A CAKE WALK.

Married and Single Alike Take Part--
Two Cases of Sickness--Officers of the Tuscarora Cotton Mill Elected.

Written for The Standard.

Mt. Pleasant, Sept. 19.—Work is rapidly progressing on the well for the new cotton mill.

Mr. John B McAllister is not doing so well as at the time of our last correspondence. Mr. John Foil, son of Mr. Joe Foil, is filling his place behind the counter at Cook & Foil's.

Polls have been placed for a telephone line to the seminary. It will connect with the line between Concord and Albemarle.

Mr. Wade Misenheimer has moved his family to Concord, where he has secured employment in the Odell mills.

Mr. George Moore is very low with chronic diarrhoea. Little hope of his recovery is sustained.

Messrs. Whit Dry and George Moose have placed machinery in the old gin house, known as the Luther Barrier gin, and will begin ginning in a few days.

Rev. R L Patterson, of Union Bridge, Md., who has been visiting here for the last few days, leaves Wednesday for Chicago, where he will take a special course in theology.

Two negroes are now living in the shanty in the rear of Dr. Foil's office. Last Saturday night some unknown parties gave them a bombardment with stones. The negroes, like the Filipinos, are still there.

Two negro women, Jennie Heilig and Em Cook, were arraigned before Captain Cook yesterday for fighting. Each was fined ten dollars and cost, making twelve and one-half dollars each.

Some unknown parties were out for fun last Sunday night. John Barley-corn led them around town and had some fences torn down, pistols fired, and a number of other things that were not exactly in accordance with the keeping of the Sabbath day.

The cake walk last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. L J Foil was quite a pleasant affair. About eight o'clock the music began, as furnished by Miss Annie Welsh on the piano. Out on the lawn the couples were taking their places and very soon the walk was on. After a ten minutes walk, the drum beat came just as the flag was being passed from one couple to another. As both had hold of the flag, the cake was awarded to two couples, viz: Miss Blanche McAllister and Mr. D D Barrier, and Mrs. L J Foil and Dr. P A Barrier. It was then cut and passed to all the participants in the walk. Games were introduced for the rest of the evening and at the usual hour they dispersed to meet again probably next Saturday evening.

The stockholders of the Tuscarora cotton mill held a meeting today. Their object was to organize under the charter and elect officers, which are as follows: Directors, J W Cannon, Rev. Paul Barringer, Jonas Cook, Dr. M A Foil, D D Barrier, A N James, I P Efrid; President, J W Cannon; Secretary and Treasurer, Rev. Paul Barringer.

Soliciting Committee and assistant managers—Ward 1, Misses Pearl Brown and Sadie Fisher. Ward 2—Misses Kate Means and Agnes Moss. Ward 3, Misses Grace Brown and Juliette Johnston. Ward 4, Misses Mary Skinner and Alice Sims.

Waiters—Misses Lucy Montgomery, Willie Richmond, Lallah Hill, Emily Gibson, Margaret Cannon, Pattie Adams, Fay Brown, Mary Virginia Wadsworth, Jennie Gibson, Mary Ella Cannon, Addie Patterson, Grace Brown, Juliette Johnston, Mary Skinner, Cora Lentz, Kate Morrison, Belle Means, Grace Fisher, Kate Gibson, Janie Ervin, Pearl Brown, Agnes Moss, Ollie Cline, Annie Young, Wilma Correll and Janie Patterson.

Managers—Mesdames P B Fetzer, R E Ridenhour, G W Brown, Chas. W Correll, A E Lentz, R E Gibson, D B Morrison, W R Harris, D B Coltrane, W R Odell and H M Barrow.

The managers are requested to meet Friday afternoon to complete arrangements.

To Make Concord Their Home.

As soon as suitable arrangements can be made about houses two of our farmers with their families will move to Concord. The one is Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gillon and the other is Esq. S R Andrew and family, of the Popular Tent neighborhood. Such citizens as these are always welcome to our town with their families.

The Twenty-Ninth Preparing to Leave.

The Twenty-Ninth Infantry, to which Lieutenant Edward Hill, and Messrs. Jay Sims and Fletcher Foil, of this place, belong, is making all preparations to leave Fort McPherson this week bound for San Francisco where they sail for the Philippines.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Never fails to cure; Then why experiment with worthless imitations? Price 50 cents. Your money back if it fails to cure.

Simeon Hatley Dead.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Simeon Hatley, a blind man, who lived several miles east of Mt. Pleasant, died leaving a wife and several children. The remains were interred at Salem church graveyard.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist

A Beautiful Entrance to be Built.

Seven wagon loads of granite were brought from Rowan county Tuesday for the new entrance to be built at St. James Lutheran church, which place was changed very much when the street was cut down. It is at present very unhandy and dangerous and though a good amount of expense is attached, an entrance will soon be built there that will add much to the beauty of the place thereabout and give easy and convenient access to the church. The plans have been submitted by Architect Hook, of Charlotte.

Some Negroes Gave a False Alarm.

Several persons along on Spring street plainly heard an alarm Tuesday night some time after 11 o'clock over at the colored Baptist church. The bell was rung and several persons were heard hollering "fire." It was a false alarm and seems to have been a crowd of colored people trying to get a little bit gay.

Mr. Smoot Dayvault to Build.

Work will commence soon on a nice one-story residence for Mr. Smoot Dayvault on Mill street. It will be built on his lot purchased some time ago between the homes of Mr. B F Rogers and Mr. W G Boshamer.
