CONCORD, N. C., Sept. 22.

BOTH SIDES.

A man in his carriage was riding along,

A gaily dressed wife by his side;
In satin and laces she looked like a queen,

And he is like a king in his pride.

A woodsawyer stood on the street as they passed,

The carriage and couple he eyed:

And said as he worked with his saw on a log,

"I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife,

"One thing I would give if I could—

I'd give my wealth for the strength and the health

Of the man who sawed the wood."

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work,

Whose face as the morning was fair,

Went tripping along with a smile of delight,

While humming a love-breathing air.

She looked on the carriage; the lady she saw,

Arrayed in apparel so fine,

And said in a whisper, "I wish from my heart

Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with the work,

So fair in the calico dress,

And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth,

Her beauty and youth to possess."

Thus it is in the world, whatever our lot,

Our minds and our time we employ,

In longing and singing for what we have not,

Ungrateful for what we enjoy.
Written for the Greensboro Patriot.

The News & Observer thanks Mr. Albert Mish, of Mishville for a basket of the celebrated Mish grapes which are said to be not unlike the Scuppermong in flavor. It is black in color and the editor says that doubtless the Almighty can make a better grape but He never did. If there is any thing in the line of an ad in this and we can't share the grapes a vine will do.

It is evident that Brother Deal of the Wilkesboro, Chronicle is among the number of those who believe that angels have wings,

for he says:

The latest among bicycle riders is to have a representation of their "wheel" cut on their tomb stone. Next thing we know the bicycles will be pictured with little wings on them.

A Manila dispatch of the 23rd says:

It is learned that the commissioners sent to the Philippines will report unanimously against the administration of Otis. They will urge a change of commanders.

We are prepared to credit this despite the fact that we have been urged to believe that Gen. Otis censures all dispatches and makes then say as he wants things to be.

We are sorry at receiving a notice from the editor of the Marion Messenger that that valued exchange has suspended. It is always suggestive of progress backward when a journal, needed in a community, is allowed to languish and die.

Today (Sept. 22nd) is pick-pocket day in Durham we note from the big show poetry.

Montejo Punished.

Admiral Montejo who commanded the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay is the first Spanish officer punished as far as we have observed after all the bluster and talk of shooting them for getting whipped when they just could not do the whipping themselves. He has been condemned to retirement without the right of promotion.

Marion, Madison County, sends 27 men to join the 41 regiment of U. S. Volunteers. This beats any town in the state and doubtless for the size of it, any in the south. It is said to be due to the popularity of Lieut. A V Brown who is from Marion.

Definition of the New Woman.

It would seem that a working woman, as a working woman, is not necessarily the New Woman. Where is the New Woman? A diligent search does not seem to bring her to light. The writer propounded the question, "What is your idea of the New Woman?" to several people of her acquaintance and received the following answers:

First Business Man—A female crank.

Second Business Man—a woman suffragist.

Third Business Man—A woman who knows what's what and can't be bamboozled.

Fourth Business Man—A woman who is educated and keeps up with the questions of the day, and doesn't gossip, and has an opinion of her own.

First Married Woman—A creature who smokes and wears bloomers and rides a bicycle and hates men and votes.

Second Married Woman—An old maid who wants to gain notoriety.

Third Married Woman—A mother who hopes to gain in knowledge every day—knowledge of the laws of health and of the mind, so that she may know better how to guide her children; a woman who'll be less and less tolerant of any wrong-doing of her husband which may bring harm to her family.

Fourth Married Woman—Lucy Stone.

First Single Woman—A woman who doesn't want to get married.

Second Single Woman—Any woman who is capable of deductive reasoning.

Third Single Woman—Any woman who is trying to make the most of herself, mind and body, heart and soul.

Fourth Single Woman—A woman who thinks that she has the same right to representation in the government that her brother has, and proposes to work until that right is conceded to her.

Failure again! Several of those definitions are very good, but they cannot all be right, since they are so different.

Does the New Woman really exist at all then? To speak in the vulgar tongue, it would seem that where there is so much smoke there must be a little fire. —Woman's Journal.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED DAUGHTERS LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. —Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For Sale by M. L. Marsh & Co., Druggist.
