COMPLETELY SHUT OUT.

Charlotte Now at Rest After Meeting Her Fate Again Friday—She Tried Her Best But Never Did Get to Home Base—The Closest Game on the Charlotte Diamond This Season.

Last year nothing pleased our people more and no game excited our interest as when we went up against Mountain Island, but this season it has turned and Charlotte gets the interest and enthusiasm—but that's all they do get. Completely shut out was Charlotte in the game Friday, the score resulting in a score of 2 to 0.

But one thing must be said for Charlotte—her boys certainly did play ball well, if they hadn't it would have been worse for them. This was undoubtedly the finest game of ball Latta park has had this season and one of the best in this part of the State.

The Charlotte Observer gives Concord the following:

"Poor base running and three costly errors lost the game. It was a battle of Titans, and Concord may well feel proud of having proved the stronger.

"Concord can everlastingly run bases. Her pitcher—Lattimer—was her long suit Friday. He is a son of the late Dr. Lattimer, of Davidson College, and was a member of the Atlantic League. The management wanted him to pitch against the Cuban Giants, but he refused to play with negroes and retired from the league. Mr. Lattimer is teaching school near Boston, but he was born a Southerner, and a Southerner in mind and heart he will be until he dies.

"Regrets," as the score card called Rogers, stepped up first for Concord, and he knocked a beautiful two-bagger. An error of Hunter's gave him the chance of kissing the home plate, which he did amidst the plaudits by mouth, feet and hands of the large number of rooters in the grand stand. Mangum followed him, but got no further than second base, his successors LeGrande, Reed and Graves, going out. While Concord made two runs and Charlotte none, she had only two men left on bases to Charlotte's four—Mangum in the first and Card in the sixth. "So you see" the game was no pudden, no lead-pipe cinch, after all. Concord's second run was scored in the seventh by Reed. He hit safe to first, went to second by a fumble of centre fielder and scored on a deep fly of Caldwell's—a fly too deep for the fielder to handle in time to prevent the runner scoring.

"Charlotte did well, but Concord did better. She deserves all praise for capturing such a trophy as Friday's game, and Charlotte accords it to her cheerfully and gladly."

The score was as follows:

BURNED TO THE GROUND.

In the Silent Hours of Night Mr. Abner Misenheimer Awakes and Finds His House on Fire—Everything Lost—No Insurance.

A heavy financial loss rests upon Mr. Abner Misenheimer, who lives on the Concord and Gold Hill road about three miles from here in No. 5 township.

On Friday night between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, Mr. Misenheimer awoke and saw smoke coming from the kitchen. The alarm was quickly given and an effort made to save the main part of the building by letting the kitchen fall from its pillows but too late and the entire building with the adjoining kitchen was entirely consumed. A few things of scarcely any value were saved. All of the furniture, clothing, etc. was consumed belonging to Mr. Misenheimer and wife and their son-in-law, Mr. Scott, and wife.

There was no insurance on the buildings. The well house also was burned.

Thus being deprived of a home and even wearing apparel, these people are deserving of sympathy and pity.

Some Thoughts Rarely Noticed.

Thinking that there was space probably on some galley yet for a thought or two, even if not a fresh news item, the following came to my mind and was dotted down for space in your printer's stick or devil's waste basket:

Some time ago I was complimenting our friend, Mr. Geo. C. Goodman, on his fine shade tree in front of his residence in No. 2 township. He took the compliment in a very indifferent way and then made the remark: "Yes, that's a fine shade tree but it hurts my farm within a radius of half of a mile." Knowing that such a statement could not apply as to shade neither could its roots absorb the moisture of the earth for such a distance, I asked that he explain himself. His answer implied that he spent many half hours there when he should have been at work.

Another thought from in these parts came to me some days ago. We have in our township an old lady who last February passed her eighty-fifth mile post on her road through life and enjoys fairly good health. She is the last one of thirteen children and she was a twin. The person is Mrs. Jas. A. Sims, who is the mother of your townsman, Jno. A. Sims and J. M. Sims, of Charlotte. VISITOR.

Congratulations Due Them.

Mr. Jas. Northey, of the Bell Telephone Co. in Charlotte won admiration for himself by Concord's people Friday by putting a telephone on the grand stand at the Latta park in Charlotte and giving us the game gratuitously as fast as a man took up his bat, even giving the strikes, balls, fouls, etc. The bulletins were placed across the street from the hotel and as one said it beat sitting in the hot sun at Charlotte. In less than a minute after, we knew the fate of each player as he went out or scored.

Hot Games They'll Be.

We were expected to play some fine ball yesterday to compete against Charlotte's team, and we fared well, but we are expecting still more work Monday and Tuesday when our boys will again be in Charlotte wrestling with the Tarboro boys. On Thursday and Friday the Tarboro boys come here and play us.

AN INHERITANCE.

An Estate Left By Mr. Jas. F. Smith at Reading, Pa., Whereby the Children of the Deceased Daughter Inherit Several Hundred Dollars.

In January, 1898, Mr. Jas. F. Smith, of Reading, Pa., who was then a consulting civil engineer, died, leaving a considerable estate to be divided amongst his seven children—four sons and three daughters. Mrs. Columbus White, deceased, who was the mother of Robt. White, of this place, C. A. White, of Columbia, S. C., Miss Carrie White, of Spartanburg, S. C., J. E. White, of Indian Territory, and Miss Lula White, deceased, who married Mr. Corum Correll, of Spartanburg was one of the daughters.

About one-seventh will be divided equally among the five children, Master Harold Correll, of Spartanburg, being the fifth heir. Each one of these five heirs will receive over $200.

While the money has not yet been paid it is now a certainty, we are informed, and it is only a matter of signing the necessary papers. Mr. Robt. Smith, of Wilmington, is also a son of the late Jas. F. Smith.

Noah Foard in Trouble.

Some time ago Noah Ford, a negro, was arrested for carrying a pistol and he also threatened the life of Mr. Jno. Johnson. The negro made his escape from Mr. Vic Caldwell but eyes were laid on the negro at Matthews and Friday Mr. Caldwell succeeded in landing the negro in the county hotel. He was tried before Esq. Pitts and in default of a $50 bond he now lies in jail awaiting the October term of court.

CONCORD, N. C., July 29, '99. MR. JOHN A. SIMS, Agent Aetna (Accident) Insurance Company.

DEAR SIR:—On June 21st I applied to you for an Accident Policy of $2,000 with $10 weekly indemnity. On the following Tuesday I received an injury of the eye that disabled me for one week.

On Monday, July 24th, my claim was forwarded by you to the home office, and on July 29th I received from your hands a check for $10, payment in full of claim.

Thanks to you as agent for prompt payment.
M. D. SCHUBERT.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Litty, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected soon to die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.
