The Man for the Emergency.

If for nothing else, the people of this country and of this continent will hold Grover Cleveland in grateful remembrance for all time because of his memorable message upon the Venezuela dispute. He was the right man in the right place, and said exactly the right thing. It was the crucial test of the Monroe doctrine, and when England got notice that the United States would not stand by and see Venezuela robbed it was a notice to all the rest of the world. It was a terrible trial to our English friends and their sympathizers. John Bull was to gore us terribly, but he did not do it, and now the arbitration refused so haughtily by Lord Salisbury is in progress, and the ancient dispute as to the boundary between British Guiana and Venezuela is in a fair way of settlement by peaceful means. All honor to Grover Cleveland, whose manly message forever precluded the possibility of the partitioning of South America between the nations of Europe.—Boston Transcript.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts.—M L Marsh & Co.

Terror to Rattlesnakes.

A correspondent of the Asheville Citizen writes: "In a recent issue of your paper there was a story concerning Prof Yost's snakes. There is a man on Bee Tree who is some snake killer, too. He killed four large rattlesnakes last Tuesday, and it was not a good day for snakes, either. His name is Alex. Shope. He has killed over 200 rattlesnakes in his life, and he is not over 30 years old. If anybody can beat that we would like to hear from them."

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times the Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G H Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa.
