It is almost as strange as it is distressing that the missing banker of Athens, Ga., Mr. Benedict, can not be traced and there is now little hope of ever finding him alive. The fair presumption is that he became demented and may even have destroyed himself.

WONDERFUL are the cures Hood's Sarsaparilla, and yet the are simple and natural. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes PURE BLOOD.

A PLUCKY WOMAN.

She Shoots Her Assailant.

A dispatch from Columbus, Ga., says an unknown negro made an attempt on Sunday to assault Mrs. David Ward, who lives three miles west of Girard. Mrs. Ward defended herself with a pistol and sent two bullets after the frightened wretch. While a posse was scouring the woods to find the negro, leaving Mrs. Ward alone, her husband joining in the chase, the same negro, with remarkable nerve, entered the Ward home again and made the second attempt at assault. This time he tore the clothes from Mrs. Ward, but she managed to secure her pistol and shot the negro four times. Mrs. Ward says she saw the negro fall several times while running from the house. Bloodhounds from Opelika have been telegraphed for. If not already dead from the wounds it is expected the negro will be lynched.

Three sons of a Mr. S. B. Latham, of Camden, S. C., got into a difficulty among each other Monday evening at their father's livery stable and engaged in a fusillade of pistol shooting. One of the three, J. H. Latham, is probably fatally shot.
