MRS. H. L. PARKS DEAD.

A Thoroughly Enjoyable Performance.
Died in the Hospital at Charlotte Monday from the Effects of Surgical Operation--The Remains Taken to Gaffney.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. H. L. Parks reached this place late Monday afternoon, she having died about 6 o'clock in Charlotte, to which place she went a week or more ago for the purpose of having an operation performed. The operation was performed on Friday but on Sunday morning she began to sink gradually.

Mrs. Parks, formerly Miss Alice Thompson, of Gaffney, S. C., was married to Mr. H. L. Parks about three years ago. Mrs. Parks had lived here only about six months but during that time she had made loving friends and her death was a shock to all of them. The shock falls most heavily on the husband who is robbed of his loved one and the one to whom he showed his most devoted affections. He was at her bedside when she breathed her last.

The remains were taken to Gaffney today (Tuesday) for burial.

The Members of the Chorus Next Saturday Night.

The manager of the reception gives us the following names that will constitute the chorus next Saturday night at the court house when our soldier boys return home. This is the only notice that will be given and it is earnestly requested that all will serve. The persons whose names appear below are requested to meet Thursday night at the home of Mr. W. A. Smith with Mr. H. M. Barrow to practice the different songs. Following are the names: Misses Georgia Brown, Mollie Dry, Cora Cochran, Neally Russell, Susie Mabrey, Hallie Earnhardt, Maggie Clayton, Lilly Cook, Laura Stone, Ida McInnis, Lizzie Howell, Lida Smith, Julia Gray, Maude Brown, Lizzie Montgomery, Louise Means, Josie Hill, Jennie Gibson, Patti Adams, Cleste Boykin, Ruth Caldwell, Gertrude Caldwell, Lucy Lore, Bessie Sims, Mattie Cook, Rose Harris, Mary Lewis Harris, Ada Crayen, Lou Stuart, Julia Barrow, Nannie Alexander, Addie Patterson, Lelia King, Kate Morrison, Katherine Goodson, Mary Ella Cannon, Cassie Watson, Belle Means, Mrs. Gowan Dusenbury, Mrs. J. F. Yorke, Mrs. H. I. Woodhouse.

They've Gone After the Negro.

Sheriff Clyburne, of Lancaster county, S. C., arrived here last night to get a negro who is wanted in that county for the stealing and selling of two cows. He has gone to a mine near Gold Hill in this county to get the negro and will very probably return with him late this afternoon.

The last of the Star Course entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. building last night proved to be one of the most thoroughly enjoyable of the season. Mr. Alba Heywood, impersonator, vocalist and humorist, with Mr. Harold DeBray, basso, Miss Flora Drescher, violiniste, and Miss Elsie Reimer, pianiste, entertained a very large audience for several hours.

The programme was long and varied, and the frequent opportunities given Mr. Heywood were all the more appreciated by the audience after his first appearance. He is certainly an entertainer whose equal it would be hard to find. Beginning with Will Carlton's "The Law Suit" he went from grave to gay and from the ridiculous to the pathetic, carrying his hearers with him and making them feel his moods. The parody on "The Raven" was highly amusing, and the old man's stories, "Kingry's Mill," "The Dear Old Country Band" and others, were as natural and sweet as a clover field on a June day.

Miss Drescher gave some very pleasing selections on her violin, and showed a complete mastery of that favorite instrument. While possible lacking the fire and enthusiasm sometimes found in artists, she nevertheless evidenced great precision, and her music was no doubt technically perfect. Mr. DeBray has a mellow basso voice and sings easily and gracefully. His selections were well made and his songs received hearty applause. Miss Reimer is an accomplished pianiste and gave several brilliant numbers among them being the "Faust Fantasie," Liszt. Miss Reimer also played all of the accompaniments.—Charleston News and Courier.

Call for Democratic Primaries.

All voters in the town of Concord who supported the Democratic State and County ticket in the last election are hereby invited to attend primary meeting at the polling places in their respective wards on Tuesday night April 25th at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic ticket for our municipal election the first Tuesday in May. Let these primaries choose delegates to meet in convention at the court house on the following Thursday night.

SMALLPOX IN CHARLOTTE.

Mr. Sossamon Has a Genuine Case in the Home of 13 People.

Charlotte again has a case of smallpox. Mr. W. A. Sossamon, a traveling salesman, has developed a case. He came to Charlotte Saturday night a week ago and stopped as usual at the home of Mr. D. F. Dixon. He became unwell and thought he was taking grip, but it proved to be nothing short of a genuine case of smallpox.

He will be placed in the pest house as soon as it is finished.

There are 13 inmates of the Dixon house, and while not suspecting the disease of course there was exposure, but being in the early stage little fear is felt. The proper quarantine and sanitary regulations are being observed.

There is little alarm felt over the matter.

Mr. Sam Caldwell Dies Suddenly.

Mr. Sam Caldwell, who lives near Newells, was found dead in his yard Monday. His death was a shock to his family and the people thereabout. He was related to the persons here of that name. He was a step-son of Mrs. Sarah Caldwell, who died at this place some months ago, and was also closely related to Mr. Caldwell Query, of Cannonville.

Attention Veterans!

It is earnestly requested that all members of Camp No. 212 Confederate veterans assemble at the Firemen's Hall on next Saturday night, April 22nd, at 7 o'clock for the purpose of escorting the members of Company L from the depot to the court house and from there to supper.

Ample quarters will be provided for the veterans and a fine supper is in store for you.

D. A. Caldwell,
Commander.

Dr. Tracy's Lectures.

Dr. Tracy's lectures are absorbing the interest of the citizens of Concord as nothing else has for a long while. Many must turn away for want of room and those who get a place come early to be in it again.

The subject for tonight is, "The Relation of the Young Woman to the Drink Curse."

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.

SHORT LOCALS.

Mrs. Jones, of Greensboro, has arrived here to visit her sister, Mrs. Eugene Sloan.

As the Roanoke baseball team is playing several games in the State this week, the family expect "Billy" Weddington at home Sunday, though it is not a certainty.

We notice in the Atlanta Journal that Mr. Brevard Montgomery, of Gadsden, Ala., son of Mr. Chas. G. Montgomery, will be married on the 28th of this month to Miss Ada Pope, of that place. The wedding will be a church ceremonial, solemnized at twilight.

A quantity of whiskey, together with the worm, kettle, etc., which was seized some months ago by revenue officers down in No. 9 township, has been shipped to Salisbury to Deputy Collector Mills. Since the seizure it has been deposited in the basement of the Patterson store.

Wonder If He Saw This.

He was immured in the darkest dungeon beneath the castle moat. "If I had a saw, a file, or anything," he moaned as he looked at the solid iron bars across the solitary window. Then a thought struck him, his face brightened like a Cripple Creek conflagration. Rapidly running over his supply of collars, which had just come from the laundry, he selected one fitted to his purpose. Five minutes later the great middle bar of the window, dextrously severed by the saw like edge of the laundered collar, fell apart.

He was free.

If he had had his collars laundered at the Concord Laundry he would be in jail yet.

We have a device for ironing the edge of collars and cuffs and return them to you with a perfectly smooth edge, try us.
