Man's Burden," is critically ill and the worst is feared.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A C Thomas, of Marysville Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at P B Fetzler's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

A DEPLORABLE TRAGEDY. IMPORTANT TO VETERANS.

A South Carolina Constable Shoots a Woman.

A most deplorable tragedy occurred at Columbia, S. C., on last Saturday, in the State of Tillmanism where things get on extremes that make the dispensary system a stench in the nostrils. Constables went to the house of John Stuart, a respectable citizen, with a warrant to search for liquor.

Mrs. Stuart resisted the intrusion with feminine indignance and sent for her husband who peremptorily forbade them to search his house. Hot words followed in which Stuart cursed one constable, Crawford, who slapped Stuart. The latter went into the house and securing arms opened fire from his door way. Mrs. Stuart was then on the piazza. The constables returned the fire and Mrs. Stuart fell, shot seriously just below the heart. Stuart received a shot in the mouth nearly cutting his tongue out and Crawford was shot through the rib.

The constables have been arrested. Mrs. Stuart's condition is extremely critical.

Comes Home From the War and Marries.

Only about a week ago Mr. Joe Cherry, who lives at Mill Bridge, was discharged from Company M of the First N. C. regiment and returned home from Cuba. Having realized more fully since wearing the blue that married life would be a more happy one for him, he took unto himself a helpmeet last Sunday, the lady being Miss Annie Parker, of Cannonville, daughter of Mr. J G Parker.

A Servant Girl Caught Stealing.

For some time Mr. and Mrs. Sol Levy have been thinking that their colored servant, Adelle Brown was stealing some things from them. Some nights ago Mr. Levy counted his money and left it in his clothes on a chair. The next morning when the girl was in the room she dived into the pockets for the cash. She "swiped" $1.20 from him. She was arraigned before Esq. Pitts Saturday afternoon for trial. She confessed to some of her stealing, and will be tried at the next term of court, having succeeded in getting a bondsman until that time.

Andre's Body Found Some More.

A Berlin Special to the New York Sun of the 23rd says a copy of The Siberian Advertiser, which has been mailed here contains a letter from a well-known Russian elk hunter named Jalin, who is a personal acquaintance of the editor of the paper. Jalin says that he went on snow-shoes to hunt elk in the primeval forest south of the Yenisei.

When 250 yersts from Krasnoyarsk and 100 from San Vinich gold washings on the Pit river he found a ball and three bodies. He vouches for the accuracy of his story and asked the editor to send men on snow-shoes to remove the bodies.

Prepare for the Charleston Reunion.

The General Assembly by a rising vote has extended a formal invitation and the freedom of the State of South Carolina to the surviving Confederates to attend the ninth grand reunion of the United Confederate Veteran's Association to be held in Charleston on May 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th.

This is the place where the opening guns of that great war were fired at 4.30 o'clock a. m. April 12, 1861 and against which the American navy of that day strove in vain. It was one of the grand objective points of the Federal arms that only fell when Gen. Sherman penetrated the south from its rear. Only Richmond has a richer record of unyielding defense in those days, dark under the clouds of war but sparkling with deeds of heroism and illumined with the fires of Southern chivalry. There could hardly have been a better selection of a place than Charleston and no better time for the comfort of the veterans could have been chosen.

There is a point to which we call the attention of veterans, however, which is that section 5 of article 5 of the constitution says, "Camps shall not be allowed representation unless their per capita shall have been paid to the adjutant general on or before the first day of April next preceeding the annual meeting."

This time you see is but one month off. It is well enough to attend to this very little matter at once. The Cabarrus veterans will want to go to Charleston by all means and it is desirable to have our full quota of delegates and the camp in good and regular standing.

D. A. Caldwell,
Commander.

Jerry Comes Back at Him.

Congressman Cannon of Illinois said in the House Saturday that if the speeches made Friday by Mr. Simpson and others had been made in Manila the speakers would have been arrested, tried by a drum-head court-martial and shot, to which "Sockless" Jerry retorted, "to be shot at Manila is better than to be shot here by an old muzzle-loading brass Cannon."

At the Episcopal Church.

Bishop Oneshire conducted services in All Saints' Episcopal church Saturday night. At the Rite of Confirmation five persons presented themselves at the altar and were made members of the church. At the colored church on Saturday afternoon the bishop also confirmed three. After the services Saturday night he boarded the train for Salisbury, where he held services on Sunday.
