GOOD FRIDAY.

This is good Friday. It is the day of the year least suited for levity. Rather its significance suggests, if not sorrow, at least the greatest gravity, seriousness and humility. No day of all the days in recorded events like that we celebrate today. No man ever befriended the victim of human conspiracy and hate whose innocence and greatness of mission were attested by a veiling of the sun's rays for three hours. Earth never before nor since rocked and swayed in sympathetic convulsions with those of a dying man. Never before nor since did death yield its hold, amazed by the awe of transpiring events. All many of the dead escaped from its ghastly confines. Never before was the glory of the infinite made so visible to men that only they do not see who will not look up, nor was there ever before an open way into Divine presence so accessible to every one. No day before was ever fraught with events on which hangs human destiny for weal or woe, for time and eternity as that we so indifferently commemorate today or fail to note at all. Good Friday! To grasp its full meaning is as measuring eternity. Good Friday! To properly commemorate it is to usher in the millennial season. Good Friday! To enter into its true meaning would be to bring man into touch with his God as if the stars of heaven were to cluster around the king of day and on the second tomorrow shed over all space one universal, absorbing, resistless ray of light.

Good Friday! To the thoughts, leave nothing, to the devout more than earth's rarest gems, her weightiest treasures, her richest crowds.

LET THEM RESUME THEIR PLACES

Our sister, Raleigh, seems to be having some wrangling over the welcome to be given the returning soldiers. Of course when the military companies volunteered so as to disorganize the companies at home they forfeited their places as State guards and in many instances new companies were organized.

The presumption was that the new companies were organized to take the places of those gone to the front. Now that the soldiers are coming soon it is most natural that they should want to resume their places and that we will all most gladly welcome them to do so. But in Raleigh the Captain, at least, of the new organization does not take well to the idea. He seems to throw jealous glances at these "citizens."

Captain will have none of these troubles, however, and we hope Co. L will resume her place in State organization if she wants it. Indeed if the new emergency organization had not "gone dead" we feel sure the place would have been most gladly yielded to Capt. Hill's company.

We are a little surprised at the new Governor's Guard in Raleigh in not gladly yielding the place.

The Sure LaGrippe Cure.

There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at P. B. Fetzer's drug store, only 50 cents per bottle.

Some Requisites for a Mayor.

In an exchange we see some writer puts forth the following good requisites to be considered in selecting a mayor:

1. A man who has given evidence of his capabilities as to business, in the management of his own private affairs.
2. A man who can comprehend, construe, and has the courage to enforce law.
3. A man whom every citizen could respect for his high character and ability, and with pride refer to, or point out as the mayor of his city.
4. A man sufficiently cultured and intellectual as to be able to receive, welcome and introduce distinguished visitors when occasion demands, in a manner to reflect credit upon himself and the city he represents.
5. A man who would measure up, in every respect, to the standard adopted by neighboring cities and towns in choosing their chief magistrate.
6. A man who, in serving his people would look beyond the salary attached to the office.

CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

A. R. De Fluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at time was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co.

Probably to Put in a Sidetrack.

Some time ago the Southern agitated the putting in of a sidetrack between here and Harrisburg. Mr. Jas. W. Cannon, for the convenience of shipments to and from the Bala cotton mill, asked that they put it in somewhere about the farm of Mr. Linn Ervin. Nothing definite is yet known.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts.—M. L. Marsh & Co.

Fatalities Not So Great.

The good news now comes that the Rowena Lee did not explode as dispatched Thursday, and that it only sank from striking some unknown object in the Mississippi. Two, or possibly five lives were lost, but the rest were all saved.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Never fails to cure; then why experiment with worthless imitations? Price 50 cents. Your money back if it fails to cure.

FORGIVENESS.

Forgive you? Oh, of course, dear, A dozen times a week. We women were created Forgiveness but to speak.

You'd die before you'd hurt me Intentionally? True, But it is not, O dearest, The thing you mean to do.

It's what you do, unthinking. That makes the quick tear start; The tear may be forgotten, But the pain stays in the heart.

And though I may forgive you A dozen times a day, Yet each forgiveness wears, dear, A little love away. —Selected.

MALLOS FALLS.

Enemies Burn the City and Retreat.

Malolos the capitol of the Aguinaldo government, fell after a short, sharp resistance this (Friday) morning. The enemy fired the city and retreated northward, where Aguinaldo and his cabinet have been for several days.

The American losses on Thursday as reported were four killed and twenty-three wounded. On Friday the casualties reported are 20. This is according to press dispatches given by the government at 1:30 o'clock a. m., of the 31st. It is to be remembered that reckoning the Philippines as being east of us, the time is 13 hours earlier than our time.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed." —Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

After using Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh.—Joseph Stewart, Grand Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

A 10c. trial size of Ely's Cream Balm will be mailed. Kept by druggists. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Attention Knights!

You are requested to be present at Castle Hall tonight at 8 o'clock sharp.

Besides having a candidate for each of the ranks of Page and Knight, we have a most important matter to develop in "which every Pythian has a part."

R. L. McConnell, C. C.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Mearke, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co.
