REPRESENTATIVES SENT

To Charleston to attend the Reunion
—The Band Takes a Town—Visiting Friends.

Written for The Standard.

Mt. Pleasant, May 10.—Capt. Cook and Mr. William Fisher went to Charleston to attend the old soldier's reunion.

Mr. Cone Sechler and Miss Lodemia Sechler, of China Grove, spent Saturday night here.

Mr. Paul Betts, of Albemarle, accompanied by Miss Lenna Stevens, who had been visiting at that place spent a few hours in Mt. Pleasant Sunday on their way to Bost Mills, Miss Stevens' home.

Messrs. J Smith and Cephus Litaker, of the college, went to Charleston to see the place and the old soldiers, I suppose. This is the former's home.

Prof. M G G Scherer, president of North Carolina college, returned home from Synod, Monday evening.

The Mt. Pleasant cornet band will leave Thursday for Unionville to furnish music for the closing exercises of a school at that place.

Mr. Ed Fulenwider, of the Senior class of the college, left Saturday morning for his home in Monroe to spend a week or more.

Mrs. Rev. Clapp, of Statesville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Miller, of the Seminary.

The good people of Mt. Pleasant and neighborhood feel very much offended, and justly so, over the remarks that some of the ministers made during the discussion of the college question at Synod.

They Play at Mt. Pleasant Friday Night.

The "Little Rebel," which was last week played in Salisbury by our home talent and which gained many compliments from the people when played here, will be rendered in the hall of Mont Amœna Friday night, the proceeds to be given to the seminary. The admission fee will be 25 cents. A number of our people contemplate accompanying the players. No doubt Mt. Pleasant will give them a good house.

The Watsons and Their Legs.

The Watsons have a remarkable "knack" of breaking their legs. George has had his leg broken 18 times, his oldest son four times and his youngest son once.—Blue Ridge Southern World.

That's nothing; we have a family of Tuckers in Cabarrus who have had loaded wagons, bovines and other loaded bodies to run over them and they still live.

She Was Compensated for It.

Some days ago a young lady of our town contributed a short article of a joking nature to the periodical "Life," intending it as a contribution only. But the piece pleased the publishers, and it was accepted. She was compensated by a check of five dollars. This is an honor to her, as numbers of articles contributed never receive recognition.

His many Concord friends will be pleased to hear of the very pleasant trip of Rev. W G Campbell, of Newport News, Va., to the Island of Jamaica.

His First Arrest.

Policeman Goldston broke the ice, Tuesday night, having made his first arrest at the depot. He "hooked" a negro for beating his way on the train. The negro was tried and his fines and costs will keep him on the chain gang for thirty days.

Several other train beaters were on the same train but dodged the officer.

AN EPIDEMIC OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John L Clifford, Proprietor Norwood House, Norwood N. Y. This remedy is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co.

Was On Its Roost.

We learn that on last Saturday a small chicken got out of the coop in the depot and ran under the train flying up on the trucks. This train went to Mr. Airy and then to Wilmington. The train porter says he caught it in Wilmington next day. This is a riding chick, sure enough.—Liberty Register.

THEY WERE ROBBED.

Three of Our Old Veterans Have Their Pockets Picked—The Rascals Detected but Made Their Escape.

From a letter to his wife from Mr. Ed. Hall we learn that the pick-pockets got in their work on our old veterans between Charlotte and Columbia.

Sheriff Peck, and Messrs. Charles F Walter and Daniel Stiller were the losers. An attempt was made to rob Mr. George E Ritchie also but the rascal was caught in the attempt. As is almost always the case though, the fellow was seen but the next minute he was some distance away in the crowd. Nothing more is known of the affair at present.
