STIEFF PIANOS

"SING THEIR OWN PRAISE."

For 57 years my policy has been to make the finest PIANO possible to produce, but in order to keep up this policy and meet competition I have been compelled to open my own warerooms and sell direct from the factory, which enables the Piano-purchasing public to secure a PIANO that has no superior, at the very price you are obliged to pay the retail dealer for a medium-grade, or, more likely, a cheap Piano.

Write for Catalogue, prices and terms. Fine Tuning. Phone 196.

 C. H. WILMOTH, Manager.

Billy Weddington will be home from Roanoke the 17th.

Mr. H W Woodard of Sumter, S. C., arrived here Wednesday.

Chief Harris is on his beat again this morning, after being sick for several days.

Mrs. Roiey Harris and daughter are visiting at the home of Mr. Tinsley Bost in the country.

Dr. D D Johnson has gone to Connelly Springs to spend a while on account of his bad health.

The drama, "Our Boys," has been laid on the shelf for a while on account of the absence of some of the performers.

Mr. C B Morris and family, of Cannonville, have moved from this place to Norwood. Here is a family Concord reluctantly gives up.

Esq. N M Phillips has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. C B Morris. Mr. Phillips has been sick for several days.

Miss Hattie Cook has returned home from Lexington, Va., where she has been employed as a milliner for some months.

Mr. G W Ould's stock of samples has been bought by Swink & White, of this place, and by reading their new five-inch ad. you'll find some articles you may need.

Mr. Jno. Caldwell, who for quite a long while has attended to the carrying of the mail to and from the depot, has given notice to Postmaster Patterson that he will discontinue this service after the 18th of this month.

Miss Bradford, who for a short while has been teaching at Sunderland hall, in place of Miss Welsh who left on account of sickness, has returned to Charlotte. The other teachers will remain in the building for a short while yet.

Miss Nannie M Donald, of Charlotte, is visiting at Mr. P B Fetzer's.

Miss Dena Query has returned to her home in Mecklenburg, after visiting Mrs. M C Query.

Mrs. Ann Fink is having a house built in the alley running between Messrs. Castor and C R White.

An ice cream parlor is needed in this place, and hence read Stone & Burke's new ad. in today's issue.

Miss Dora Bost, who has been in the millinery department at Dayvault's for some months, has returned to her home in Rowan county to spend a month or more.

The Cabarrus Black Boys Organized.

Pursuant to the call of Capt. Edward Hill a meeting was held in the court house Wednesday night and a military company organized at this place. A good number were present and twenty five names were enrolled that night and numbers, who could not attend, will enlist. The officers elected are the officers of the past organization—Company L—Mr. Edward Hill, captain; Eli Goldston, first lieutenant; Jos. F Goodman, second lieutenant. The non-commissioned officers have not yet been appointed.

This company will be a part of the First regiment, and will rank first.

To Wed Before Returning.

Our townsman, Mr. John Craven, left Wednesday night for Union Springs, Ala., where he will spend a week with his parents. Mr. Craven before returning will be married to Miss Franklin, of that place. The affair will take place in the afternoon of Wednesday, the 14th, and the couple will at once board the train for this place. They will board at Mrs. Esther Gibson's.

Another Case of Kidnapping.

Hartford, Conn., has a kidnapping sensation that promises to rival the Marion Clarke affair. Annie, the five-year-old daughter of ex-Congressman Eschholz disappeared from a picnic near New Britain recently. No trace has yet been found of the unfortunate child and kidnapping is now the only theory.

Note of Thanks.

MR. EDITOR:—Since being discharged from the Sanitarium, we wish through the columns of your paper to tender our sincere and heart-felt thanks to our kind friends and neighbors, everywhere, for their wonderful kindness to our self all through his recent misfortune and affliction.

Sincerely,
 Mr. and Mrs. R. Will Johnson.

It Is the Other Man.

In giving the names of the advisory board of pensions appointed by the county commissioners at this month's meeting, there is an error as to one of the men. It should be Mr. G Crawford Goodman, of No. 5 township, and not Mr. G C Goodman of No. 3 township.

Play Ball Boys!

Our boys are getting ready for the baseball season and the lovers of this sport can begin to prepare their lungs for their part of the work, for our boys like and of right expect a good amount of cheer from us, and they can bet we'll give it.

Mr. Ernest Graves, of Chapel Hill, arrived Wednesday night and will don the red and blue with our boys for the season. He is not, as our misinformant would have us believe, a pitcher but a catcher. He is stopping with Joe Fisher.

Mr. Doiph Mangum, who is known here already, came Wednesday night also and will, as heretofore, furnish good support to the boys wherever they place him. He will pitch a good part of the time. He is the guest of R L Keesler.
