THEIR ANNUAL REUNION.

The Surviving Members of the Company Again Exchange Their Experiences of Years Ago-Entertained By Mr.

Kizziah. It's a genuinely jolly time when Co. A of the 52nd N. C. Confederate regiment gets together in annual reunion.

Today (Thursday) August 17th the Morris House was the scene these occasions.

He was glad to look in to the eyes of veterans not only of that war but of those true veterans of life's vicissitudes. These reunions are the rekindlings of the memories of camp-fire scenes and a keeping alive the friendships of those days. Why not have the reunions. It is like the sweet ointment on Aaron's head than ran down on his beard and garments. It fills the demand No Came Here Tomorrow. of the noble heart to keep alive and ever fresh the friendships of former days. It is too, the emblem of that greater reunion to which we are moving and toward which we are passing out one by one. His benediction rested on the group.

A vote of thanks was most heartily given Mr. Oney for his address.

The company then went into the election of officers. Capt. J M Alexander was unanimously C Walter as secretary.

The company, by resolution, meets on the 3rd Thursday of every year, which fixes the time.

The original roll of the company was slowly gone over after the business and it was very interesting to note how many of the missing had faded out of the memory of some, but each was remembered by some one and some incident was related of each. The roll contained 118 and out of it it is believed that 35 yet live, 27 of whom were in the meeting.

A vote of thanks was extended Mr. J H Kizziah for the entertainment at the hotel for dinner.

A Moonlight Pienic.

Wednesday evening a party of young gentlemen took advantage Isn't It Strange of a lovely moonlight night and delightful picnic to White Hall. They went out in traps, buggies, etc., doing away with the usual jolting of wagons, which generally accompanies a picnic. The young ladies had prepared an elegant lunch, to which the ten o'clock the party returned, other who had helped render it.

The Papers Are Passed.

It is very often the case that a trade is virtually made though the papers have not yet been properly signed and exchanged. It will be remembered that Mr. W C Correll and Sheriff Peck have been on a trade for the property where Mr. Correll lives now. The papers have now been signed and the trade is closed.

According to the baseball schedule we were to have a game here tomorrow afternoon lotte to visit Miss Nannie Canwith the Charlotte boys, but non. since dates have been made for the remainder of the week between the Charlotte and Union teams, the game here has been called off. On next Monday our team goes to Mountain Island.

MRS. COLEY DEAD.

She Drops from Her Chair and Dies Before Anyone Reacher Her-A Resident of Cannonville-Had Heart Trouble.

Only two days beforehand Mrs. Coley, the wife of Mr. W M Coley, who now lives at Cannonville and who had been living at the Buffalo mill, went out to Mr. Geo. Coley's in No. 2 township to visit her relatives. She had been sick for some time but was able to be up and going. On Wednesday, the 16th, about noon while sitting on the porch she fell from her chair. Before either the man or the woman could get to her she was dead. She had had heart trouble.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's colic. stuck closely to the other. Tar. Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy boro made one run in the first was highly recommended and inning, three in the fifth, and sent and got a bottle at once. It two in the sixth. The South proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the one in the third, one in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every Rogers and LeGrande played mother to know what an excellent in the game, the former making medicine it is. Had I known it at two runs and the latter one run. first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much guffering .-Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I.
