STILL SHOOTING.

The Negro Immunes Shoot Even at Children.

Raleigh, March 8.—The tour of the Tenth Immunes through this State was marked by drunken rioting and shooting at people, houses and cattle along the railroad. During the few minutes that the train stopped here, there was drinking and disorder among the men. Several shots were fired at the ground or into the air.

All along the route their conduct was the same. A dispatch from Henderson tonight says, "The Tenth Immunes, negro troops, passed today over the Seaboard Air Line. They shot at private houses and school children. Several men were wounded. The officers of the regiment seemed to have no control over the men." Similar reports come from other points between here and Weldon.

[At Richmond the train passing with them was sent around on the bar line instead of through the city.

It's Like Other Parts of Town.

It is a pleasure to stroll about over different parts of our town and see the improvements that the carpenters are continually making. This time we refer to the improvements made on East Depot street.

Every piece of machinery is now steadily at work in the new Lippard & Shealy mill and one can hardly realize that the old field, as it were a year or two ago, is now the site of a cotton mill and ere long a number of new dwellings will be overlooking the place. The pay roll for the employes of the mill numbers about thirty at present. Already each hand has learned its part to perform and the work is turned off as nicely as Engineer Brantley Miller's Corliss engine in which he takes so much pride.

In glancing toward the Miller Park from the mill one notes the new machinery of Mr. J M Burrage, in addition to his elegant two-story residence that is being built. In front of the mill on Depot street is the site selected for Mr. J C Lippard's house, while across the street above the road leading to the roller mill is to be seen carpenters harrying to finish the residence for Mr. Brantley Miller.

Several trades for real estate are being contemplated which will tend still more to improve the eastern part of our fast-building town.

At the Roost.

Forsythe is among the counties where the legislature helped out by appointing five Democratic commissioners. This made the fusion board put up their backs and resign. The Sentinel says:

"As the Republican county commissioners could not rule the roost they decided to get off of the roost. We have no objections to offer to their exercise of this prerogative."

To Hear the British Guard Band.

A party similar to those of last summer when our boys were crossing bats went to Charlotte to hear the British Guard band. A good large number went, most of whom will return tonight. The following composed the largest party going: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hatchett, Mr. and Mrs. Brevard Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H M Barrow, and Mesdames Jno. McDowell, Luther Bost, P B Fetzer, Irvin Woodhouse, Jas. P Cook, Misses Lou Stuart, Josie Hill and Jennie Smith, and Messrs R L Keesler, Jas. Young, Ralph Cline, Archey Cannon, Ralph Odell, C W Swink and R F Coble.

The Leo Hypnotists.

This company, which is to be in the opera house here next Thursday, is the largest organization of the kind in the world.

They have appeared with great success in all the Southern cities, "standing room only" being the rule. In Raleigh, Wilmington and Charlotte, 16 performances in each city, immense crowds greeted them.

In Atlanta, Ga., fourteen consecutive performances were given to "standing room only." Mr. Lee has given private demonstrations and lectures in leading private residences, colleges and clubs in this country and Europe. Among these are the Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, Presbyterian College at Charlotte, University of Virginia, Harvard and Yale.

It is a great company and gives a great performance.

Seats on sale Monday morning at 9 o'clock at Gibson's drug store. Prices 50, 35 and 25 cents.

A Rock Thrown at Them.

It was hoped that the little excitement among the colored people Thursday night would not result in any harm in the least but it proved contrary to all hopes. We refer to the conduct of a crowd of them as they passed the home of Mr. J A C Blackwelder at Cannonville. Two young ladies were standing on the porch as they passed. One of the crowd hurled a rock at a rapid rate to the porch, missing one of the young ladies only a short distance. From the signs left on the door where it struck it can be told that the rock came with a good force. An effort will be made to find the thrower and it is hoped that justice will be meted to him.

Business Necessary and Business.

Besides voting the $110,000 in bonds to pay the profligate fusion debts on the penitentiary the legislature voted $95,000 of bonds with which to buy the farms which the State had greatly improved and on which it had options. The interest on these bonds is to be paid by the penitentiary which it can do to advantage as it only amounts to about half the rental for these same farms.

Making Up the Regular Army.

A Washington dispatch to the Asheville Gazette says that the recruiting under the regular army bill is going on at an unprecedented rate. Many of the volunteers as they are mustered out enlist in the regular army. There is said to be a pressure on the part of the new recruits to be sent to the Philippines. The new organization of the regular army will consist of 14 batteries of 120 men each; ten cavalry regiments of 13 companies, 100 men to the company, and thirty-five regiments of infantry of twelve companies each and 112 men to the company. There is beside hospital and signal corps, beside bands and commissioned staff officers. The whole army is to contain 65,000 officers and men.

A Centing Conventence.

The time is undoubtedly coming very rapidly when the isolation of the farmer will become mitigated, owing to "neighborhood telephone lines, by means of which they can communicate with each other without reference to the condition of the roads or press of work. A local paper of an inland city in New York State describes an interesting line where the subscribers constructed the line, furnishing the tools and doing the work themselves, the expense for wire, instruments, etc., was equally divided among them, and the cost was only about $14 per share. The line, of course, is free to subscribers, but others can make use of it by the payment of a small fee. At present there are ten subscribers to the line.—Scientific American.

Design for the Winnie Davis Statue Approved.

Richmond, Va., March 5.—The design of the statue to be erected in Hollywood over the grave of Miss Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," has been chosen and approved by Mrs. Davis. The design, which is by Zulvey, of New York, is the figure of a sitting angel. It is to be of Italian marble and will be erected by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The body was taken to St. Louis, Mo., where it will be placed beside the body of its mother, who died here about two years before her daughter.
