MRS. JNO. C. YOUNG DEAD.

Falls Asleep After Two Week's Illness at the Age of Seventy-Five Years.

Mrs. John C Young died at 11 o'clock Saturday night after a severe illness of two weeks.

Her death has been expected at any time for about a week.

Mrs. Young had attained the good ripe age of 75 years.

Her maiden name was Miss Rosa Martin. She was born and reared in the Poplar Tent neighborhood and has been a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian church for 46 years.

Mrs. Young has been a widow for seven years. She has made her home during the time with her son Robert. Messrs. Robert and John Young are the only surviving members of her family.

The remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery, Sunday evening. The funeral rites were conducted by Rev. J D Arnold.

Winston Wants the College.

The Western Sentinel has the following:

The "North Carolina College is to be moved from Mt. Pleasant. The place to locate it is Winston-Salem. The city would prove an advantage to the college and the college an advantage to the city. No extended argument is required to establish both these facts. There is a possibility, if not a probability, that Winston-Salem can secure the college. This information should be sufficient to stir our people to active efforts to add this desirable educational institution to the city's extensive facilities along this line. We would suggest that the proper committee of the Chamber of Commerce take up the matter and ascertain what may be required in order that we may secure the college.

A Large Crowd Present.

An unusually large crowd of people attended the funeral of Mr. Wm. Johnson at Forest Hill Sunday. The Junior Order and the Odd Fellows attended in a body and paid their last tribute to their fallen brother. The funeral was preached by Rev. J D Arnold, of Forest Hill Methodist church. The church could not hold the many friends who wished to attend.

A COMPLETE SURPRISE.

The Pupils of the Concord High School Entertain Their Much Admired Teacher--A Token of Remembrance.

On Saturday evening at 9 o'clock the ushers and managers, who had officiated in the decoration of the court room, and at the closing exercises of the High School entertained their teacher, Mr. Holland Thompson, at the St. Cloud Hotel. It had been carefully planned without his knowledge and it was a complete surprise to him, when he entered the parlor, as he thought by accident, to find himself greeted as the guest of honor by a bright looking party of the girls and boys with whom he had the day before, sorrowfully, for them and for him, severed the close relation of teacher and pupil. As a little token of the affection and confidence he has won from them, by faithful and loving care and instruction, they presented to him a paper knife, hoping that from its natural connection with books it would often remind him of the Concord High School. For once Mr. Thompson's gift of speech failed him and it was with difficulty he could command his voice to acknowledge with fitting words this little tribute of esteem. The graduating class and Mr. J D Lentz were invited guests. Refreshments were served and the evening seemed one of unalloyed pleasure to all.

Attend to This Matter.

The following paragraph in regard to our health taken from the Oxford Ledger is equally as applicable to Concord:

"Now that warm weather is at hand it is important that sanitation be looked after. All premises should be given a thorough cleaning in the spring time before the hot weather of summer comes, and lime used freely. It is always better to attend to these matters in time. It prevents sickness and disease. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Clean up your premises and back lots, so that when the sanitary officer calls to inspect your premises, he may find them in good condition."

One Year Ago it Was.

On the evening of the 29th of May, one year ago, the home of Mr. Samuel J Hartsell, who lives a few miles from here, was made most sad by the horrible death of their thirteen-year-old daughter, who met that horrible fate by the hands of two villains who on that night were taken from our jail and hanged by their necks until they were dead. May such a 29th ne'er again come to the eyes of our people as this was.

A KIDNAPPING IN N. Y.

A 20-Months-Old Baby Stolen by a Nurse--Threats Against Its Life.

New York City has a genuine case of kidnapping again. The 20-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W Clark was kidnapped by its newly hired nurse Sunday. She had taken it to Central Park in its buggy and from there had stolen it away leaving the buggy. A note received said it was safe but that it would not be returned alive if its loss was made public. The distress of its parents needs no efforts to depict and much excitement prevails. As yet no ransom is demanded, though that is doubtless the object.

JOY OVER THE TROPHY.

The Reina Mercedes Arrives at Norfolk.

There was a noisy demonstration at Norfolk Saturday, the 27th, when the Reina Mercedes was towed into port. Cannon boomed, whistles screamed, cheers rent the air and flags waved in token of joy at this one Spanish vessel saved from the Santiago wreck. The vessel shows signs of the rough treatment she got from the American guns as she attempted to fill the channel that Hobson failed to block.
