TWO DEATHS.

Miss Hinson and Mrs. Bridges—Consumption the Cause of the Latter's Death—Personals.

Written for The Standard:

Forest Hill, August 24.—Miss Annie Troutman went to Charlotte this morning to visit her friends.

Miss Fannie Russell and her grandmother, Mrs. Mehaley, went over to Charlotte this morning.

Mr. W R Odell returned home late last night from a northern trip.

Miss Ella Hinson, sister of Mr. John Hinson, died this morning after being in bad health for some time. She lived at the home of her brother.

The wrecked car of salt is still off the track.

Mrs. Bridges, the wife of Mr. T F Bridges, died this morning. She had the dread disease—consumption. Behind her she leaves a husband and two children. The funeral will be preached tomorrow morning at the house.

Cheap Rates Tomorrow.

On account of the crowd that is likely to go to Charlotte tomorrow to witness the last game of the season in which our baseball team will take part, the Southern has given us a rate of 85 cents for the round trip, good to return on Saturday. This ticket, however, is not good on the vestibule train. The tickets will be sold for No. 11 tomorrow morning.

Two Popular Gentlemen.

Messrs. A. W. Mangum and W. P. LeGrande, who have been spending the summer in Concord, leave in a few days for Bingham School, Orange county, near Mebane, where the former gentleman is Physical Director and the latter is a student.

Got His Leg Broke.

Glass, August 24.—Frank Allison, a negro, got his leg broke here yesterday at the saw mill of Yorke, Wadsworth & Co. His leg in some way got caught in the carriage and both bones were broken below the knee. He is in a bad condition.

Knocked Out His Own Dog.

Frank Munday has a dog and Sid Prestwood had a dog. These dogs met, Sid's dog growled and Frank's dog growled. Then they "fit" and Frank's dog was doing the Jeffries act on Sid's, when Sid sailed in with a club intending to give Frank's dog a knock-out blow, but made a miss lick and killed his own dog. They say the air turned "blew" in that immediate vicinity and it looked like Sid would vanish into red-hot profanity before they could throw water on him to cool him. —Lenoir News.

A Terrible Temperance Remedy.

Parkersburg, W. Va., has always been a prohibition town. Recently through the development of coal property the population has increased from 200 to 1,000 and with the increase came bar rooms. This the old settlers cannot brook and they are banded together to burn out all the liquor houses it is said. Several have already been burned and the citizens do not turn out to fight the flames.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

THE TRESTLE GAVE WAY.

Julius Alexander Suffers the Death Penalty--A Negro Woman's Strange Death--A Policeman Accidentally Hurt.

Editorial Correspondence.

CHARLOTTE, Aug. 24.—No. 11, the local southbound train, which was delayed before reaching Concord, and which passed there at 12:30, was delayed nearly two hours between Concord and Harrisburg by the giving way of a trestle. Fortunately the train did not go on it, but we had to wait until the defect was remedied. The place was about half way between two stations. We reached here at 2:45 this afternoon.

Julius Alexander, the negro who some time ago committed an assault on Mrs. Mullis, was hanged here this morning at 10:23. When the trap fell a policeman, who was standing too near, was hurt by a falling timber, though not seriously. He was struck in the face.

A negro woman was this morning found dead at the Victor mill. Her clothes were torn from her body and found some distance away. Her head was mashed almost into a jelly. Nothing is at present known as to her death.

Splendid School Discipline.

Neatness, order, obedience punctuality and self-dependence are secured at the Bingham School, near Mebane, N. C., by wise rules and regulations properly enforced, without the expensive uniform, heavy gun, severe penalties, onerous mechanical drill and restraints of military system.

To the Mooresville Picnic.

Today is the day for the big Masonic picnic at Mooresville. An immense crowd is expected to be on the grounds there today. Misses Rosa Mund and May Pitts, Capt. J. M. Alexander, and Messrs. Eli Goldston, Marshall Mabrey and H. P. Deaton, from this place, attended.

Took Advantage of the Rate.

The Southern gave a cheap rate to Norfolk and return, the parties to leave on the night of the 23rd. Messrs. John Smith, Henry Ritz, Jno. A. Blackwelder, John Bost, Frank Brown, Dr. L. N. Burleyson, Jno. W. Cook, Geo. L. Fisher and Geo. Winecoff, left here that night to return on Saturday morning.

Oil In Buncombe.

Buncombe county it seems is about to "strike it." The Asheville Citizen says that Gen. Theo. F Davidson has been suspecting the presence of oil in the county for several years from the indications of oil on the waters in time of freshets. Prof. Joseph Leiter in hunting for gold found some rocks recently that seemed saturated with oil and it now seems to be treed.

Contractor Absconds.

One George Clarke, a contractor of Charlotte, who, it seems, is back with his workmen and others to the tune of $2,000 is not to be found. He worked about one hundred hands and had contracts for good buildings. There is no little confusion among workmen who owe bills that they expected to meet. But they can't meet Clarke.

Too Late.

"I've come to tell you, sir, that the photographs you took of us the other day are not at all satisfactory. Why, my husband looks like an ape!"
"Well, madame, you should have thought of that before you had him taken."—Tit-Bits.

Mr. Chas. Harris Thrown From the Buggy.

On Wednesday afternoon while out driving Mr. Chas. Harris had quite a dangerous experience when his horse became suddenly frightened and by a dash threw him from the buggy. He kept his hold on the lines and was dragged about forty feet on the ground. Fortunately he at last got the animal quieted and no damage was done more than that he was slightly bruised on the arms and a suit of clothes badly injured. It was a dangerous occurrence and he was fortunate to come out of it as well as he did.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for chills and Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults refer to it as bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.

UNVEILING CEREMONIES.

The Woodmen of the World to Unveil the Monument of Their Fallen Brother Sunday Afternoon.

On Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Woodmen of the World of this place will assemble at Elm Camp at the town hall and will march in a body to the cemetery where the monument which now stands to the memory of Mr. S C Alexander, who died several months ago, will be unveiled.

It is probable that several visiting members of this organization will be present. An appropriate address will be delivered by Mr. L D Duval who will also read the poem prescribed by their ritual.

The public will of course attend these exercises. It is probable that the cornet band will attend and take part in the exercises.

We Must Conquer Tomorrow.

Tomorrow our baseball team goes to Charlotte where they play off the tie with the Mountain Island boys. This promises to be a warm game of ball and well attended too, as Charlotte, together with all of Mountain Island and a large part of Concord, is deeply interested in this game. Mountain Island will come over prepared to win the game if there is the least possible chance and Kenna will do his best, but Concord will be there and the red, white and blue will figure prominently.

CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

A Strong Faculty.

There are a larger number of College and University graduates in the faculty of the Bingham School of Orange county, near Mebane, N. C., than in any high school in North Carolina. There are nine full graduates in the Faculty and officers.
