HIS SIXTIETH BIRTHDAY.

He Comes from Alabama Here to Celebrate It—Stopped in the Same Building He Did Three Score Years Ago.

On the 14th day of July, 1839, sixty years ago, there was born in Concord a child, who on that day this year celebrated his passing of the sixtieth mile post in his journey of life. He was born in the Harris house, which house was run by Mr. Kiah P. Harris, who was the father of our townsman, Mr. R. S. Harris. In the sixty years which have passed by the building has gone through many changes as to proprietorship but the man found the same building and where he first slept he last slept.

When a young man he left Cabarrus and went to Anniston, Ala., where he has accumulated wealth sufficient to keep him most comfortably the balance of his days and have an estate left to his wife and two children.

He was a blacksmith by trade, and this is the way he made his surplus amount, though now he lives on a farm where he has everything he wants and is a bird-hunter in about four or five different counties. He is a most typically happy man and says that he wants nothing more than he has.

The man's name is Mr. Wm. J. Edmondson, and he arrived here Thursday night from Anniston, Ala., for the purpose of celebrating his birthday on Friday. He has some relatives near Mooresville and knows a few people in the county. He most happily surprised a lady of our town whom he knew when a young man. The joy of seeing him caused tears to flow which for some time could not be suppressed. The person was Miss Clarissa Raimor, who lives at Forest Hill.

Mr. Edmondson brought with him a fine cantaloupe from his own patch in Alabama and added this to his birthday meal, which he took in the building now called the Morris house, and which in the days of his birth was known as the Harris house.

Capt. Hill Receives An Appointment.

On Monday, the 10th, Capt. Edward Hill, of this place, went to Washington City on a business trip. Ever since Capt. Hill returned home from the army recently he has been desiring to return to the army service which was found to add quite much to his health. On Friday afternoon a telegram came from Washington stating that he had received an appointment as first lieutenant in the provisional regular army for the Philippine war.

Mr. Hill is to be congratulated on securing his appointment, which was no doubt granted him on account of his popularity and ability while in service as captain of Company L in the First North Carolina regiment. The dispatch did not state to what regiment he would be assigned.

They Were Too Rough, Entirely.

It was a splendid battle that was fought Friday afternoon between Charlotte's "Rough Riders," and our "Wheeler's Cavalry." The Riders were found to be not rough, but tender—too tender to hit and catch balls like the cavalymen, who could mount and dismount most easily. They mounted upon the Riders and gave them a defeat of 7 to 1. Neither side scored until the sixth inning. Tom Smith knocked a three-bagger. Our team made three runs in the sixth inning, one in the seventh, and three in the ninth. Charlotte's only run was made by Emmitt Gray in the ninth inning. Lloyd Withers, of the Charlotte team, did some nice fielding during the game, but several of the team were found wanting when it comes to playing ball.

Relief For a Child Widow.

The Young Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church held its session for this month on Monday, July 9th. At this meeting the society resolved, in addition to contributing to the foreign mission fund of the Southern Presbyterian church, to assume the support and education of a child widow in the Home for child widows at Kedbaum, India. This Home was founded by a converted Hindu woman, Pundita Bamabar, for the protection and education of the child widows of India, thousands of whom are not more than four (4) years of age. Their pitiable condition touches the heart of every Christian woman, and the Young Ladies' Society deserves commendation and substantial encouragement in their labor of love. NO WEAR AND TEAR!

Is the laundry hard on your goods? Some are. Examine your goods as carefully when you send them to us as when you receive them back again and you will find that we sew up many a rip, mend many a button hole, put new neck bands on shirts not too badly worn (when requested), and in many ways try to prolong the use of your linen. One trial is not a test. Often damage has been done in previous laundering and we get the blame. Give us your steady patronage and we will guarantee your linen to last longer than when done at many other laundries.

A Better Score the Second Day.

On Thursday the Kings Mountain team defeated our boys considerably, but on Friday our boys stuck to them to the last and met defeat only by one run, the score being 6 to 5 against us. Probably we will yet make that back on them next Tuesday and Wednesday, when they come here.

Our boys will play today to a good large crowd, of course, in Charlotte.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first that it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., druggist.
