TOMORROW NIGHT.

The Place of Serving Refreshments for the Concord Band Changed to Caton's Hall Instead of On the Lawn.

It has been decided by the lady managers that the refreshments will be served in Caton's hall tomorrow night instead of on the lawn at Mr. Jno. C Wadsworth's residence.

Remember these refreshments—ices, cakes, creams, fruits, etc.—will be sold for the benefit of the Concord band.

On account of some of the younger people, the doors will be open at 6 o'clock. The band will occupy the stage and will furnish music for the audience while they wait and eat.

It is requested that the different committees meet in the hall tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Please remember the time and the place—tomorrow night at Caton's hall.

His Father Loses Everything By Fire.

Dr. L M Archey has received sorrowful news that his father's house in the country, near Union, West Virginia, was burned to the ground. Only the Saturday before Dr. Archey was there and viewed for the last time his old home place where he had been raised. The cause of the fire is unknown. Nothing was saved, not even his father's valuable papers. They only escaped with their lives. Mr. Archey, after living to be 90 years of age, is thus so unfortunate as to see his old home place razed to the ground. Numbers of valuable deeds, mortgages, etc., were destroyed.

ANOTHER COTTON MILL

A Movement on Foot for Another Large Cotton Factory in the Northwestern Part of Town—All Plans Not Yet Completed.

Though the movement has been started only a short while plans are being perfected for another cotton mill for Concord. The movement has been talked but a short while but stock has already been subscribed by numbers of our most prominent business men for a large cotton mill to be built on what is known as the Misenheimer property in the northwestern part of town not far from the Buffalo mill.

Mr. Robt. E Gibson is one of the principal promoters of the new enterprise but numbers are assisting him. The stock will be subscribed and paid in on the instalment plan, as was the stock in the Cabarrus mill.

Big Work of the Little Folks.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday schools of the south have succeeded in supplying a missionary boat to ply the rivers of Central Africa. Their contribution in pennies and other small change amounts to $10,000 and for this sum, the Triggs ship yard, at Richmond, has contracted to build a river boat. It will be a flat-bottomed stern wheeler, patterned after the craft that plies the Cape Fear between Fayetteville and Wilmington. After it is finished at the Richmond yards, it will be taken to pieces, shipped to Antwerp and the Congo, then by rail to Stanley Pool, where it will be rebuilt. The trip up to Luebo, about 800 miles will require 16 days. Above Stanley Pool there are 10,000 miles of waterway open to such a boat from Stanley Pool, up the Congo, the Kassar, and Lulua rivers, are 1,600 miles of banks, with numerous villages and a very large population to be reached. An object to be attained in the transportation of mission supplies, without costly dependence upon others. Then there will be free intercourse at will between the mission stations. The boat will bear the name of Samuel N. Lapsley, who gave his life for Africa, Dr. D W Synder, who left Florida seven years ago as a missionary to Africa under the auspices of the Presbyterian church of the south, is in Richmond look after the building of the boat.—Charlotte Observer.

If the dress reformers succeed in abolishing corsets, the dear girls will have no staying qualities left.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at Fetzner's Drug Store.

Novel, Effectual and Good Way.

The Albemarle correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says: "One day this week a fellow who has been working in one of the cotton mills here bought a suit of clothes from a firm on time. Hearing that he was arranging to leave town the salesman who sold him the suit assisted by two of his fellow clerks followed the gentleman and located him in a strip of woods near town, compelled him to disrobe then and there without any further ceremony. The fellow had to stay in the woods for some little time until he could dispatch some one to hash house for more rags in which to envelop his person. This is a new way of collecting a debt but a very effective one."
