A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

The Baptist Church the Scene of the Marriage—Beautiful Decorations.

Thursday night the Baptist church was beautifully decorated to await the fulfilment of love's vows made by Rev. J E M Davenport, of Coinjock, N. C., and Miss Jennie Sapp, of this place. It was a beautiful church wedding and numbers of people attended.

At the appointed hour, 8 o'clock, the bride, leaning upon the arm of Mr. Jas. Sapp, and the groom, escorted by Rev. B Lacy Hoge, entered and advanced to the altar where the marriage vows were taken, which vows were sealed with a beautiful ring.

The ushers were Messrs. Wade Kimball and J H Jones, of Salisbury; Mr. Wm. Muswick, of Baltimore, and Mr. Walter Hopkins, of this city. After the ceremony was ended the invited ones repaired to the Kimball house where an excellent reception was tendered by Mrs. Kimball, a sister of the bride.

May their life in the future be strewn with the most beautiful roses as it was on this occasion by little Misses Lula Craven and Annie Hoge.

The newly wedded couple will remain here a day or two before returning to the groom's field of work.

While the invited ones were assembled in the church the audience was treated to a beautiful solo by Miss Adah Craven. Miss Mattie Lindsay, of Matthews, presided at the organ and played the wedding march for the occasion.

A Sunday School Rally.

Sunday promises to be an interesting day in Presbyterian churches, being the day set apart as Rally Day by the Sunday schools of the Presbyterian church. An interesting programme has been arranged, consisting of responsive reading, fine music, recitations and addresses by Mr. N D Fetzer and Mr. Chas. C Orr, principal of our graded school. A rally day is specially appropriate, as the roll in this Sunday school has been run up from about 90 on the summer basis to about 200.

A Small Wreck at the Furniture Store.

Thursday afternoon trouble came to the firm of Bell, Harris & Co. The moulding to which numbers of beautiful pictures were hanging, came loose and down came about six of the largest pictures, dropping from the ceiling to the floor. Several were broken to pieces.

Miss Daisy Sims Married.

On Thursday night in Charlotte Miss Daisy Sims, of that place, was married to Mr. Claude Matthews, who is city editor of the Charlotte News. Miss Sims is a daughter of Mr. J M Sims and is related to the family of that name here.

—Mr. Dick Smith arrived here this morning to visit his sister, Mrs. M L Brown.

THE DEATH CALL.

A Maiden Lady Falls Asleep—Typhoid Fever the Cause of Her Death—The Remains Interred in No. 5 Township.

It was noted in Thursday's edition that Miss Mary Locke Goodman, a lady who lived with her brother, Mr. Wm. Goodman, on Church street, was very ill. On Thursday night she fell asleep to wake no more.

Miss Goodman was a good Christian lady and leaves good deeds and a good name behind her. Some time ago she had an attack of typhoid fever which caused her death. She was a lady of about 30 years.

The funeral was preached at the home today (Friday) at 1 o'clock by Rev. Nelson. The remains were taken to the burying ground of Mt. Carmel church in No. 5 township.

Couldn't Sail Without Wind.

The Columbia and the Shamrock, the former American the latter English, attempted Wednesday and Thursday to get off the speed contest, but it was no go. The Shamrock was boasted of as independent of the direction of the wind, but no breeze took the wind out of the sails.

Mt. Vernon to Change Hands.

The Mount Vernon hotel at Salisbury changes management. The owner, Mr. Frercks, who has been running it for 14 years retires, but will live in the hotel. The hotel will be under the proprietorship of J W Crowell after the 15th inst.

Young Lady Dead at Mt. Pleasant.

On Thursday night Miss Ollie Honeycutt, daughter of Mr. Joe Honeycutt, died. Miss Honeycutt was a young lady and some time ago had a severe case of typhoid fever from which she never recovered.

Counterfeiters Run Down.

A gang of counterfeiters have been run down and the principals have been arrested and lodged in jail in the eastern part of the State. The moulds and metal have been found and seized. Publicity is yet incomplete.

His Stay Is Limited.

Dr. Byers, the eye specialist, is at the St. Cloud hotel for a limited stay. His services are in large demand by the appreciative patients, and as his stay is of a short duration, we would suggest that those who anticipate a visit Dr. Byers' office with view of consulting him professionally had better do so at once or be disappointed.

Office—Room 15, St. Cloud hotel.

Color Line Tight.

The color line is drawn more closely in the Transvall than any where we know of. A negro is not allowed to walk on the sidewalks but must walk in the middle of the road or street.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS

and fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Never fails to cure; Then why experiment with worthless imitations? Price 50 cents. Your money back if it fails to cure.

GEN. JULIAN S. CARR

Offers $100 for the Best Sketch of a Decade of North Carolina History.

To promote the study of North Carolina history and to encourage our making a home literature, Gen. Julian S Carr has offered a prize of $100 for the best compend or epitome of any decade of our State's history within the period embraced between the year 1782 and 1882.

The contest is open to any resident North Carolinian. No more than fifty will be allowed to enter, and these will be the first who apply.

The sketches must not exceed twenty-five pages—400 words to the page. They should be written in a simple, direct, and logical styles, for this contest—the purpose being to cultivate both a literary and historical spirit. The prize sketch and some of the best of the others may be published.

In compliment to the efforts of the North Carolina Publishing Society of Raleigh, N. C., in behalf of the history and literature of our State, Gen. Carr has asked that the contest be conducted under their auspices, and that all communications on the subject be addressed to them.

The following shall be a sufficient form of application to enter the contest: I, ....., of ....., county of ....., a resident North Carolinian, apply to enter the contest for the history prize offered by Gen. J S Carr. The decade I have chosen is that between .. and ..; and I agree to diligently study it and submit a typewritten compend thereof done to the best of my ability, and according to the rules and requirements of the contest.

The Whipping Post.

Delaware has received much criticism on account of the whipping post law, which has been in force some years in that State. On Saturday nine men were publicly whipped at New Castle for the crimes of burglarly and petit lareny, in the presence of 500 people. There was no pretence about the punishment. The lash was laid on according to the manner provided by the law. It is easy to say harsh things about punishment in this form, and the so-called humanitarians and the super-sensitive have not been sparing in their condemnation. There is, however, another side of the case. The fact that Delaware has tried this method of punishment, and refuses to repeal the law, is evidence that experience has shown that it is not advisable to abolish the whipping post. There is nothing more valuable in the study of crime than experience in finding out what method of punishment is best adapted to certain cases. Delaware has concluded that applying the cat-o-nine-tail to thieves is better than locking them in jail for six months and feeding them at the State's expense.—Baltimore Sun.

Pays to Keep Cotton Clean.

It is a mistaken idea that some farmers have that it does not pay to keep their cotton clean. Mr. Jere Brown, one of our good farmers who has always been careful to keep the cotton as free from dirt and trash as possible, had two bales sold in Norfolk two or three days ago that sold above the market price. Messrs. W. D. Rountree and Company, who sold it wrote that it brought the "highest price we have heard of any cotton selling for up to the present this session."—Patron and Gleaner.
