A good spring diet is turnip salad hog-jowl and cracklin bread, but the best spring medicine is Hall's Sarsaparilla, that's the medicine that makes good rich red blood! Try it. For sale at Fetzer's drug store.

"The flowers that bloom in spring" are beautiful and the peets who abound in spring deserve to be slaughtered with the "deadly weapon" wielded by Samson against the Phillistines, but the Tonic that should be used in the spring demands our careful consideration. Hall's Sarsaparilla heads the list and is the "best of all"—purifies the blood, renovates and builds up the system to a condition of strong, robust health. "The life of the flesh is the blood." To combat the enervating influence of the summer's heat, ward off fevers, counteract the deadly influence of malaria Hall's Sarsaparilla is the remedy "par excellence." For sale at Fetzer's drug store.

For towels, table linen and sheeting go to The Racket. a14
