They Meet Here Next Week.

Beginning on Friday night, the 30th, the Woman's Missionary Society of the Western North Carolina Conference will meet here and continue over Sunday.

This conference means that quite a good number of people will pay Concord a visit from the different parts of Western North Carolina. Of this meeting the Charlotte News has this to say:

"From present indications this meeting will be more largely attended than any previous one. Special rates have been secured on all railroads and these rates can be obtained from any local agent. Concord will open wide her doors to receive her guests. Her hospitality knows no bounds and the delegates who attend this meeting will be thoroughly impressed with this. Already ninety names have been sent in stating that they will attend."

The Cheraw Boys Here.

This afternoon the Concord boys and the Cheraw team are crossing bats. A game will also be played tomorrow evening.

The Palmetto boys arrived this morning and are in good-looking trim for a heavy game. They are a nice, sociable looking set of young men and our boys will see that they enjoy themselves in the hands of Concord people. Mr. J W Malloy is captain of the team, Mr. Edward McIver manager, and their president, Mr. W P Polluck, also accompanied them. To add to the "rooting" force Messrs. R C Finlayson, H G Cauthen and G T Bullard came along with the boys.

The following is the line-up of the visiting team: Hudgens c, Hall p, E Malloy 1b, Powell 2b, Saunders 3b, Evans ss, H A Finlayson lf, G W Duvall rf, J W Malloy cf. Subs, Tomlinson and B Finlayson.

Little Jinks Finlayson, in full baseball uniform, with the name of his team prominent, acts as their mascot, and he's a good one, too.

Arrested But Not Guilty.

Two young men are wanted in Burlington on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Chief of Police Harris had received a telegram to look out for two young men on wheels. Their description was also given. Tuesday afternoon two young men who answered the description struck town on wheels. Mr. Harris found that they were strangers here and from the description thought it best to hold them. He then notified the chief of police of Burlington, who wired back at once to hold them until Tuesday night when he would be here to identify them. The officer came and viewed the young men, but they were not the persons wanted. These young men are from Danville and had come here after work in the cotton mills. They were released that night.

When all of the seats of the five cars are engaged by the sale of the 280 tickets, positively, not another ticket will be sold, as a select crowd is desired. The excursion is planned to secure a first class party, and to derive as much pleasure from it as traveling on a regular train.

I have been to Asheville and have secured special favors from the livery stables and hotels. The beautiful Oaks hotel has given our party a rate of $1.25 per day. Board may be had cheaper at the boarding houses. A card will be issued on the train giving addresses of the boarding houses, hotels and livery stables which give our party favors. Every arrangement has been made to make the excursion the most pleasant one possible. If you miss it, you miss an opportunity that seldom comes.

You are invited at once to secure your ticket for this select excursion. You help a good cause by so doing. You can not take advantage of this excursion after all the tickets have been sold. Therefore, secure at once your ticket. Respectfully,

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times the Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G H Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by M L Marsh & Co., druggist.
